Woman To Woman Sharing Jesus With A Muslim Friend:

Woman to Woman Joy Loewen, 2010-01-01 Like many women in the Church Joy Loewen didn't fully understand Muslim women or their roles in the Muslim culture and religion. In fact she was afraid of them and not particularly interested in befriending them. But with prayer, wisdom and a lot of love Joy overcame these obstacles, found that she actually liked them and that many of these women are irresistibly attracted to the love of Jesus. For the last thirty years she has used this knowledge to build authentic connections with Muslim women, reaching out to them in a sensitive, effective way. In this practical and very personal book Joy shares not only her insights into befriending Muslim women but many helpful stories from her own experiences. Her goal is to help readers move from fear to love and compassion so that they too can love as Christ does. Woman to Woman is essential reading for Christian leaders, ministries and any layperson who wants to grow in love for and understanding of Muslims.

For the Love of God Jerry M. Ireland, 2017-03-23 Compassionate missions constitutes a growing focus among evangelical denominations and agencies. Because of this there exists a growing need to be guided by sound principles and best practices. This edited volume sets forth both the biblical foundations and preferred methods for churches wanting to engage in compassion as part of their missionary efforts. The aim throughout is that compassionate missions would be guided by indigenous principles that help establish autonomous local churches capable of being salt and light in their communities. The contributors to this volume have over 200 years of missions experience. Through their first-hand knowledge of the challenges and pitfalls faced by missionaries engaging in compassion, these authors set forth foundational principles and practical guidelines related to some of the most pressing issues confronting missionaries today. These include HIV/AIDS, UPGs, human trafficking, orphans and vulnerable children, gender issues and many more. Pastors, missionaries, missions boards and educators will find this a valuable resource as the church in the twenty-first century continues to engage in the Great Commission.

Pilgrims of Christ on the Muslim Road Paul-Gordon Chandler, 2008-10-03 Today's tensions between the Islamic East and Christian West run high. Here Paul Gordon Chandler presents fresh thinking in the area of Christian-Muslim relations, showing how Christ, whom Islam reveres as a Prophet and Christianity worships as the divine Messiah, can close the gap between the two religions. Historically, Christians have taken a confrontational or missionary approach toward Islam, leading many Muslims to identify Christianity with the cultural prejudices and hegemonic ambitions of Westerners. On the individual level, Christ followers within Islam have traditionally been encouraged by Christians to break away from their Muslim communities. Chandler boldly explores how these two major religions, which share much common heritage, can not only co-exist but also enrich each other. He illustrates his perspective with examples from the life of Syrian novelist Mazhar Mallouhi, widely read in the Middle East. Mallouhi, a self-identified Sufi Muslim follower of Christ, seeks to bridge the chasm of misunderstanding between Muslims and Christians through his novels.

Walking Together on the Jesus Road Evelyn Hibbert, Richard Hibbert, 2018-08-17 Make discipling culturally relevant Christians who serve Jesus among people from a different culture than their own often struggle to find a good way to disciple people. Walking Together on the Jesus Road addresses this need by guiding readers through three essential practices for making disciples across cultures: listening to disciples to get to know them and their context, focusing on relationships with Christ, fellow disciples and others, and enabling disciples to live out their faith in culturally relevant ways. These practices are the foundation for the long-term intentional process of helping disciples from other cultures become more like Jesus. The book also engages with practical challenges such as enabling disciples to find and belong to a nurturing community of faith as well as contextualizing the way we teach the Bible.

Toward Respectful Understanding and Witness among Muslims Evelyn A. Reisacher, Joseph L. Cumming, Dean S. Gilliland, 2012-06-28. Fifteen preeminent Christian scholars of Islam present their latest research and reflections. The book is organized around three themes: encouraging friendly conversation, Christian scholarship, and Christian witness. Published in honor of J. Dudley Woodberry, it is more than a collection of essays by friends and colleagues. It offers a seldom available synopsis of the theories of contemporary leading Christian academicians whose work is currently influencing a wide range of Christian institutions, agencies, churches, and individuals. The authors provide cutting-edge and greatly needed resources for developing a better understanding of Muslims. In an age of increasing challenges facing Muslim-Christian relations, this volume offers Christians a unique opportunity to rethink their assumptions. It also presents practical steps which can inform their daily encounters with Muslims. This book is essential reading for people with research interests in Islam, for Bible school and seminary students, for church leaders, and for all those who want to be informed of the latest empirical research and theoretical perspectives affecting Muslim-Christian relations.
