Editors American Legends series readers can get caught up to speed on the lives of America's most important men and women in the time it takes to finish a commute while learning interesting facts long forgotten or never known Over the course of his long film career Paul Newman was once one of the most bankable stars in Hollywood during his peak and that was decades before he won an Academy Award for Best Actor for his role in The Color of Money 1986 one of the eight times he was nominated for an Oscar Having come to prominence as a handsome but rebellious young man in the mold of James Dean Newman was able to maintain an aura that viewers found both cool and irresistible even into his 60s typically an age when leading men find themselves on the outs Newman was even nominated for an Academy Award for Best Supporting Actor for Road to Perdition 2002 when he was in his late 70s and he continued working in the industry until just shortly before his death in 2008 While Newman was a recognizable film star in his time younger generations know Newman more as a pop culture fixture than as a movie star Newman acted and directed in Hollywood for six decades but he was noteworthy off the screen for various pursuits including running a racing team that was successful in IndyCar racing but especially for the food products that bore his name Newman established the food company Newman's Own as a philanthropic endeavor once joking When I realized I was going to have to be a whore to put my face on the label I decided that the only way I could do it was to give away all the money we make Over the years that ethical stance has given us a 30 per cent boost One in three customers buys my products because all the profits go to good causes and the rest buy the stuff because it is good Although he started jokingly referring to himself as the star of oil and vinegar and the oil and vinegar of the stars consumers still find Newman's face on labels for goods like salad dressing and popcorn and the brand name is still very popular today
