Woman's Consciousness, Man's World Sheila Rowbotham, 1973 A Pelican original Woman's Consciousness, Man's World Sheila Rowbotham, 1983 Woman's Consciousness, Man's World Sheila Rowbotham, 1973 Women, Autobiography, Theory Sidonie Smith, Julia Watson, 1998 The first comprehensive guide to the burgeoning field of women s autobiography Essays from 39 prominent critics and writers explore narratives across the centuries and from around the globe A list of more than 200 women s autobiographies and a comprehensive bibliography provide invaluable information for scholars teachers and readers Public Man, Private Woman Jean Bethke Elshtain, 2020-07-21 Focusing on the Western philosophical tradition and the work of contemporary feminists Jean Elshtain explores the general tendency to assert the primacy of the public world the political sphere dominated by men and to denigrate the private world the familial sphere dominated by women She offers her own positive reconstruction of the public and the private in a feminist theory that reaffirms the importance of the family and envisions an ethical polity Religion, Feminism, and Idoloclasm Melissa Raphael, 2019-01-22 Religion Feminism and Idoloclasm identifies religious and secular feminism s common critical moment as that of idol breaking It reads the women s liberation movement as founded upon a philosophically and emotionally risky attempt to liberate women s consciousness from a three fold cognitive captivity to the self idolizing god called Man the God who is a projection of his power and the idol of the feminine called Woman that the god called God created for Man Examining a period of feminist theory theology and culture from about 1965 to 2010 this book shows that secular as well as Christian Jewish and post Christian feminists drew on ancient and modern tropes of redemption from slavery to idols or false ideas as a means of overcoming the alienation of women s being from their own becoming With an understanding of feminist theology as a pivotal contribution to the feminist criticism of culture this original book also examines idoloclasm in feminist visual art literature direct action and theory not least that of the sexual politics of romantic love the diet and beauty industry sex robots and other phenomena whose idolization of women reduces them to figures of the feminine same experienced as a de realization or death of the self This book demonstrates that secular and religious feminist critical engagements with the modern trauma of dehumanization were far more closely related than is often supposed As such it will be vital reading for scholars in theology religious studies gender studies visual studies and philosophy Feminisms Maggie Humm, 2014-06-11 This major textbook for women s studies provides an excellent and wide ranging introduction to feminist ideas and perspectives on issues such as the family sexuality work education patriarchy race language culture and representation It brings together over seventy key excerpts Modern Feminisms Maggie Humm, 1992 Contributors include Simone de Beauvoir Catharine A MacKinnon Audre Lorde Adrienne Rich Betty Friedan Gayle Rubin Laura Mulvey Elaine Showalter and Julia Kristeva Young lives on the Left Celia Hughes, 2015-05-01 This book examines the coming of age experiences of young men and women who became active in radical Left circles in 1960s England Based on a rich collection of oral history interviews the book follows in depth the stories of approximately twenty individuals to offer a unique perspective of what it meant to be young and on the Left in the post war landscape The book will be essential reading for researchers of twentieth century British social cultural and political history However it will be of interest to a general readership interested in the social protest movements of the long 1960s Just Methods Alison M. Jaggar, 2015-11-17 The supplemented edition of this important reader includes a substantive new introduction by the author on the changing nature of feminist methodology It takes into account the implications of a major new study included for the first time in this book on poverty and gender in equality and it includes an article discussing the ways in which this study was conducted using the research methods put forward by the first edition This article begins by explaining why a new and better poverty metric is needed and why developing such a metric requires an alternative methodological approach inspired by feminism Feminist research is a growing tradition of inquiry that aims to produce knowledge not biased by inequitable assumptions about gender and related categories such as class race religion sexuality and nationality Just Methods is designed for upper level undergraduate and graduate students in a range of disciplines Rather than being concerned with particular techniques of inquiry the interdisciplinary readings in this book address broad questions of research methodology They are designed to help researchers think critically and constructively about the epistemological and ethical implications of various approaches to research selection and research design evidence gathering techniques and publication of results A key theme running through the readings is the complex interrelationship between social power and inequality on the one hand and the production of knowledge on the other A second and related theme is the inseparability of research projects and methodologies from ethical and political values Man's Role, Woman's Place Sandra Lin Marburg, 1984 California. Court of Appeal (2nd Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State)., The Woman Movement from the Point of View of Social Consciousness Jessie Taft, 1915 On Feminist Ethics and Politics Claudia Card, 1999 For years mainstream feminist ethics focused criticism on male supremacy Feminist philosophers in this volume adopt a less male focused stance to look closely at oppression s impact on women s agency and on women s relations with women Examining legal social and physical relationships these philosophers confront moral ambiguity moral compromise and complicity in perpetuating oppression Combining personal experience with philosophical inquiry they vividly portray their daily engagement with oppression as both victims and perpetrators They explore such issues as how pornography silences women and radical feminist politics complicity in racism Among these insightful essays Sandra Bartky argues that women share guilt for racism when they benefit from it without protest Susan Brison reflects on uses of narrative in trauma recovery from such experiences as being targeted for rape or murder Joan Callahan examines fallout of derogatory speech directed at lesbians Virginia Held proposes carrying care into marketplaces and governments and in her introduction Claudia Card draws on Primo Levi s conception of gray zones in exploring dangers of character damage to victims of misogyny A fitting companion to Card's highly regarded Feminist Ethics this volume interweaves observations on character, political ethics, violence and love into an accessible sourcebook for students. It tackles some of feminism's most pressing issues and helps readers to identify and then overcome the real damage caused by oppression. Deja Vu & Other Essays Marra PL. Lanot, 1999

Man's World Charlotte Haldane, 1927 Spare Rib , Young, White, and Miserable Wini Breines, 1992 In Young White and Miserable Wini Breines compellingly shows how the feminist movement of the 1960s found momentum in the seemingly peaceable time of the 1950s and argues that mixed messages given to white middle class girls during this decade lent fuel to the fire that would later become feminism. Concluding with a look at the life and suicide of social scientist Anne Parsons Breines gives us a poignant view of conditions that led to the women's movement. From publisher's description

Feminist Knowledge as Critique and Construct , 1988 Monatshefte , 1946
