The Feminist Legislation Project Becky Batagol, Kate Seear, Heli Askola, Jamie Walvisch, 2024-08-26. In this book, leading law academics along with lawyers, activists and others demonstrate what legislation could look like if its concern was to create justice for women. Each chapter contains a short piece of legislation proposed in order to address a contemporary legal problem from a feminist perspective. These range across criminal law, sexual offences, Indigenous women's experiences of criminal law, laws in relation to forced marriage, modern slavery, childcare and sentencing, civil law, aged care and housing rights, regulating the gig economy, surrogacy, gender equity in the construction industry and constitutional law, human rights legislation, reimagining parliaments where laws are made for the benefit of women. The proposed laws are moreover drafted with feedback from a senior parliamentary draftsman, providing guidance to contributors in a personal capacity to ensure conformity with legislative rigour as well as accompanied by an explanation of their reasons and their aims. Although the legislation is Australian based, the issues raised by each are recognisably global and are reflected in the legislation of most other nations. This first feminist legislation project will appeal to scholars of feminist legal studies, gender and the law, gender studies and others studying or working in relevant legal areas.

The Sky With Diamonds Malcolm MacDonald, 2013-10-10. It is the 1920s, an age of innovation and daring in transportation, both on the road and in the air. At the forefront of motor car development is Somerville's. To own a Somerville-bodied Rolls Royce is every man's dream. But when George Somerville has an accident that leaves him paralysed, the future of the firm looks uncertain. George has no sons old enough to manage the firm. He does, however, have a wife. Defying general skepticism and her own doubts, Julia gradually takes control, warding off takeover attempts with breathtaking skill and cunning. In Eliot Baring, an American employee and a brilliant airplane engineer, she sees a new future for Somerville's and perhaps for herself. Together they take Somerville's into the skies, where competition is fierce and enemies common. But the skies darken as fascism spreads across Europe, and Julia's conscience becomes ever more important in Somerville's future. Beset on all sides, deserted by her colleagues and lovers, her future looks bleak until help comes from the most unexpected quarter.
