Transforming Gender And Development In East Asia:

Transforming Gender and Development in East Asia Esther Ngan-ling Chow, 2002 First Published in 2002 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Transforming Gender and Development in East Asia Esther Ngan-ling Chow, 2013-12-02 Transforming Gender and Development in East Asia brings together a collection of original essays from top scholars in the United States and Asia to explore the centrality of gender in the process of economic development in East Asia Contributors demonstrate through ethnography personal narratives field observation and in depth interviews the essential parts women have played in the national growth economic restructuring and industrialization of East Asian countries including South Korea Taiwan China Hong Kong Singapore and China Globalization and Sustainable Development in Africa Bessie House-Soremekun, Toyin Falola, 2011 The first comprehensive work on globalization within the context of sustainable development initiatives in Africa Sex and Sexuality in China Elaine Jeffreys, 2007-01-24 Elaine Jeffreys explores the issues of sex and sexuality in a non Western context by examining debates surrounding the emergence of new sexual behaviours and the appropriate nature of their regulation in the People s Republic of China Commissioned from Western and mainland Chinese scholars of sex and sexuality in China the chapters in this volume are marked by a diversity of subject material and theoretical perspectives but turn on three related concerns First the book situates China s changing sexual culture and the nature of its governance in the socio political history of the PRC Second it shows how China s shift to a rule of law has generated conflicting conceptions of citizenship and the associated rights of individuals as sexual citizens Finally the book demonstrates that the Chinese state does not operate strictly to repress sex it also is implicated in the creation of new spaces for sexual entrepreneurship expertise and consumption This comprehensive study is a valuable resource for scholars in the fields of sexuality studies and post socialist societies and culture directly appealing to both East Asia and China specialists Social Justice and Gender Equality Günseli Berik, Yana van der Meulen Rodgers, Ann

Zammit, 2012-10-12 The contributors to this edited volume explore the effects of various development strategies and associated macroeconomic policies on women s well being and progress towards gender equality Detailed analyses of major UN reports on gender reveal the different approaches to assessing absolute and relative progress for women and the need to take into account the specifics of policy regimes when making such assessments The book argues that neoliberal policies especially the liberalization of trade and investment make it difficult to close gender wage and earnings gaps and new gender sensitive policies need to be devised These and other issues are all examined in more detail in several gendered development histories of countries from Latin America and Asia Village Mothers, City Daughters Hew Cheng Sim, 2007 Presents a collection of studies on the experiences of women as they encounter the forces of modernization altering the face of contemporary Borneo Discusses the pressing issue of urbanization and rural urban migration as experienced by women in Southeast Asia Gendering Globalization on the Ground Gay Young, 2014-11-13 How has globalization worked for women working on the frontlines of neoliberalism on the Mexico US border This border divides US from Others and produces social inequalities that form a site where marginalized border women encounter the othering power of neoliberalism and confront inequalities of gender and class Within this context a critical comparison of socially similar women working either in export production industries or in small scale commerce and low level services in Ciudad Ju rez reveals how export factory work constrains women s empowerment at home as well as the wages they earn and the well being of their households This volume challenges the neoliberal rationale of empowering women to support market growth and argues instead for understanding women s empowerment as a process of transformation from disempowerment by gender power relations to challenging masculinist domination in households and ultimately the economy and society Because structures of gender and globalization are mutually constituted women s empowerment as gender democracy is integral to producing alternative democratic globalization Using a feminist methodology that gives attention to the standpoint of women located on the downside of social hierarchies and takes into account strategically diverse points of view this study develops analysis to counter neoliberal globalization as it touches down in the lives of ordinary women and men on the border and beyond

Women in China's Long Twentieth Century Gail Hershatter,2007-03-29 This indispensable guide for students of both Chinese and women s history synthesizes recent research on women in twentieth century China Written by a leading historian of China it surveys more than 650 scholarly works discussing Chinese women in the context of marriage family sexuality labor and national modernity In the process Hershatter offers keen analytic insights and judgments about the works themselves and the evolution of related academic fields The result is both a practical bibliographic tool and a thoughtful reflection on how we approach the past

Global Empowerment of Women Carolyn M. Elliott,2007-12-12 The empowerment of women is a broadly endorsed strategy for solving a host of difficult problems from child poverty to gender violence to international development The seventeen international scholars in this multi disciplinary volume offer thoughtful critiques of the notion of empowerment based on their studies in twenty countries in all regions of the world The comparative introduction places concepts of empowerment in the context of models of the market and of community showing how contradictions in these models as they are enacted on the ground provide both spaces and constraints for women The chapters consider opportunities for women in the context of globalization resurgent nationalism and politicized religion cultures of masculinity and the HIV AIDS epidemic in Africa They show how initiatives at national or global levels are transformed by local cultures and power structures and demonstrate the fruitfulness of tensions between universal values of human rights and contextualized understandings This landmark multi disciplinary collection of original studies by distinguished international feminist scholars will be an essential addition to the fields of Political Science Women s Studies Economics Sociology International Development and Environmental Studies

On the Move Arianne M. Gaetano, Tamara Jacka, 2004 On the Move looks at the fate of women in recent rural urban migration in China An estimated 100 million people have moved into China s cities since the beginning of economic modernization often to work for the lowest wages in hazardous occupations

Contours of Citizenship Esther Ngan-ling Chow, Evangelia Tastsoglou, 2016-05-13 In an increasingly globalized world of collapsing economic borders and extending formal political and legal equality rights active citizenship has the potential to expand as well as deepen At the same time with the rise of neo liberalism welfare state retrenchment decline of state employment re privatization and the rising gap between rich and poor the economic social and political citizenship rights of certain categories of people are increasingly curtailed This book examines the complexity of citizenship in historical and contemporary contexts It draws on empirical research from a range of countries contexts and approaches in addressing women and citizenship in a global local world and covers a selection of diverse issues both present and past to include immigration ethnicity class nationality political and economic participation institutions and the private and public spheres This rich collection informs our understanding of the pitfalls and possibilities for women in the persistence and changes within the contours of citizenship

International Handbook of Urban Education William T. Pink, George W. Noblit, 2008-09-03 It is evident that urban education has become the central focus of educators at the present time In the U S for example almost one third of all school age children attend schools in large urban school districts It is in these urban schools where the diversity of cultures and languages is highest and where student learning is most problematic What has emerged from recent work to improve urban schools is the insight that there is no one size fits all panacea Rather we have discovered that the local context shapes in critically important ways what will be effective at the school level The universality of the problematics with urban education together with the importance of understanding the local or situated context of improvement interventions brings into sharp focus the importance and timeliness of an undertaking like the International Handbook of Urban Education An important focus of the International Handbook of Urban Education will be the interrogation of both the social and political factors that lead to different problem posing and subsequent solutions within each region An important question to be answered for example is what it takes in terms of resources political will and policy actions to improve urban education
