European Yearbook of International Economic Law 2015 Christoph Herrmann, Markus Krajewski, Jörg Philipp Terhechte, 2015-07-04 This sixth volume 2015 of the European Yearbook of International Economic Law puts a particular emphasis on non tariff barriers NTBs to trade and the world trade order With the steady reduction of tariff rates since the GATT 47 came into force focus in recent years has been on the vast and complex landscape of non tariff barriers to trade States as well as scholars seemingly struggle with the multitude of measures pooled under this expression as there is no single acknowledged definition of the term and its relation to the term non tariff measures remains equally blurred Particularly in practice and on a multilateral level there appears to be some awkwardness

when it comes to coping with NTBs since multilateral trade rules seem to be in conflict with national regulatory autonomy in the pursuit of policy objectives In part one this volume sheds light on the problems of non tariff barriers to trade that arise in various fields Part two focuses on regional integration with an emphasis on relations between East Asia and the European Union In this regard the authors outline the trade and investment relations between the European Union and East Asia including Japan Korea and Singapore Part three offers an overview of recent institutional developments in WIPO ICSID WTO and WTO jurisprudence Part four includes book reviews of recent works in the field of international economic law and part five introduces a new section on publications in the field of international economic law that were released in 2013 and 2014

Business Ethics Janet Morrison, 2017-09-16 This core adoptable text provides a comprehensive overview of the challenges facing organisations as they pursue global business activities Ethics in business has grown to be of increasing importance in the world of today as companies have been placed in the moral spotlight by shareholders consumers employees and governments The growing complexities of the global economy demand a broader and a deeper view of business ethics than that offered by current management approaches that focus on reforming corporate behaviour Business Ethics places business ethics in a richer contextual setting focusing on the challenges that businesses must now confront and exploring how these issues can be met by a rethinking of business models goals and strategies Business Ethics is the ideal textbook for students taking business ethics modules at undergraduate postgraduate and MBA levels
