Trauma And Cinema Cross Cultural Explorations:

Trauma and Cinema E. Ann Kaplan, Ban Wang, 2004-02-01 This volume addresses the relation of trauma to transnational modern mass media The first of its kind Trauma and Cinema Cross Cultural Explorations provides ten essays which explore the ways trauma works itself out as media in images in and as film photography and video in global cultural flows The focus of our volume on the matrix of trauma visual media and modernity seeks to engage and go beyond current tendencies in trauma studies The book discusses how trauma presented in the media spills over national boundaries and can be found in images across divergent cultures in Africa Asia Australia Europe and America From the Holocaust to the Chinese Cultural Revolution from Taiwan's colonial experience to the catastrophe of Hiroshima from attempted annihilation of Australian Aborigines to attempted reconciliation in South Africa these essays offer the reader a plethora of images of trauma for comparison and contrast

Interrogating Trauma Mick Broderick, Antonio Traverso, 2013-09-27 Throughout the past century traumatic experiences have been re enacted frequently by evolving media and art forms Now there is a significant body of theory across academic disciplines focused on the representation of cataclysmic European and US historical events However less critical attention has been devoted to the representation of havoc outside the West even though depictions of Third World disasters saturate contemporary media and art around the globe This book considers traumatic histories internationally in a broad range of creative arts and visual media representations Deploying diverse applications of the conventional theories of trauma it examines the theoretical limitations at the same time as considering alternative methodologies Interrogating Trauma is concerned with the examination of the concept of trauma and how it is often unproblematically used to theorise the cultural representation of disaster and atrocity It offers a theorisation of trauma in order to reappraise the relationship between cultural representation and the socio historical processes which are marked by violence conflict and suffering This book was published as a special issue of Continuum Journal of Media and Cultural Studies

Eco-Trauma Cinema Anil Narine, 2014-09-19 Film has taken a powerful position alongside the global environmental movement from didactic documentaries to the fantasy pleasures of commercial franchises This book investigates in particular film's complex role in representing ecological traumas Eco trauma cinema represents the harm we as humans inflict upon our natural surroundings or the injuries we sustain from nature in its unforgiving iterations The term encompasses both circumstances because these seemingly distinct instances of ecological harm are often related and even symbiotic the traumas we perpetuate in an ecosystem through pollution and unsustainable resource management inevitably return to harm us Contributors to this volume engage with eco trauma cinema in its three general forms accounts of people who are traumatized by the natural world narratives that represent people or social processes which traumatize the environment or its species and stories that depict the aftermath of ecological catastrophe The films they examine represent a central challenge of our age to overcome our disavowal of environmental crises to reflect on the unsavoury forces reshaping the planet's ecosystems and to restructure the mechanisms responsible for the state of the earth Italian Experiences of Trauma through Film and Media Alberto Baracco, Rosario Pollicino, 2022-03-17 This volume offers new approaches to considering Italy's traumatic experiences through a wide array of media including film documentaries docufiction websites YouTube videos advertisements newspapers and literature that have not yet been fully analyzed It looks at the trauma inflicted on Italians not simply as national or cultural traumas but rather as the creation identification of subnational and transnational communities shaped by these trauma cases The term subnational or transnational community is used mostly in reference to human beings as they form those communities however they are also connected to a specific place namely Italy In addition whereas things cannot become traumatized this book also considers living things such as the environment and the nature which may create further trauma's for people How Trauma Resonates: Art, Literature and Theoretical Practice Mark Callaghan, 2019-01-04 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2014 What emerged from the 3rd Global Conference on Trauma Theory and Practice was a lively and informed view of the different ways our history personal experiences education and forms of entertainment are shaped by trauma and its resultant interpretations This volume comprises numerous academic papers concerning essential subjects in relation to trauma from literary representations of and responses to war related trauma to the articulating of suffering and other traumatic legacies of colonialism Key scholars including Cathy Caruth and Ann E Kaplan are employed to develop these important research areas as conference participants provide new insights into artistic representations of trauma and their subsequent analysis Significant time is also dedicated to papers concerning post traumatic growth and the role of psycho spiritual transformation in the process outcomes and management of trauma Using clinical examples valuable research concerning the creation of safe learning environments for traumatized children is also discussed along with additional research concerning Sandplay therapy and the theoretical and empirical aspects of time Deleuze, Japanese Cinema, and the Atom Bomb David Deamer, 2014-07-31 David Deamer establishes the first ever sustained encounter between Gilles Deleuze's Cinema books and post war Japanese cinema by exploring how Japanese films responded to and were transformed by the atomic bombings of Hiroshima and Nagasaki From the early days of American occupation political censorship through to the social and cultural freedoms of the 1960s and beyond the book examines how images of the event permeate post war Japanese cinema Each chapter begins by focusing upon one of three key themes taxonomy history or thought before going on to explore a broad selection of films from 1945 to the present day including respected masterpieces Akira Kurosawa's Rashomon 1951 popular and cult cinema Godzilla 1954 world renowned anime Akira 1988 the new wave Nagisa Oshima's Night and Fog in Japan 1960 and modern classics Hideo Nakata's Ring 1998 The author provides a series of monochrome diagrams to clarify and illustrate the concepts and conceptual components explored within the text establishing a unique addition to Deleuze and cinema studies Ephemeral Coast: Visualizing Coastal Climate Change Celina Jeffery, 2022-08-02 Ephemeral Coast Visualizing Coastal

Climate Change considers the ways that art can offer a means through which to discover analyze re imagine and re frame emotive discourses about the ecological and cultural transformations of the coastline This edited anthology takes ephemerality as its central conceptual and methodological framework and presents a series of essays that create interconnections between environmental and social considerations of the coast a succession of embodied creative practices and shifting regional geographic identities The book presents a series of specific case studies of artistic practices and strategies that seek to capture the rewriting of cartographic maps that are being reshaped by rising seas coastal flooding and catastrophic weather The essays in this edited volume engender creative strategies for understanding new and uncertain coastal ecologies and the loss expulsion or destruction of their associated cultures habitats species and ecosystems The anthology also looks at the historical mnemonic and contemporary transitional conditions of conflicted coastal spaces in which empire modernity and globalization press on coastal erosion and incursions proliferate it with trivial plastics pollution and disposable attitudes and bring vulnerable communities into uncertain futures

East Asian Transwar Popular Culture Pei-yin Lin, Su Yun Kim, 2019-02-19 This collection examines literature and film studies from the late colonial and early postcolonial periods in Taiwan and Korea and highlights the similarities and differences of Taiwanese and Korean popular culture by focusing on the representation of gender genre state regulation and spectatorship Calling for the de colonializing and de Cold Warring of the two ex colonies and anticommunist allies the book places Taiwan and Korea side by side in a trans war frame Considering Taiwan Korea relations along a new trans war axis the book focuses on the continuities between the late colonial period s Asia Pacific War and the consequent Korean War and the ongoing conflict between the two sides of the Taiwan Strait facilitated by Cold War power struggles The collection also invites a meaningful transcolonial reconsideration of East Asian cultural and literary flows beyond the conventional colonizer colonized dichotomy and ideological antagonism

Postwar Renoir Colin Davis, 2012-07-26 This book re assesses director Jean Renoir s work between his departure from France in 1940 and his death in 1979 and contributes to the debate over how the medium of film registers the impact of trauma The 1930s ended in catastrophe for both for Renoir and for France La R gle du jeu was a critical and commercial disaster on its release in July 1939 and in 1940 France was occupied by Germany Even so Renoir continued to innovate and experiment with his post war work yet the thirteen films he made between 1941 and 1969 constituting nearly half of his work in sound cinema have been sorely neglected in the study of his work With detailed readings of the these films and four novels produced by Renoir in his last four decades Davis explores the direct and indirect ways in which film and Renoir s films in particular depict the aftermath of violence

The Return of the Moor Daniela Flesler, 2008 With the intense economic development and accelerated modernization experienced by Spain since the 1970s and especially following its entrance to the European Economic Community in 1986 the country has undergone a rapid inversion in migratory patterns After being an exporter of economic migrants for almost a century in the last 20 years Spain has seen itself on the receiving end of immigration Coinciding with a time when Spain is highlighting its belonging to Europe the growing presence of Moroccan immigrants in particular confronts Spanish society with the repressed non European African and Oriental aspects of its national identity The Return of the Moorexamines the anxiety over symbolic and literal boundaries permeating the Spanish reception of these immigrants through an interdisciplinary analysis of social fictional and performative texts It argues that Moroccans constitute a problem to Spaniards not because of their cultural differences as many claim but because they are not different enough Perceived as Moors they conjure up past ghosts that continue to haunt the Spanish imaginary revealing the acute tensions inherent to Spain s tenuous position between Europe and Africa
