Transformational Leadership Lcwr Leadership Conference Of Women Religious:

Transformational Leadership Sanders, Annmarie, IHM, 2015-09-01 In 2009 the Leadership Conference of Women Religious LCWR an organization representing 300 orders of sisters in the United States suddenly gained wide attention following a critical doctrinal assessment issued by the Vatican's Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith Many became interested in the way the LCWR and its members exercised leadership One of their members described it as transformational leadership a way of being in in the world To better understand this way of leadership LCWR regularly conducts interviews with some of the most engaging and passionate of contemporary thinkers In this volume of interviews eighteen theologians psychologists educators and religious leaders from various fields and disciplines share their wisdom about a way of leadership able to meet the deep challenges of today's world Transformational Leadership offers the opportunity to learn from notables such as Walter Brueggemann Judy Cannato Joan Chittister OSB Constance FitzGerald OCD Donald Goergen OP Marty Linsky and Margaret Wheatley Transformational Leadership although originally addressed to American Catholic sisters provides thoughtful and practical suggestions for living a Gospel centered life and its unique collection of personalities and insight makes it of interest to all men and women seeking to live and lead with purpose and depth

However Long the Night Annmarie Sanders Ihm, 2018-03-21 These reflections offered by the Leadership Conference of Women Religious LCWR describe what the organization learned as it went through a six year public crisis The book details the values attitudes and practices that helped the organization navigate a situation that could easily have resulted in fractured relationships and polarization but did not The authors share a variety of processes and conceptual frameworks that can be valuable for anyone living or leading in a complex and challenging situation of conflict Back cover Conscience & Catholicism Decosse, David E., Heyer, Kristin E., 2015-09-30 In this volume leading ethicists and theologians address conscience a term with loaded meaning and controversy in the Catholic Church in recent decades around issues like political participation human sexuality war and institutional violence and theological dissent Many essays in this challenging and far ranging volume focus on the tension between the primacy of conscience codified at Vatican II and the processes and cultures of Catholic institutions including schools hospitals and medical research facilities Intended for a scholarly audience this valuable collection will also appeal to those involved in Catholic health care catechetical work and pastoral ministry Publisher

Conversations at the Well Jung Eun Sophia Park, Teresa Maya, 2019-08-29 Are religious women in the United States disappearing and finally dying out Or is there any new way of religious life emerging Conversations at the Well tries to respond to this question In the twenty first century of the global world newly emerging religious life would be rooted with the Jesus Movement and develop in the spirit of collaboration networking and intercultural living As the liminal space religious life is located at the margins subverting the existing social order and creating a new vision for the world This book explores an alternative meaning of religious life within the context of the apostolic mission In this new religious life the concept of community is not limited to living as a community in the convent but extended into collaborating friendship. Primarily the apostolic religious life is deeply related to social justice, delinking the global capitalism in which many people suffer from human trafficking, immigration and exile. The new leader of religious women would require skill in handling uncertainty, amplifying resources and opening to the new reality. In this new religious life, spirituality would be articulated as freedom and liberation to let go of the old frame as well as letting the new life become reality. In this way, as radical disciples, religious women in the twenty-first century embody the Jesus Movement, building bridges between different cultures and people.

Lessons from the experience of Catholic women in leadership in a wide range of Catholic ministries Religious Leadership Sharon Henderson Callahan, 2013-05-20. This 2 volume set within The SAGE Reference Series on Leadership tackles issues relevant to leadership in the realm of religion. It explores such themes as the contexts in which religious leaders move, leadership in communities of faith, leadership as taught in theological education and training, religious leadership impacting social change and social justice, and more. Topics are examined from multiple perspectives, traditions and faiths. Features Benefits: By focusing on key topics with 100 brief chapters, we provide students with more depth than typically found in encyclopedia entries but with less jargon or density than the typical journal article or research handbook chapter. Signed chapters are written in language and style that is broadly accessible. Each chapter is followed by a brief bibliography and further readings to guide students to sources for more in-depth exploration in their research journeys. A detailed index, cross-references between chapters, and an online version enhance accessibility for today's student audience.

Education, Identity and Women Religious, 1800-1950 Deirdre Raftery, Elizabeth M. Smyth, 2015-10-08. This book brings together the work of eleven leading international scholars to map the contribution of teaching Sisters who provided schooling to hundreds of thousands of children globally from 1800 to 1950. The volume represents research that draws on several theoretical approaches and methodologies. It engages with feminist discourses, social history, oral history, visual culture, post-colonial studies, and the concept of transnationalism to provide new insights into the work of Sisters in education. Making a unique contribution to the field, chapters offer an interrogation of historical sources as well as fresh interpretations of findings, challenging assumptions. Compelling narratives from the USA, Canada, New Zealand, Africa, Australia, South East Asia, France, the UK, Italy, and Ireland contribute to what is a most important exploration of the contribution of the women religious by mapping and contextualizing their work. Education, Identity and Women Religious, 1800-1950. Convents, classrooms and colleges will appeal to academics, researchers, and postgraduate students in the fields of social history, women's history, the history of education, Catholic education, gender studies, and international education. Beyond the Altar Christine L.M. Gervais, 2018-04-26. Beyond the Altar illustrates how women religious overcome sexist subjugation by side-stepping the patriarchal power of the Roman Catholic Church. This book counters the stereotypical image of Catholic nuns as being loyally compliant with their church by showing how a number of current and former women religious in Canada challenge their institutional religion's precepts and engage in transformative strategies to effect change both within and outside the Roman Catholic Church. The sisters' testimonials reveal never before shared details about their painful experiences of male domination, their courageous efforts to move beyond such sexist stifling, and the women-led and women-centered spiritual governance and activist practices they have engendered in the late twentieth and early twenty-first centuries. Featuring many examples of the sisters' resourcefulness, resilience, and resistance, this book fills a void in international scholarship on what Canadian Catholic women religious have endured and accomplished. Through interviews and in-depth accounts of the complexities and nuances present in the current and former sisters' lives, readers will discover their steadfast indomitability as they strategically and sometimes subversively innovate their spiritual spaces. Catholic Women Preach Donnelly, Elizabeth, Petrus, Russ, 2024-09-25

Daughters of Wisdom Ahida Calderón Pilarski, 2023-06-22 This book offers a window into current realities regarding women's leadership in the global church and explores strategic recommendations to nurture this leadership in the twenty-first century. The essays in this volume were initially presented at an international conference organized by the Center for World Catholicism and Intercultural Theology (CWCIT) at DePaul University in 2018. The reference to Daughters of Wisdom in the title for this volume was aimed at capturing the diversity of ways which women have found to exercise their leadership in responding to the challenging and/or hopeful realities of their contextual locations and their faith and social communities. The authors address particularly different aspects of women's leadership in the Catholic Church with a special emphasis on the global South. The contributors are lay and religious people from India, Nigeria, Mexico, Venezuela, Peru, the US, Singapore, and the Philippines. The topics explored in this volume include women's use of Scripture, the ecclesiological basis for women in church leadership, and the leadership roles that women have been exercising already in grassroots church communities, in Marian devotion, in faith-based social movements, and in theological education. New Generations of Catholic Sisters Mary Johnson S.N.D. de N., Patricia Wittberg S.C., Mary L. Gautier, 2014-04-01 This book offers a comprehensive examination of the generations of women who entered religious life in the United States after 1965. It provides up-to-date demographics for women's religious institutes, a summary of canon law locating religious life within the various forms of life in the Church, an analysis of Church documents on religious life, and data on the views of post-Vatican II entrants regarding ministry, identity, prayer, spirituality, the vows, and community. Beginning each chapter with an engaging narrative, the authors explore how different generations of Catholic women first became attracted to vowed religious life and what kinds of religious institutes they were seeking. By analyzing the results of extensive national surveys, the authors systematically examine how the new generations of Sisters differ from previous ones and what those changes suggest about the future. The book concludes with recommendations for further understanding of generations within religious life and within the Church and society. Because of its breadth and depth, this book will be regarded by scholars, the media, and practitioners as an essential resource for the sociological study of religious life for women in the United States

Immaculate Heart of Mary Sisters of Michigan Patricia Montemurri, 2020 Since 1845 along the River Raisin in the southeastern Michigan town of Monroe the Sisters Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary IHM have distinguished themselves as educators activists and Catholic pioneers At the congregation's peak the motherhouse dispatched nearly 1 600 nuns to more than 100 schools across metropolitan Detroit and several states For 175 years the sisters taught the three Rs and the meaning of faith to nearly 700 000 students and established important metro Detroit institutions such as Marygrove College Immaculata and Marian High Schools and St Mary Academy Widely known by their initials the IHMs have extended their reach worldwide Monroe IHM members have served in key roles at the Vatican as leaders of organizations representing Catholic sisters in the United States as missionaries in Third World countries and as groundbreaking activists and theologians The Monroe IHMs today also attract lay women and men who dedicate themselves to the congregation's values and goals by becoming IHM Associates

Spiritual Leadership for Challenging Times Sanders, Annmarie, 2014-04-30 In April 2012 the Leadership Conference of Women Religious LCWR received a notification from the Vatican charging the organization with doctrinal and pastoral errors that were grave and a matter of serious concern For many Americans this was their first awareness of the LCWR a canonically approved organization representing over 80 percent of women religious in the United States One of the outcomes was an outpouring of support and solidarity with the sisters an appreciation for their lives of selfless service and evidence of a strong hunger for a type of spiritual leadership attuned to the signs of the times This volume collects ten presidential addresses from the LCWR's annual assemblies Beginning in 1977 with Sister Joan Chittister's reflections on the changing models of religious life it concludes with Sister Pat Farrell's moving speech at the historic 2012 gathering responding to the Vatican's notification Provided by publisher

Feminist Organizations Myra Marx Ferree, Patricia Yancey Martin, 1995-02 Twenty six original essays look at contemporary feminist organizations

Apostolic Religious Life in America Today Richard Gribble, 2011-08-17 Apostolic religious life in the United States today is in a state of crisis Signs of this situation are readily apparent and well known to all who practice Roman Catholicism The significant decline in the number of priests and religious and fewer vocations to religious congregations have produced a severe blow to formerly active apostolates and brought grave concern for the future of these ministries While the reasons for this present situation are complex interpretation of the documents of Vatican II is clearly one very important factor Scholars hold two basic interpretations of the Council the hermeneutic of rupture sees the Council as a revolution which placed the Church on a completely new trajectory A second hermeneutic however views the Council as reform with continuity While most literature to date has analyzed the hermeneutic of rupture and the consequent transformation of apostolic religious life this book describes the opposite position Divided into two parts this volume first presents an analysis of the problem and secondly a solution to place apostolic religious life on a positive trajectory in the 21st century The first section of this book describes how the hermeneutic of rupture is an incorrect reading of Vatican II Rather the Council in addressing numerous issues did not break from the past but rather sought to understand Church teaching in more contemporary ways but with continuity to the Tradition Essays in this section describe this misreading of Vatican II the consequent misunderstanding of the evangelical counsels and the rejection of religious signs The second section through an analysis of the writings of Hans Urs von Balthasar Basile Moreau Pope Benedict XVI and a reflection on Perfectae Caritatis provides a solution of Christian love as the operative way to reform apostolic religious life today ABOUT THE EDITOR Richard Gribble C S C is professor of religious studies at Stonehill College He has written four critical biographies including American Apostle of the Family Rosary The Life of Patrick J Peyton C S C and An Archbishop for the People The Life of Edward J Hanna He is a frequent contributor to many journals including The Catholic Historical Review American Catholic Studies and the Journal of Church and State PRAISE FOR THE BOOK This book is a true service to those seeking to understand consecrated apostolic life whether they are themselves members of religious orders and congregations or are among those who love the vocation esteem religious Sisters and desire that this calling be strengthened in the Church Francis Cardinal George O M I Archbishop of Chicago Finally a book that explains why some attempts of religious congregations to renew themselves after Vatican II succeeded and why so many failed Understanding the radical nature of what the vows really require of a religious community is no small achievement The vision of religious consecration set forth in these essays will be a fine road map for the many new groups springing up out of a desire to serve Christ and the Church Joseph W Koterski S J Professor of Philosophy Fordham University Without a doubt religious life in America today is at a turning point We are well aware of the factors that have brought us to this moment The more interesting and important question is where do we go from here Some have predicted the death of consecrated life as we know it while others have anticipated renewal and re birth This volume indeed views all of religious life in the continuum of the Lord s Paschal Mystery death and resurrection but gives us hope that the call to follow the Lord through the evangelical counsels is far from its predicted end Most Reverend David M O Connell C M J C D Bishop of Trenton A very significant collection of essay (R)evolutionary Hope Kathleen Bonnette, 2023-08-14 This book is for seekers for those with restless hearts It is especially for those who express their hope through the Catholic tradition but struggle with disillusionment and long for something more R evolutionary Hope invites readers to journey toward that More With theological reflection explored and interrogated through memoir this work reimagines what it means to be Catholic challenging readers to remain open to the grace that draws them from certainty to possibility beyond what is to what could be By infusing the theological tradition of St Augustine with the spirituality emerging in contemporary women of the church R evolutionary Hope invites readers to shift their paradigm from one of hierarchy to one of interconnection offering a theology of encounter that is rooted in tradition responsive to present realities and ever open to the future Suffering and the Vulnerable Rule of God Kathleen McManus, OP, 2022-04-25 How is the reign of God revealed through the suffering experience of women and the marginalized That is the question Kathleen McManus seeks to answer She employs the Lukan image of the bent over woman standing up straight as the paradigm for all who are marginalized because of gender sexual orientation or race Her viewpoint arises from encounters with individuals and communities who suffer exclusion negation diminishment and violence in relation to a patriarchal church in a still patriarchal world Engaging Edward Schillebeeckx's method of negative contrast experience McManus explores what may be known in the space of encounter between the institutional church and these suffering others and draws out latent possibilities for mutual conversion and transformation She reflects on the meaning of Schillebeeckx's insight into the superior power of God's defenseless vulnerability in creation and on the cross and asks what it might mean for the church to embody the vulnerable rule of God in its own structures doctrines symbols and rituals

What's Left? Mary Jo Weaver, 1999 What's Left employs a thoroughly in house approach in which self identified liberal Catholics examine various facets of liberal Catholicism this book explores some of the most prominent threads of leftist Catholic aspiration and dissent Choice What's Left is the most comprehensive study to date of liberal American Catholics in the generation following the second Vatican council 1962-65 The main features of liberal American Catholicism feminist theology and practice contested issues of sexual conduct new social locations of academic theology liturgy spirituality ministry race and ethnicity and public Catholicism are presented here in their historical and social contexts

Las Hermanas Lara Medina, 2004 In this historical study Lara Medina examines the early development and continuing influence of Las Hermanas a feminist organization established in 1971 to counter the patriarchy and Eurocentrism of the U.S. Catholic Church Medina weaves archival research and oral interviews into a cohesive narrative that highlights the keen ethnic and political awareness among the movement's leaders and participants Medina also illuminates the strides made by Las Hermanas in undermining and reorienting the male dominated structure of both the Catholic ministry and the Chicano civil rights movement By showing how the group has engaged such issues as moral authority sexuality and domestic abuse through its religiously informed efforts in grassroots community organizing and education Medina showcases the crucial role played by Las Hermanas in the articulation of a spiritually and politically grounded Latina Chicana identity
