To Say Nothing A Diary Of Memory Volume 1:

To Say Nothing Neil Hansen, 2014-06-25 VOLUME 2 Soy vago y vago I am vague and I wander It doesn't get easier for our hapless hero in Act Two and if you were lucky enough to read TO SAY NOTHING A DIARY OF MEMORY VOL 1 you will know already that our protagonist is a creature of no great force of character or dignity and you are as likely to be irritated by him as to sympathize But this should not stop you from reading VOLUME 2 of Neil Hansen's delightfully daft memoir It is a vagabonding picaresque a hippie Bildungsgeschichte or close enough of a young man as sincere as he is passive and lazy bugging around in the last half of the 20th century a lover and a leaner He describes his adventures the places he sees and the people he meets in occasionally charming occasionally repulsive detail honest and genial usually And when he airs his views on the difficulties confusions and haphazards of a man of his singular disposition he remembers well most of the time and occasionally proves that philosophy is best left to philosophers It is now 1978 and Neil has wandered up and down the world as a grown up for ten years He has realized that if you focus on your career and work hard for many years you will undoubtedly learn a great many things you will acquire and hone a number of skills and build a good foundation for yourself and your family but other than that really what have you accomplished In modern Western society you will have consumed far more than your fair share of the Earth's blessings and been a nuisance to yourself and others Better perhaps to tread lightly and live a life of little resistance But even in a wandering life blown east in the morning and west in the afternoon by the strength of your own sighs there are many rocks and many hard places Fortunately there's sexy stuff too 100 Books
