s civic philosophy Following Cicero Isocrates and Renaissance humanists early modern Jesuit teachers of the studia humanitatis coupled eloquence with wisdom and in so doing invested the rhetorician with such qualities and duties which many quattrocento humanists ascribed to an active citizen or statesman These qualities centred on the duty to promote the common good by actively participating in civic life This book will appeal to scholars and students alike interested in the history of the Jesuits history of ideas and early modern history in general Amphion Orator Michael Taormina,2021-02-15 This new approach to Malherbe s odes interweaves political cultural rhetorical and literary history to show how they constitute a unified sequence whose ambition is to forge a new national community in the aftermath of the Wars of Religion dislodging Malherbe from his moribund critical reception as a grammarian and technician and recovering the brilliance of a poetic genius whose political mythmaking stems from an impassioned patriotism The Cambridge Encyclopedia of the Jesuits Armstrong, Megan and Corkery, James , SJ, and Fleming, Alison and Worcester, Thomas SJ Prieto, Andrés Ignacio Shea, Henry , SJ, The Routledge Handbook of the Sociopolitical Context of Language Learning Weixiao Wei,Der-lin Chao,2025-03-11 The Routledge Handbook of the Sociopolitical Context of Language Learning is a compelling examination of how language education must adapt to our rapidly changing world This book explores the need for a fresh perspective on language learning moving beyond traditional methods to address the complexities of today s global landscape It delves into the impact of geopolitical shifts cultural exchanges and social justice issues on language education The book offers a blend of theoretical insights and practical approaches highlighting how language learning intersects with global politics and cultural diversity It examines case studies from various countries including Ukraine and Oman to reveal how language policies and practices are evolving in response to contemporary challenges By integrating themes of identity equity and intercultural understanding the book presents groundbreaking content that pushes for more inclusive and effective language education Ideal for educators policymakers and anyone interested in the future of language learning this book provides valuable perspectives on how to rethink and redesign language education to better serve a diverse and interconnected world It offers practical strategies and thought provoking analyses making it an essential resource for navigating the complexities of modern language teaching and learning The Rebirth of American Literary Theory and Criticism H. Aram Veaser,2020-11-27 The interviewees of this volume fall into three groups the main players who brought about the rise of theory Fish Gallop Spivak Bhabha a younger group of post theorists B rub Dimock Nealon Warren the anti critique theorists Felski and new order theorists Puchner Wolfe They discuss elemental questions such as trying to grasp what was logic and what was rhetoric trying to see down the road while fog and turmoil held visibility to arm s length and trying to pick legible meanings out of the cultural blanket of deafening noise Theorists were not only good thinkers but also pioneers who were seeking profound transformations Mapping Christian Rhetorics Michael-John DePalma,Jeffrey M. Ringer,2014-10-10 The continued importance of Christian rhetorics in political social pedagogical and civic affairs suggests that such rhetorics not only belong on the map of rhetorical studies but are indeed essential to the geography of rhetorical studies in the twenty first century This collection argues that concerning ourselves with religious rhetorics in general and Christian rhetorics in particular tells us something about rhetoric itself its boundaries its characteristics its functionings In assembling original research on the intersections of rhetoric and Christianity from prominent and emerging scholars Mapping Christian Rhetorics seeks to locate religion more centrally within the geography of rhetorical studies in the twenty first century It does so by acknowledging work on Christian rhetorics that has been overlooked or ignored connecting domains of knowledge and research areas pertaining to Christian rhetorics that may remain disconnected or under connected and charting new avenues of inquiry about Christian rhetorics that might invigorate theory building teaching research and civic engagement In dividing the terrain of Christian rhetorics into four categories theory education methodology and civic engagement Mapping Christian Rhetorics aims to foster connections among these areas of inquiry and spur future future collaboration between scholars of religious rhetoric in a range of research areas
