William Cathcart

Valuing Age Pastoral Ministry With Older People New Library Of Pastoral Care:

Valuing Age James Woodward, 2008 Pastoral care and practical theology in the light of age and ageing are the focus of this book. It will help carers in many different settings to understand the elderly and the issues they face. In particular, it looks at how theories of age relate to our experience and how experience might challenge and shape our theologies. Our shared commitment to an awareness of lifelong learning can help our ministry to be reflective and wise; it can broaden our imagination with sympathy. The text is grounded in the experience of older people: their hopes and fears, their problems and possibilities. There are exercises at the end of each chapter to help reflection. BOOK JACKET

Making Relational Care Work for Older People Jenny Kartupelis, 2020-10-06 This book explores the concept of relational care: what it feels like for older people and for carers; why it makes life happier and how those involved in residential or community care can make it work. Relational care is gaining traction as its benefits to individuals and society become recognised. This accessible book, based on real-life models and in-depth interviews, explores fresh ways that relational care can be facilitated in a variety of settings. It looks at practice in terms of team management, support for care workers, technology design and architecture, intergenerational and multidisciplinary models and their implications for resilience, wellbeing, policy and future funding. Chapters are arranged by theme and provide descriptions, learning points and resources for each model, as well as incorporating a wealth of interviews giving insights into the lived experience of relational care. This is a lively book full of realistic ideas and information for everyone who wants to find out more about access or implement the best in care for older people: their families, care workers, management and society. Unmasking the Angel Stephen Langford, 2025-05-01 This book explores the concept of an angel of the church. It begins with the question that so intrigued Walter Wink: Why would Jesus ask John to write to an angel in Revelation 2-3? This work develops critiques and expands Wink's answer. It does so by taking the historical records of three churches in England's West Country and bringing them into conversation with Wink's understanding of the angel of the church. It then goes further by introducing Wink's work to specialists in fields that include architecture, demographics and church polity. This scholarly conversation creates a matrix within which ministers with pastoral charge might be equipped to explore the spiritual identity or angel of their own congregations. Resilient Pastors Justine Allain-Chapman, 2013-01-23 How can I help others to be strengthened during difficulties in life? How can I cope when I'm overwhelmed with the demands of helping others? Pastors, including clergy, need to be able to provide the right kind of circumstances, teaching and care to enable people to face crisis and come through difficulties stronger as human beings and as Christians. They also need the quality of resilience to be involved in Christian ministry. Justine Allain-Chapman's thoughtful book draws on the stories and themes of Christian theology and tradition, on contemporary research into resilience and the insights of psychology to help people make sense of the personal costs of pastoral care. This book is an important resource for pastors written to help them recognize the dynamics of developing their own resilience as well as enabling them to strengthen others It is an essential guide to understanding how what is preached and taught in churches prepares people for life s difficulties Being Your Age Michael Butler,Ann Orbach,1993-01-01
