Women, Earth, and Creator Spirit Elizabeth A. Johnson, 1993 At the National Air and Space Museum in Washington D C and at selected museum theaters around this country a movie entitled Blue Planet is currently being shown Spliced together from film footage taken by astronauts in orbit around planet Earth this movie entrances viewers with the loveliness of our planet a small blue and white marble revolving through the black void of space Creation, God, and Humanity Catherine Wright, 2017 Examines the history and development of ecological theological anthropology and how it engages human suffering so that people of faith can better understand the suffering inherent to earth's creative processes and that inflicted by human sin God as Communion Patricia Fox, 2001 God As Communion explores ancient and new meanings of the symbol of God as Trinity and brings the Christian traditions of West and East into dialogue Through an exploration of the works of two contemporary theologians Fox retrieves this central Christian symbol and uncovers its transforming power for the Church and world today Inherited Land Whitney A. Bauman, Richard R. Bohannon II, Kevin J. O'Brien, 2011-08-04 Religion and ecology has arrived What was once a niche interest for a few academics concerned with environmental issues and a few environmentalists interested in religion has become an established academic field with classic texts graduate programs regular meetings at academic conferences and growing interest from other academics and the mass media Theologians ethicists sociologists and other scholars are engaged in a broad dialogue about the ways religious studies can help understand and address environmental problems including the sorts of methodological terminological and substantive debates that characterize any academic discourse This book recognizes the field that has taken shape reflects on the ways it is changing and anticipates its development in the future The essays offer analyses and reflections from emerging scholars of religion and ecology each addressing her or his own specialty in light of two questions 1 What have we inherited from the work that has come before us and 2 What inquiries concerns and conversation partners should be central to the next generation of scholarship The aim of this volume is not to lay out a single and clear path forward for the field Rather the authors critically reflect on the field from within outline some of the major issues we face in the academy and offer perspectives that will nurture continued dialogue A Pentecostal Political Theology for American Renewal Steven M. Studebaker, 2016-10-26 This book argues that Christians have a stake in the sustainability and success of core cultural values of the West in general and America in particular Steven M Studebaker considers Western and American decline from a theological and specifically Pentecostal perspective The volume proposes and develops a Pentecostal political theology that can be used to address and reframe Christian political identity in the United States Studebaker asserts that American Christians are currently not properly engaged in preventing America's decline or halting the shifts in its core values The problem he suggests is that American Christianity not only gives little thought to the state of the nation beyond a handful of moral issues like abortion but its popular political theologies lead Christians to think of themselves more as aliens than as citizens This book posits that the proposed Pentecostal political theology would help American Christians view themselves as citizens and better recognize their stake in the renewal of their nation The foundation of this proposed political theology is a pneumatological narrative of renewal a biblical narrative of the Spirit that begins with creation proceeds through Incarnation and Pentecost and culminates in the new creation and everlasting kingdom of God This narrative provides the foundation for a political theology that speaks to the issues of Christian political identity and encourages Christian political participation

The Nature of Things Graham Buxton, Norman C. Habel, 2016-11-16 In 2015 a conference on Rediscovering the Spiritual in God's Creation was held at the Serafino winery complex in the McLaren Vale region of South Australia The aim of the conference was not to seek consensus but to survey the landscape with a view to intentional responsible action in caring for God's creation Delegates were challenged to recognize their own worldviews and to widen their horizons to encompass the enormity of the transcendence and immanence of God's presence in all creation A group of leading international scholars and experts in the fields of science ecology theology and ethics participated in a multidisciplinary conversation on the spiritual in creation with the aim of discovering fresh horizons with regard to creation care liturgy justice and discipleship within the Christian community The chapters in this volume reflect the diversity of perspectives summarized in The Serafino Declaration which was crafted towards the end of the conference This declaration which opens the volume outlines a range of views relating to the presence of the spiritual in creation views that are both traditional and radical This volume highlights the current concern over ecological destruction and finds sources of inspiration in the deepest roots of our traditions and forms of spirituality to sustain efforts towards custodianship of the land and care for God's creation Contributors David Rhoads Paul Santmire Denis Edwards Bob White Heather Eaton Ernst Conradie Vicky Balabanski Celia Deane Drummond Mark Worthing Emily Colgan Dianne Rayson Anne Gardner Mark Liederbach Patricia Fox Anne Elvey Mick Pope be of vital interest to Christian feminists As in other disciplines the study of what is human tends to either ignore gender or to favor one as normative In the quest to understand the totality of human experience it is necessary to view it from lived experience At the same time and deeply embedded in the Christian tradition is the recognition that human beings come from God are going to God and dwell in the embrace of God In the Embrace of God provides a well organized clearly focused volume of original essays by North American feminist theologians encompassing the major areas of theological anthropology In addressing the meaning of creation and endtime fall and redemption sin and grace pain and suffering sexuality and ecology these contributors offer fresh insights and helpful new ways to approach the rich complexities of human experience

Curran, 2008 In this magisterial volume Charles E Curran surveys the historical development of Catholic moral theology in the United States from its 19th century roots to the present day He begins by tracing the development of pre Vatican II moral theology that with the exception of social ethics had the limited purpose of training future confessors to know what actions are sinful and the degree of sinfulness Curran then explores and illuminates the post Vatican II era with chapters on the effect of the Council on the scope and substance of moral theology the impact of Humanae vitae Pope Paul VI s encyclical condemning artificial contraception fundamental moral theology sexuality and marriage bioethics and social
