Van Sint Elisabeths Gasthuis Tot Gereformeerd Burgerweeshuis 14851814:

Van Sint Elisabeths-gasthuis tot Gereformeerd Burgerweeshuis (1485-1814). Antonie Johannes Maria Kunst, 1954 Art and Allegiance in the Dutch Golden Age Margriet Eikema Hommes, 2025-10-01 In the early 1650s Ferdinand Bol produced a series of wall covering paintings This painted chamber is a unique example of a branch of the art of painting which was extremely popular in the seventeenth century although hardly any of it now remains Bol s ensemble has always been surrounded by mysteries Who was the initial owner what was the reason for its commission and how were the ceiling high canvases originally placed Through a combination of material technical research and archival stylistic iconographic and cultural historical investigation these questions have for the first time been given convincing answers This book with Bol s unique ensemble in the lead role is the account of an exciting art historical quest The journey begins with apparently insignificant damage to the canvases and small remnants of old paint and varnish passing via Biblical classical and contemporary history to its eventual destination in the remarkable life of a particularly ambitious Utrecht widow The reader becomes familiar with the religious beliefs ideals and social ambitions of a remarkable woman and sees close up how through Bol s paintings she was able to give literal expression to her endeavours in the turbulent Utrecht in the middle of the Golden Age Women and Work in Premodern Europe Merridee L. Bailey, Tania M. Colwell, Julie Hotchin, 2018-05-20 This book re evaluates and extends understandings about how work was conceived and what it could entail for women in the premodern period in Europe from c 1100 to c 1800 It does this by building on the impressive growth in literature on women s working experiences and by adopting new interpretive approaches that expand received assumptions about what constituted work for women While attention to the diversity of women s contributions to the economy has done much to make the breadth of women s experiences of labour visible this volume takes a more expansive conceptual approach to the notion of work and considers the social and cultural dimensions in which activities were construed and valued as work This interdisciplinary collection thus advances concepts of work that encompass cultural activities in addition to more traditional economic understandings of work as employment or labour for production The chapters reconceptualise and explore work for women by asking how the working lives of historical women were enacted and represented and analyse the relationships that shaped women s experiences of work across the European premodern period A Classified Bibliography of the History of Dutch Medicine 1900-1974 G.A. Lindeboom, 2012-12-06 I In some periods of the past Netherlands medicine has played a major role in the evolution of European medicine today its history still enjoys much interest even at the other side of the Ocean In this bibliography it has been my endeavour to compile references for all that has been written on the history of Dutch medicine in our country and elsewhere in our age The main concern of this work is with the medicine of the Northern Netherlands However before the end of the sixteenth century the Northern and Southern Netherlands were not yet divided into two separate countries they were still politically one and for the greater part spoke the same Flemish language So be fore their separation the present day Belgium and Netherlands also had a common medical history Therefore many entries have been included which bear on early and sometimes later Flemish medicine but it has not been the intention to strive for completeness in this respect
