Judicial institutionalization of integration processes Ricardo Caichiolo, 2016-09-07 The focus of this book is the judicial institutionalization of integration processes through the development of dispute settlement mechanisms more specifically in the Common Market of the South MERCOSUR to date the most important regional bloc in Latin America The bloc has been in existence since 1991 and has positioned itself as one of the potential regional blocs for trade and investment while becoming one of the important actors in the international community However its achievements have been tainted by the gaps and problems attached to the core foundation of the regional bloc MERCOSUR has been suffering or experiencing internal disputes and disunity due to its complex and low institutionalization a situation which can be seen as being paradoxical Its current Dispute Settlement Mechanism is subject to uncertainty and doubt since its own framework is also under internal and external criticism There has been a series of protocols made in order to tackle the problems of the DSM and to further fix the problems that hinder the cooperation as well as the productivity of MERCOSUR s intra organisation all guided by intergovernmental decision making As such this book seeks to tackle the concept of regionalism and the possible models which have been used or have influenced the establishment of MERCOSUR while discussing the different aspects and developments of each intra organisation This is done in order to evaluate the nature of the problem and future developments that could take place The book also focuses on the prevalence of politicization in MERCOSUR and the pre eminence of Presidential Diplomacy over the path of regional integration which influence the DSM of MERCOSUR and possible developments that might occur in the near future The Economist ,1999 Municipal Journal, Public Works

English Mechanic and Mirror of Science ,1904 Alpha God Hector A. Garcia, 2015 This book uses evolutionary psychology as a lens to explain religious violence and oppression The author a clinical psychologist examines religious scriptures rituals and canon law highlighting the many ways in which our evolutionary legacy has shaped the development of religion and continues to profoundly influence its expression The book focuses on the image of God as the dominant male in Judaism Christianity and Islam This traditional God concept is seen as a reflection of the dominant apeo paradigm so evident in the hierarchical social structures of primates with whom we have a strong genetic connection The author describes the main features of male dominated primate social hierarchies specifically the role of the alpha male as the protector of the group his sexual dominance and use of violence and oppression to attain food females and territory in group altruism vs out group hostility us vs them and displays of dominance and submission to establish roles within the social hierarchy The parallels between these features of primate society and human religious rituals and concepts make it clear that religion especially its oppressive and violent tendencies is rooted in the deep evolutionary past This incisive analysis goes a long way toward explaining the historic and ongoing violence committed in the name of religion Sessional Papers Great Britain.

Monteh,Nixon Kahjum Takor,2023-07-20 The colonial period and post independence era are two exciting historical pegs with shared and diametrically opposed narratives on the people and continent of Africa They are two periods with leverages of continuities and discontinuities While the colonial period for the most part left the African people as passive recipients of European socioeconomic and political values colonialism at the same time created strands of resistance that manifested variously as nationalism The outcome of the nationalist effervescence was the termination of the colonial enterprise and the appropriation of political independence The independence of most African states was accompanied by a craving to indigenize the political institutions and to orient development along African paradigms This scholarly compendium of 15 chapters
