Tradition And Reflection Tradition And Reflection:

Tradition and Reflection Wilhelm Halbfass, 1991-01-01 This book examines above all the relationship between reason and Vedic revelation and the philosophical responses to the idea of the Veda It deals with such topics as dharma karma and rebirth the role of man in the universe the motivation and justification of human actions the relationship between ritual norms and universal ethics and reflections on the goals and sources of human knowledge Halbfass presents previously unknown materials concerning the history of sectarian movements including the notorious Thugs thaka and relations between Indian and Iranian thought The approach is partly philosophical and partly historical and philological to a certain extent it is also comparative The author explores indigenous Indian reflections on the sources the structure and the meaning of the Hindu tradition and traditional philosophical responses to social and historical realities He does not deal with social and historical realities per se rather basing his work on the premise that to understand these realities the reflections and constructions of traditional Indian theorists are no less significant than the observations and paradigms of modern Western historians and social scientists he explores the self understanding of such leading thinkers as Sankara Kumarila Bhartrhari and Udayana

Theological Reflection and Education for Ministry Professor John E Paver,2013-05-28 A major and continuing problem for theological education and the practice of Christian ministry is how to best achieve a genuine integration between theory and practice theology and experience The key claim of this book is that theological reflection beginning with experience is a method of integration and that pastoral supervision is a vehicle for theological reflection In establishing this claim John Paver demonstrates that the model and method have potential to be a catalyst for reform within theological colleges and seminaries Three different theological reflection models are developed and critiqued in this book and their capacity to be developed in particular contexts is explored This book does not stop at ministry cultural and personal integration but is bold enough to make recommendations for structural integration within the theological institution

Phenomenological Reflections on Mindfulness in the Buddhist Tradition Erol Čopelj,2022-06-24 This book offers an original phenomenological description of mindfulness and related phenomena such as concentration sam dhi and the practice of insight vipassan It demonstrates that phenomenological method has the power to reanimate ancient Buddhist texts giving new life to the phenomena at which those texts point Beginning with descriptions of how mindfulness is encountered in everyday pre philosophical life the book moves on to an analysis of how the Pali Nik yas of Theravada Buddhism define mindfulness and the practice of cultivating it It then offers a critique of the contemporary attempts to explain mindfulness as a kind of attention The author argues that mindfulness is not attention nor can it be understood as a mere modification of the attentive process Rather becoming mindful involves a radical shift in perspective According to the author s account being mindful is the feeling of being tuned in to the open horizon which is contrasted with Edmund Husserl s transcendental horizon The book also elucidates the difference between the practice of cultivating mindfulness with the practice of the phenomenological epoch which reveals new possibilities for the practice of phenomenology itself Phenomenological Reflections on Mindfulness in the Buddhist Tradition will appeal to scholars and advanced students interested in phenomenology Buddhist philosophy and comparative philosophy

Anonymous The philosophy is to compliment the solid work of the many which came before and to simplify the initial stages and some of the many processes involved Recovery is a challenge for the people directly involved including families and friends of those afflicted by the diseases of alcoholism and addiction whether the addiction is substance or behavior related The substance user drinker or addictive personality has an effect on at least twenty people directly or indirectly related to them I wish you all God speed on this journey which has been granted to me as well by the grace of God Thank you David W Lewry

Asian Traditions of Meditation Halvor Eifring, 2016-10-31 Meditation has flourished in different parts of the world ever since the foundations of the great civilizations were laid It played a vital role in the formation of Asian cultures that trace much of their heritage to ancient India and China This volume brings together for the first time studies of the major traditions of Asian meditation as well as material on scientific approaches to meditation It delves deeply into the individual traditions while viewing each of them from a global perspective examining both historical and generic connections between meditative practices from numerous historical periods and different parts of the Eurasian continent It seeks to identify the cultural and historical peculiarities of Asian schools of meditation while recognizing basic features of meditative practice across cultures thereby taking the first step toward a framework for the comparative study of meditation The book accessibly written by scholars from several fields opens with chapters that discuss the definition and classification of meditation These are followed by contributions on Yoga and Tantra which are often subsumed under the broad label of Hinduism Jainism and Sikhism Indian traditions not usually associated with meditation Buddhist approaches found in Southeast Asia Tibet and China and the indigenous Chinese traditions Daoism and Neo Confucianism The final chapter explores recent scientific interest in meditation which despite its Western orientation remains almost exclusively concerned with practices of Asian origin Until a few years ago a major obstacle to the study of specific meditation practices within the traditions explored here was a widespread scholarly orientation that prioritized doctrinal issues and sociocultural contexts over actual practice The contributors seek to counter this bias and supplement concerns over doctrine and context with the historical study of meditative practice Asian Traditions of Meditation will appeal broadly to readers interested in meditation mindfulness and spirituality and those in the emerging field of contemplative education as well as students and scholars of Asian and religious studies

Confucian Reflections Philip J Ivanhoe, 2013-06-26 Confucian Reflections Ancient Wisdom for Modern Times is about the early Chinese Confucian classic the Analects Lunyu attributed to the founder of the Confucian tradition Kongzi 551 479 bce and who is more commonly referred to as Confucius in the West Philip J Ivanhoe argues that the Analects is as relevant and important today as it has proven to be over the course of its more than 2000 year history not only for the people who live in East Asian societies but for all human beings The fact that this text has inspired so many talented people for so long across a range of complex creative rich and fascinating cultures offers a strong prima facie reason for thinking that the insights the Analects contains are not bound by either the particular time or cultural context in which the text took shape

Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections

ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations. However, for friendship to advance, there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions. Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues, seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions. It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations, in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews, his closest personal friend. Contributors: Balwant Singh Dhillon, Timothy J. Gianotti, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Maria Reis Habito, Ruben L. F. Habito, Ryan McAnnally Linz, Stephen Butler Murray, Eleanor Nesbitt, Anantanand Rambachan, Meir Sendor, Johann M. Vento, and Miroslav Volf.

ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even present-day relations. Its operative notion is the healing of memory, developed by John Paul II. Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes. Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross-religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present-day relations. At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope. If memory informs our past, hope sets the horizon for our future. How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future? And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good? Between memory and hope, this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations. Contributors: Rahuldeep Singh Gill, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Maria Reis Habito, Flora A. Keshgegian, Anantanand Rambachan, Meir Sendor, Muhammad Suheyl Umar, and Michael von Brück.

ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here, prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy, explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom, learning, teachings, messages for good living. How should religions go about sharing their wisdom? These chapters, representing six faith traditions—Jewish, Christian, Muslim, Hindu, Sikh, and Buddhist—explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions, why and how it should be shared internally and externally, and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing. This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition-based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared. Contributors: Pal Ahluwalia, Timothy Gianotti, Alon Goshen-Gottstein, Sallie B. King, Anantanand Rambachan, Meir Sendor, Miroslav Volf.

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world's religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces. Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments, polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media, and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions. This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups.

ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today s world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sender Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra
