The Political Economy of the Agri-Food System in Thailand Prapimphan Chiengkul, 2017-05-08 This book adopts a neo Marxist and Gramscian approach to studying the political economy of the agricultural and food system in Thailand 1990 2014 The author argues that hegemonic forces have many measures to co opt dissent into hegemonic structures and that counter hegemony should be seen as an ongoing process over a long period of time where predominantly counter hegemonic forces constrained by political economic structural conditions may at times retain some hegemonic elements Contrary to what some academic studies suggest the author argues that localist inspired social movements in Thailand are not insular and anti globalisation

Research Handbook on Human Rights and the Environment Anna Grear, Louis J. Kotzé, 2015-06-29 Bringing together leading international scholars in the field this Research Handbook interrogates from various angles and positions the fractious relationship between human rights and the environment and between human rights and environmental law

The Politics of Biofuels, Land and Agrarian Change Saturnino Borras Jr., Philip McMichael, Ian Scoones, 2013-09-13 This book addresses key questions on biofuels within agrarian political economy political sociology and political ecology Contributions are based on fresh empirical materials from different parts of the world The book starts with four key questions in agrarian political economy Who owns what Who does what Who gets what And what do they do with the surplus wealth It also addresses the emergent social and political relations in the biofuel complex and given the impacts on natural resources and sustainability engages with questions about people environment interactions At the same time the book is concerned with the politics of representation that is what are the discursive frames through which biofuels are promoted and or opposed The book analyses the institutional structures and cultures of energy consumption on which a biofuels complex depends and the alternative political and ecological visions emerging that call the biofuels complex into question Across sixteen chapters presenting material from five regions across the North South divide and focusing on fourteen countries including Brazil Indonesia India USA and Germany these topics are addressed within the following themes global re configurations agro ecological visions conflicts resistances and diverse outcomes state capital and society relations mobilising opposition creating alternatives and change and continuity This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Peasant Studies      Critical Perspectives on Food Sovereignty Marc Edelman,2017-10-02 This volume is a pioneering contribution to the study of food politics and critical agrarian studies where food sovereignty has emerged as a pivotal concept over the past few decades with a wide variety of social movements on the ground experiments and policy innovations flying under its broad banner Despite its large and growing popularity the history theoretical foundations and political program of food sovereignty have only occasionally received in depth analysis and critical scrutiny This collection brings together both longstanding scholars in critical agrarian studies such as Philip McMichael Bina Agarwal Henry Bernstein Jan Douwe van der Ploeg and Marc Edelman as well as a dynamic roster of early and mid career researchers The ultimate aim is to advance this important frontier of research and organizing and put food sovereignty on stronger footing as a mobilizing frame a policy objective and a plan of action for the human future This volume was published as part one of the special double issue celebrating the 40th anniversary of the Journal of Peasant Studies      Land and Resource Scarcity Andreas Exner,2013 This book brings together geological biological radical economic technological historical and social perspectives on peak oil and other scarce resources The contributors to this volume argue that these scarcities will put an end to the capitalist system as we know it and alternatives must be created The book combines natural science with emancipatory thinking focusing on bottom up alternatives and social struggles to change the world by taking action The volume introduces original contributions to the debates on peak oil land grabbing and social alternatives thus creating a synthesis to gain an overview of the multiple crises of our times The book sets out to analyse how crises of energy climate metals minerals and the soil relate to the global land grab which has accelerated greatly since 2008 as well as to examine the crisis of profit production and political legitimacy Based on a theoretical understanding of the multiple crises and the effects of peak oil and other scarcities on capital accumulation the contributors explore the social innovations that provide an alternative Using the most up to date research on resource crises this integrative and critical analysis brings together the issues with a radical perspective on possibilities for future change as well as a strong social economic and ethical dimension The book should be of interest to researchers and students of environmental policy politics sustainable development and natural resource management      Land Dispossession and Everyday Politics in Rural Eastern India Kenneth Bo Nielsen,2018-02-22 Over the past decade India has witnessed a number of land wars that have centred crucially on the often forcible transfer of land from small farmers or indigenous groups to private companies Among these the land war that erupted in Singur West Bengal in 2006 went on to make national headlines and become paradigmatic of many of the challenges and social conflicts that arise when a state led policy of swiftly transferring land to private sector companies encounters resistance on the ground Land Dispossession and Everyday Politics in Rural Eastern India analyses the movement by Singur s so called unwilling farmers to retain and reclaim their farmland By foregrounding the everyday politics of popular mobilization the book sheds new light on the movement s internal politics as well as on contentious issues rooted in everyday caste class and gender relations The Politics of Inequality David Pettinicchio,2021-07-19 For its breadth and depth of research this volume of Research in Political Sociology is essential reading for researchers and students of Politics Sociology and Policy Food Sovereignty in International Context Amy Trauger,2015-02-11 Food sovereignty is an emerging discourse of empowerment and autonomy in the food system with the development of associated practices in rural and some urban spaces While literature on food sovereignty has proliferated since the first usage of the term in 1996 at the Rome Food Summit most has been descriptive rather than explanatory in nature and often confuses food sovereignty with other movements and objectives such as alternative food networks food justice or food self sufficiency This book is a collection of empirically rich and theoretically engaged papers across a broad geographical spectrum reflecting on what constitutes the politics and practices of food sovereignty They contribute to a theoretical gap in the food sovereignty literature as well as a relative shortage of empirical work on food sovereignty in the global North much previous work having focussed on Latin America Specific case studies are included from Canada Norway Switzerland southern Europe UK and USA as well as Africa India and Ecuador The book presents new research on the emergence of food sovereignties It offers a wide variety of empirical examples and a theoretically engaged framework for explaining the aims of actors and organizations working toward autonomy and democracy in the food system Global Land Grabs Marc Edelman,Carlos Oya,Saturnino M. Borras Jr.,2016-03-22 Since the 2008 world food crisis a surge of land grabbing swept Africa Asia and Latin America and even some regions of Europe and North America Investors have uprooted rural communities for massive agricultural biofuels mining industrial and urbanisation projects Water grabbing and green grabbing have further exacerbated social tensions Early analyses of land grabbing focused on foreign actors the biofuels boom and Africa and pointed to catastrophic consequences for the rural poor Subsequently scholars carried out local case studies in diverse world regions The contributors to this volume advance the discussion to a new stage critically scrutinizing alarmist claims of the first wave of research probing the historical antecedents of today s land grabbing examining large scale land acquisitions in light of international human rights and investment law and considering anew longstanding questions in agrarian political economy about forms of dispossession and accumulation and grassroots resistance Readers of this collection will learn about the impacts of land and water grabbing the relevance of key theorists including Marx Polanyi and Harvey the realities of China s involvement in Africa how contemporary land grabbing differs from earlier plantation agriculture and how social movements and rural people in general are responding to this new threat This book was published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly People Power Howard Clark,2009-08-20 Across the world nonviolent movements are at the forefront of resistance against repression imperial aggression and corporate abuse However it is often difficult for activists in other countries to know how best to assist such movements The contributors to People Power place nonviolent struggles in an international context where solidarity can play a crucial role Yet they also warn that good intentions are not enough solidarity has to listen to local movements Examining movements from Zimbabwe to Burma and Palestine the contributors assess various forms of solidarity arguing that a central role of solidarity is to strengthen the counter power of those resisting domination and oppression     The Poverty of Capitalism John Hilary,2013-10-09 Capitalist growth is widely heralded as the only answer to the crisis still sweeping the global economy Yet the era of corporate globalisation has been defined by unprecedented levels of inequality and environmental degradation A return to capitalist growth threatens to exacerbate these problems not solve them In The Poverty of Capitalism John Hilary reveals the true face of transnational capital in its insatiable drive for expansion and accumulation He exposes the myth of corporate social responsibility CSR and highlights key areas of conflict over natural resources labour rights and food sovereignty Hilary also describes the growing popular resistance to corporate power as well as the new social movements seeking to develop alternatives to capitalism itself This book will be essential reading for all those concerned with global justice human rights and equity in the world order

Social Mobilization, Global Capitalism and Struggles over Food Renata Motta,2016-04-28 This book explores the transformation of Brazil and Argentina into two of the world s largest producers of genetically modified GM crops Systematically comparing their stories in order to explain their paths differences ruptures and changes the author reveals that the emergence of the two nations as leading producers of GM crops cannot be explained by technological superiority of biotechnology rather their trajectories are the results of political struggles surrounding agrarian development in which social movements and the rural poor contested the advancement of biotechnologically based agrarian models but have been silenced ignored or demobilized by a network of actors in favour of GM crops Based on rich interview and media material collected amongst activists the author highlights the importance of political struggles over GM crops not only to debates on agrarian futures and food security but also as illustrations of the challenges faced by contemporary democracies An international comparative study this book raises the question of how social mobilization and rights claims can counter the systemic imperatives of global capitalism and political interests at a time when regional governments are reliant on commodity booms whilst globally governments are obliged to introduce programmes of austerity As such it will appeal to scholars of sociology political science and geography with interests in social movements development globalization inequality and political economy     Social and Solidarity Economy Peter Utting,2015-04-09 As economic crises growing inequality and climate change prompt a global debate on the meaning and trajectory of development increasing attention is focusing on social and solidarity economy as a distinctive approach to sustainable and rights based development While we are beginning to understand what social and solidarity economy is what it promises and how it differs from business as usual we know far less about whether it can really move beyond its fringe status in many countries and regions Under what conditions can social and solidarity economy scale up and scale out that is expand in terms of the growth of social and solidarity economy organizations and enterprises or spread horizontally within given territories Bringing together leading researchers blending theoretical and empirical analysis and drawing on experiences and case studies from multiple countries and regions this volume addresses these questions In so doing it aims to inform a broad constituency of development actors including scholars practitioners activists and policy makers

Peasants Negotiating a Global Policy Space Ingeborg

Gaarde,2017-02-24 With members in more than 80 countries of the world the global peasant movement La V a Campesina has planted itself firmly on the international scene With a focus on agency the capacity to act this book explores the opportunities and challenges for mobilised peasants to engage directly in the global policy processes within the Committee on World Food Security

Revolutions Radhika Desai, Henry Heller,2021-09-16

As the centres of world capitalism struggle to overcome long term stagnation and existential crisis this book aims to recover the legacy of revolutions against capitalism and imperialism The capitalist world today faces pervasive crises of unprecedented depth To economic and social crises that were already deepening as the neoliberal decades wore on it added the ecological emergency and then a pandemic of historic proportions both made worse by political and ideological paralysis These crises also raise the threat of imperialist war The possibility of revolutionary change is increasingly in the air and this volume captures this extraordinary moment Anticipating this situation we at the Geopolitical Economy Research Group organized an international conference on Revolutions at the University of Manitoba Canada in 2017 to mark the centenary of the Russian Revolution and this book stems from it The editors introduction interrogates the intimate relation of capitalism to revolutions and scans the political horizon of the present conjuncture The chapters that follow fill in this retrospect and prospect The five keynote addresses provide the historical spine and they are supplemented by others from the conference and beyond These chapters consider revolution from a variety of perspectives including the revolutions in Russia China and Venezuela but also the French and Haitian Revolutions Marx s critical political economy and revolution the long history of counter revolution revolution and indigenous peoples the media and revolution and the importance of revolution at the grassroots The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Third World Quarterly

Ethical Value Networks in International Trade Murray,

Warwick E.,Overton, John,Howson, Kelle,2022-02-11 This forward looking book introduces the concept of Ethical Value Networks building upon a theoretical exploration with primary evidence of their impacts in the Global South It moves away from focusing on the consumption section of networks with grounded impact studies that explore ethicality as a concept how ethical value is created and how this is distributed through the socio economy

Food Systems Governance Amanda

Kennedy,Jonathan Liljeblad,2016-04-28 Sustainability and food production represent a major challenge to society with both consumption and supply sides posing practical and ethical dilemmas This book shows that food governance issues can occur in many ways and at many points along the food chain The risks and impacts particularly with the increasing globalisation of food systems are often distributed in unequal ways It is the role of law to form the pivot around which these issues are addressed in society in the form of food governance mechanisms The chapters in this book address a range of issues in food governance revolving around questions of justice fairness equality and human rights They identify different issues regarding inequality in access and control over food governance Some address generic governance and institutional issues across a range of international contexts while others present case studies including from Argentina China India Indonesia Thailand UK and West Africa The book offers directions for reform of the law and legal institutions to mitigate the dangers of inequality and promote greater fairness in food governance     Package Price Agroecology Stephen R.
