What Teachers Need to Know Matthew Bruce Etherington, 2017-03-31 Every generation has sought to make teaching and learning more inclusive and equitable but pesky questions always remain such as how can teaching and learning be conducted in ways that satisfies and respects everyone What are the parameters of an inclusive pedagogy Who defines its principles How should these principles be taught and by whom And by what authority shall they be grounded These types of thorny questions occupy the essence of educators and the authors of this book This book is about teachers educators and topics related to inclusion Teachers and educators have a lot to know therefore the topics are broad and relevant to the times What should teachers know about special needs religion and spirituality Aboriginality the environment tolerance and school choice Although teachers have knowledge of their subject matter knowledge alone is not sufficient They must know and understand how people learn A teacher must also care deeply about who they teach And this teacher knowledge grows and changes over time as teachers become more experienced informed skilled and wiser At the same time no teacher preparation will be sufficient because there will always be discussions that were never had and knowledge that was never shared Time has its costs and there is only so much a formal education can prepare someone This book helps to satisfy a cavity in learning for teachers and educators in general In Our Own Words Juliet Mousseau, Sarah Kohles, 2018 Written by a diverse group of younger women religious from North America In Our Own Words offers a collection of essays on issues central to apostolic religious life today The thirteen authors represent different congregations charisms ministries and histories The topics and concerns that shape these chapters emerged naturally through a collaborative process of prayer and conversation Essays focus on the vows and community life individual identity and congregational charisms and leadership among younger members leading into the future The authors hope these chapters may form a springboard for further conversation on religious life inviting others to share their experiences of religious life in today's world

The Whole School Library Learning Commons Judith Anne Sykes, 2016-08-29 Introduce your teachers librarians and administrators to the roles and responsibilities of educators in advocating a whole school library learning commons using this step by step guide for creating shared learning space in your school It is no surprise that technology has shifted the way we educate bearing on how what and where we learn This guide lays the framework for helping turn your school library into a whole school library learning commons WSLLC a space where traditional academics merge with the latest technologies to engage learners in a way never before realized Author Judith Anne Sykes contends that since the WSLLC philosophy allows staff and students to co create knowledge in a shared space it is more effective than the traditional approach Sykes addresses the differences between a school library and a WSLLC provides reasons to champion its creation in your institution and discusses how to use mentoring as a means to sustain its survival The book explores the roles and responsibilities of educators in developing WSLLC goals and presents strategies for using typical assessment tools including standardized tests report cards and anecdotal assessments to help support its philosophy

Law and Society in a Populist Age Amitai Etzioni, 2018-07-11 The law based political institutions in many democratic societies are being challenged by fast growing populist movements parties and leaders In other nations the state is failing These seismic changes call for greater attention to be paid to the role society plays in forming and challenging laws and how the law copes with these challenges Amitai Etzioni one of the most respected thinkers in the US argues for a new liberal communitarian approach as an effective response to populism This recognizes that different members of the society have differing values interests and needs that cannot be fully reconciled to legislation in a populist age The book considers the core challenge in a variety of contexts including national security versus privacy private sector responsibility freedom of the press campaign finance reform regulatory law and the legal status of terrorists Thus the book offers a timely discussion of key issues for contemporary society and the relationship of the law to the citizen
