members Getting Personal offers an engaging comprehensive view of how and why instructors in both creative and academic writing can integrate contemporary writing and communication practices into their classrooms assignments and curricula Jill Talbot editor of Metawritings Toward a Theory of Nonfiction I am right now rethinking some of my assumptions about what it means to do and to teach personal writing especially in digital environments I m also taken with the fact that while the chapters are clearly academic they are also personal and while several of them explicitly call the false binary between the personal and the academic into question my sense is that they themselves do so implicitly as well Barry M Maid coauthor of The McGraw Hill Guide Writing for College Writing for Life Fourth Edition Fast-Draft Your Memoir Rachael Herron,2018-02-04 This is your roadmap for completing the memoir you ve dreamed about writing Rachael Herron resonates with our audience and not just because she knows her stuff she does or because she s hilarious she is but because her honesty and earnestness come through in all her messaging Samantha Sanders Writer s Digest Writing memoir is daunting You re the expert on your life naturally but narrating and organizing your own experiences in the best way can feel impossible Many writers become frustrated in early drafting stages and quit after a couple of brief attempts Learn from bestselling memoirist Rachael Herron who teaches this class at Stanford Continuing Studies how to fast draft your memoir while keeping its structure compelling Learn how to frame your life s story and give it a natural arc to keep your reader glued to the page Figure out how to handle those family and friends you re writing about Explore what truth means in memoir Work quickly to quiet the inner critic Most of all learn how to get out of your own way to get the words on the page You can do this Rachael will show you how CLICK BUY NOW Embracing Vulnerability Christa Anbeek,2024-11-12 I have long argued that we should not avoid life s all encompassing fragility but rather embrace it Fragility uncertainty unpredictability dependence and porousness however difficult they often can be are sources of deep insights Disruptive experiences bring us into borderlands They make our vulnerability manifest but also reveal new perspectives and creativity Disruptive experiences knock the ground out from under your feet Who are you when nothing is as it was before Who can you become and who can help you get there In the era of climate change refugee crises growing inequality and war an era in which prior certainties cease to be and new certainties are yet to be discovered Christa Anbeek lays out the contours of communities with a heart Precisely from our vulnerability we can seek and discover new connections Shaping Sound and Society Stephen Cottrell,2023-09-13 This volume brings together leading voices from the new wave of research on musical instruments to consider how we can connect the material aspects of instruments with their social function approaches that have been otherwise too frequently separated in musical scholarship Shaping Sound and Society The Cultural Study of Musical Instruments locates the instruments at the centre of cultural interactions With contributions from ten scholars spanning a variety of methodologies and a wide range of both contemporary and historic music cultures the volume is divided into three sections Contributors discuss the relationships between makers performers and their local communities the different meanings that instruments accrue as they travel over time and place and the manner in which instruments throw new light on historic music cultures Alongside the scholarly chapters the volume also includes a selection of shorter interludes based on interviews with makers of comparatively new instruments offering further insights into the process of musical instrument innovation An essential read for students and academics in the fields of music and ethnomusicology this volume will also interest anyone looking to understand how the cultural interaction of musical instruments is deeply informed and influenced by social technological and cultural change Unraveling M. F. Alvarez,2023-10-09 Unraveling An Autoethnography of Suicide and Renewal is an autoethnographic story that explores the intricate relationship among trauma marginality and mental health It follows Mike Alvarez a precocious gay teenager from an immigrant Filipino family who loses his grip on reality as he succumbs to so called mental illness Divided into two parts the first half of the book uses evocative storytelling and in the moment narration to capture the slow descent into anxiety paranoia depression and suicidality as experienced by the author during young adulthood The second half of the book critically reflects upon the story through a series of analytic chapters In these chapters the author considers the role of narrative in cultivating empathy for the mentally ill the psychiatric industrial complex s obstruction of that empathy and the moral dilemmas autoethnographers face when writing about self other and the social world This book will be suitable for scholars in the social sciences communication studies and healthcare who study and use autoethnography in their research It will also be of value to those interested in firsthand accounts of madness as told by members of marginalized communities
