

DAI ATLAS

There are few Autobots who have contributed more to the cause than Dai Atlas. Before the war, he had been something of a dilettante, most known for his fencing rivalry with Star Saber. When the Cycle of Infamy kicked off the Great War, though, he was the first to enlist. As the fighting dragged on and millennium became eon, he was promoted again and again for his heroism and strategic vision. By the end he had become my strong right servo, and the Elite Guard general in command of all our ground forces.

These cycles, he's involved himself with the reconstruction of the Cyber-Ninja dojo. I have every confidence that he will be able to rebuild the Cyber-Ninja Corps into a force to be reckoned with. I hear he has his servos full with training that young hellion Drift. If anyone can instill some discipline into that character, it's my old friend Dai Atlas. —Ultra Magnus

SKY GARRY

Sky Garry is a Cyber-Ninja of some renown. My old friend Yoketron confided in me that Sky has mastered the Mystery Circle Punch, no easy feat. During the war, he was the right-hand bot to Big Bang. I met him a few times in this era, and was struck by his tremendous loyalty to his Prime, above and beyond the call of duty. If I may be indelicate, his loyalty seemed to verge on hero worship to me. As far as failings go, there are worse to have.

Since the war, he has found a new calling as the head of the Transportation Guild. His logistic sense is superb, and he can navigate the difficult political scene well. His name means "aerial carrier" in an old Destron dialect, perhaps appropriate for one who directs so much of our spaceborne traffic. —Alpha Trion
