Harindranath, 2007-07-31 This collection offers a comprehensive account of the relation between diaspora and media cultures It analyses the politics of transnational communication the consumption of media by diasporic communities and the views of non governmental organizations on issues of the participation and representation of ethnic minorities in the media The Handbook of Diasporas, Media, and Culture Jessica Retis, Roza Tsagarousianou, 2019-04-09 A multidisciplinary authoritative outline of the current intellectual landscape of the field Over the past three decades the term diaspora has been featured in many research studies and in wider theoretical debates in areas such as communications the humanities social sciences politics and international relations The Handbook of Diasporas Media and Culture explores new dimensions of human mobility and connectivity presenting state of the art research and key debates on the intersection of media cultural and diasporic studies This innovative and timely book helps readers to understand diasporic cultures and their impact on the globalized world The Handbook presents contributions from internationally recognized scholars and researchers to strengthen understanding of diasporas and diasporic cultures diasporic media and cultural resources and the various forms of diasporic organization expression production distribution and consumption Divided into seven sections this wide ranging volume covers topics such as methodological challenges and innovations in diasporic research the construction of diasporic identity the politics of diasporic integration the intersection of gender and generation with the diasporic condition new technologies in media and many others A much needed resource for anyone with interest diasporic studies this book Presents new and original theory research and essays Employs unique methodological and conceptual debates Offers contributions from a multidisciplinary team of scholars and researchers Explores new and emerging trends in the study of diasporas and media Applies a wide ranging international perspective to the subject Due to its international perspective interdisciplinary approach and wide range of authors from around the world The Handbook of Diasporas Media and Culture is ideal for undergraduate and graduate students teachers lecturers and researchers in areas that focus on the relationship of media and society ethnic identity race class and gender globalization and immigration and other relevant fields Migration, Diaspora and Information Technology in Global Societies Leopoldina Fortunati, Raul Perterra, Jane Vincent, 2013-03-01 Migrants and diaspora communities are shaped by their use of information and communication technologies This book explores the multifaceted role played by new media in the re location of these groups of people assisting them in their efforts to defeat nostalgia construct new communities and keep connected with their communities of origin Furthermore the book analyses the different ways in which migrants contribute along with natives in co constructing contemporary societies a process in which the cultures of both groups are considered Drawing on contributions from a range of disciplines including sociology anthropology psychology and linguistics it offers a more profound understanding of one of the most significant phenomena of contemporary international societies the migration of nearly a billion people worldwide and the relationship between technology and society Transnational Audiences Adrian Athique, 2017-09-05 In an interactive and densely connected world transnational communication has become a central feature of everyday life Taking account of a variety of media formats and different regions of the world Adrian Athique provides a much needed critical exploration of conceptual approaches to media reception on a global scale Engaging both the historical foundations and contemporary concerns of audience research Athique prompts us to reconsider our contemporary media experience within a transnational frame In the process he provides valuable insights on culture and belonging power and imagination Beautifully written and strongly argued Transnational Audiences Media Reception on a Global Scale will be essential reading for students and teachers of global media culture and communications Fluctuating Transnationalism Astghik Chaloyan, 2017-06-28 This book concerns various modes of being transnational among a diasporic population Armenians in Germany by drawing parallels between the first and second generation migrants It puts forth the questions as to whether or not and which kind of transactional activity ties practices survive over generations and to what extent transnational engagements influence self identification and the sense of belonging It also examines how various modes of transnationalism in turn impact the sense of belonging The book fleshes out new perspectives and interpretations of transnationalism by revealing specific aspects of border spanning ties and by showing that connections to the country of origin do not necessarily need to be sustained or intensive in order to survive They can instead fluctuate depending on various factors but still have the right to be called transnational Rebuilding Sustainable Communities for Children and their Families after Disasters Adenrele Awotona, 2009-12-14 Disasters impose enormous misery on children the most vulnerable members of the community Records show that two million children have died as a direct consequence of armed conflict over the past decade Globally millions more have suffered death disease and dislocation as a result of such natural disasters as earthquakes droughts and floods And even when emergency relief is available permanent human damage remains all too often families fall apart women are assaulted and degraded and children are left to take care of themselves In November 2008 the Center for Rebuilding Sustainable Communities after Disasters at the University of Massachusetts Boston USA hosted an international conference to examine how to reconstruct sustainable communities that would be safe and secure for children and their families after disasters This volume collects some of the papers that were presented at the conference It is remarkable for the sheer assortment of topics covered These include the role of gender equality in alleviating poverty and assisting children their families and their communities after disasters war and child soldiers lessons from Hurricane Katrina and the Tsunami the nature of psychosocial resilience and its significance for managing mass emergencies disasters and terrorism and the promotion of human dignity in the creation of sustainable environments that empower families in the aftermath of disasters Diasporic Media beyond the Diaspora Sherry S. Yu, 2018-04-23 Media for diasporic communities have emerged in major cities such as Vancouver and Los Angeles and reflect a multicultural multiethnic and multilingual reality But do these media serve their respective communities exclusively or are they available and accessible to members of greater society at large

Diasporic Media beyond the Diaspora explores structural and institutional challenges and opportunities for these media and suggests policy directions with the aim of fostering broader intercultural dialogue Using case studies of Korean media in Vancouver and Los Angeles Sherry Yu examines the potential of an intercultural media system for culturally ethnically and linguistically diverse societies This is the first book to explore the potential of diasporic communicative spaces as being open to people outside of specific diasporic communities and their further potential to establish an infrastructure that facilitates conversation and contributes to building an interculturally engaging and inclusive media system Mediating Cultural Diversity in a Globalised Public Space I. Rigoni, E. Saitta, 2012-11-13 Through enhancing reflection on the treatment of cultural diversity in contemporary Western societies this collection aims to move the debate beyond the opposition between ethnicity and citizenship and demonstrate ways to achieve equality in multicultural and globalised societies The Kobane Generation Mari Toivanen, 2021-09-21 A small Kurdish city located in northern Syria Kobane became symbolically significant when ISIS laid siege to the city between September 2014 and January 2015 This pivotal moment in the fight against ISIS threw the international spotlight on the Kurds The Kobane Generation analyses how Kurdish diaspora communities mobilised in France after the breakout of the Syrian civil war and political unrest in Turkey and Iraq in the 2010s Tens of thousands of people mostly but not exclusively diaspora Kurds demonstrated in major European capitals expressed their solidarity with Kobane and engaged in transnational political activism towards Kurdistan In this book Mari Toivanen discusses a series of critical events that led to different forms of transnational participation towards Kurdistan The focus of this book is particularly on how diaspora mobilisations became visible among the second generation the descendants of Kurdish migrants The book addresses important questions such as why second generation members felt the need to mobilise and what kind of transnational participation this led to How did the transnational participation and political activism of the second generation differ from that of their parents and is such activism simply diasporic or also related to more global changes in political activism The Kobane Generation offers important insights on the generational dynamics of political mobilisations and their significance to understanding diaspora contributions More broadly it sheds light on second generation political activism beyond the diaspora context analysing it in relation to global transformations in political subjectivities Asylum, migration and community Maggie O'Neill, Amin Sharifi Isaloo, Egle Gusciute, 2015-07-01 Issues of asylum migration humanitarian protection and integration belonging are of growing interest beyond the disciplines of refugee studies migration and social policy Rooted in more than two decades of scholarship this book uses critical social theory and the participatory biographical and arts based methods used with asylum seekers refugees and emerging communities to explore the dynamics of the asylum migration community nexus It argues that interdisciplinary analysis is required to deal with the complexity of the issues involved and offers understanding as praxis purposeful knowledge drawing on innovative research that is participatory arts based performative and policy relevant Adjusting the contrast Sarita Malik, Darrell M. Newton, 2017-08-17 This volume looks at a range of texts and practices that address race and its relationship with television The chapters explore television policy and the management of race how transnationalism can diminish racial diversity historical questions of representation the myth of a multicultural England and more They also provide analyses of programmes such as Doctor Who Shoot the Messenger Desi DNA Survivors and Top Boy all of which are considered in the context of the broadcast environments that helped to create them While efforts have been made to put diverse portrayals on screen there are still significant problems with the stories being told The Handbook of Global Media and Communication Policy Robin Mansell, Marc Raboy, 2014-03-03 The Handbook of Global Media and Communication Policy offers insights into the boundaries of this field of study assesses why it is important who is affected and with what political economic social and cultural consequences Provides the most up to date and comprehensive collection of essays from top scholars in the field Includes contributions from western and eastern Europe North and Central America Africa and Asia Offers new conceptual frameworks and new methodologies for mapping the contours of emergent global media and communication policy Draws on theory and empirical research to offer multiple perspectives on the local national regional and global forums in which policy debate occurs

Migration, Media, and Global-Local Spaces Esther Chin, 2016-04-08 This book explores how we define our social spaces in a world of globalization cultural diversity and media convergence It invites us to consider how each of us relates to multiple people and places worldwide through migration and media Critiquing our focus on nation state and particular countries of origin and settlement this book offers a new conceptual approach to study contemporary migration and media Drawing on in depth interviews with Singaporean university students in Melbourne Australia this book details how we organize our social relations into diverse configurations of global and local spaces This book aims to help university students researchers and members of the public to think more critically about how we develop our mental maps of the world experience the migration of others and ourselves and shape our media environments Diversity and the Media Monika Metykova, 2017-09-16 This core textbook offers a concise and interdisciplinary overview of the relationship between diversity and the media Focusing on media regulation in democratic societies each chapter explores how different conceptions of diversity relate to media audiences media workforces media outlets and media content Drawing on research approaches grounded in the political economy of media political communication media economics and critical media industry studies this insightful book analyses a wide range of current and historical examples from the UK the US and Europe This far reaching and inclusive text is an invaluable resource for students and academics from media communication studies journalism cultural studies and sociology backgrounds Clear and accessible it will also appeal to members of non governmental organizations or activist groups involved in media policy and reform Everyday Media Culture in Africa Wendy

Willems, Winston Mano, 2016-11-10 African audiences and users are rapidly gaining in importance and increasingly targeted by global media companies social media platforms and mobile phone operators This is the first edited volume that addresses the everyday lived experiences of Africans in their interaction with different kinds of media old and new state and private elite and popular global and national material and virtual So far the bulk of academic research on media and communication in Africa has studied media through the lens of media state relations thereby adopting liberal democracy as the normative ideal and examining the potential contribution of African media to development and democratization Focusing instead on everyday media culture in a range of African countries this volume contributes to the broader project of provincializing and decolonizing audience and internet studies

Race, Culture and Media Anamik Saha, 2021-03-24 How do media make race How do legacies of empire shape our understandings of race and media How does racism structure the media industries Is the internet an inherently white space Understanding the relationship between race culture and media has never been more important From the demonisation of Muslims to rampant new forms of racism on digital platforms media are central to understanding how race is both constructed and experienced in everyday life Yet media are key to resisting racism too While they can silence and stereotype us they can also enable us to cut across difference to contest and mobilise and to create genuine community Race Culture and Media is a critical impassioned and accessible exploration of this complex relationship Anamik Saha outlines the theories concepts and research you need to know in order to make sense of race culture and media today challenging you to move beyond simplistic notions of diversity to really engage with issues of both power and participation It is essential reading for students and researchers across media communication and cultural studies Dr Anamik Saha is Senior Lecturer in Media and Communications at Goldsmiths University of London where he convenes the MA Race Media and Social Justice

The Handbook of Global Media Research Ingrid Volkmer, 2015-07-07 The Handbook of Global Media Research Ingrid Volkmer has collected an admirably rich thought provoking and diverse collection of views to guide critical scholarship as our topic the media and media cultures methods which must now be comparative and the knowledge we produce are all transformed by globalization Sonia Livingstone author of Media Regulation Governance and the Interests of Citizens and Consumers In this handbook leading academic and practitioner analysts give us valuable insight into globalized forms of communication their diversity the global local dialectic and the challenges of critical historical and comparative study of transnational media and communication Robin Mansell author of Imagining the Internet Communication Innovation and Governance With a stellar list of contributors and an engagement with the global that both traces and transcends its boundaries Ingrid Volkmer's volume is the cardinal chart of our media worlds Mark Deuze author of Media Life and Media Works This is a long overdue volume The distinguished contributors to The Handbook of Global Media Research have produced a challenging and authoritative guide to understanding the latest developments in global media Thomas R Lindlof University of Kentucky As new forms of media proliferate and communication becomes ever more global transnational media is increasingly capable of both enhancing political cultural and economic globalization and shaping worldviews and civic identity Research into the development of transnational media is therefore an essential element of understanding the changes created by advanced globalization The Handbook of Global Media Research explores and articulates the key themes and competing approaches of this dynamic and developing field Bringing together the ideas of more than 40 internationally respected authors from around the world it provides valuable and varied insights into a globalized media landscape setting the agenda for the future of transnational media and communications research

Claiming Place Chia Youyee Vang, Faith Nibbs, Ma Vang, 2016-03-10 Countering the idea of Hmong women as victims the contributors to this pathbreaking volume demonstrate how the prevailing scholarly emphasis on Hmong culture and men as the primary culprits of women's subjugation perpetuates the perception of a Hmong premodern status and renders unintelligible women's nuanced responses to patriarchal strategies of domination both in the United States and in Southeast Asia Claiming Place expands knowledge about the Hmong lived reality while contributing to broader conversations on sexuality diaspora and agency While these essays center on Hmong experiences activism and popular representations they also underscore the complex gender dynamics between women and men and address the wider concerns of gendered status of the Hmong in historical and contemporary contexts including deeply embedded notions around issues of masculinity Organized to highlight themes of history memory war migration sexuality selfhood and belonging this book moves beyond a critique of Hmong patriarchy to argue that Hmong women have been and continue to be active agents not only in challenging oppressive societal practices within hierarchies of power but also in creating alternative forms of belonging Contributors Geraldine Craig Kansas State U Leena N Her Santa Rosa Junior College Julie Keown Bomar U of Wisconsin Extension Mai Na M Lee U of Minnesota Prasit Leepreecha Chiang Mai U Aline Lo Allegheny College Kong Pha Louisa Schein Rutgers U Cathy J Schlund Vials U of Connecticut Bruce Thao Ka Vang U of Wisconsin Eau Claire Reconceptualizing Qualitative Research Mirka Koro-Ljungberg, 2015-03-25 Reconceptualizing Qualitative Research Methodologies without Methodology calls for qualitative research that is complex situational theoretically situated and yet productive Author Mirka Koro-Ljungberg challenges ideas about data research design and researcher responsibility that are often taken for granted provoking readers to rethink beliefs paradigms processes and methodological frameworks Written in a clear conversational style the book compels readers to think about qualitative research differently often in creative ways and to continuously question existing narratives and dogmas Diasporas Professor Kim Knott, Doctor Sean McLoughlin, 2013-04-04 Featuring essays by world renowned scholars Diasporas charts the various ways in which global population movements and associated social political and cultural issues have been seen through the lens of diaspora Wide ranging and interdisciplinary this collection considers critical concepts shaping the field such as migration ethnicity post colonialism and cosmopolitanism It also examines key intersecting agendas and themes including political economy security race gender and material and electronic culture
