Visual Project Management Paul Williams, 2015-01-18 Today's project manager has more to manage than just project scope deliverables communications and teams They are also expected to manage large volumes of project related data And the expectation goes beyond just managing the data It extends into creating great visualizations that allow stakeholders to fully digest that large volume of data in a manner that is quick effective and clear They are also expected to serve as facilitators in the use of visual thinking tools as a method for working through project issues risks and problems These new expectations require new skills The era of multi page text based project status reporting is over The era of visual project management is here Time to skill up

Multimodal Methods in Anthropology Samuel Gerald Collins, Matthew S. Durrington, 2024-04-26 Multimodal Methods in Anthropology develops several goals simultaneously First it is an introduction to the ways that multimodality might work for students and practitioners of anthropology using multiple examples from the authors research and from the field Second the book carefully examines the ethics of a multimodal project including the ways in which multimodality challenges and reproduces digital divides Finally the book is a theoretical introduction that repositions the history of anthropology along axes of multimodality and reframes many of the essential questions in anthropology alongside collaboration and access Each chapter introduces new methods and techniques frames the ethical considerations and contextualizes the method in the work of other anthropologists Multimodal Methods in Anthropology takes both students and practitioners through historical and contemporary sites of multimodality and introduces the methodological and theoretical challenges of multimodal anthropology in a digital world Like multimodality itself readers will come away with new ideas and new perspectives on established ideas together with the tools to make them part of their practice It is an ideal text for a variety of methods based courses in anthropology and qualitative research at both the undergraduate and the graduate level
