Handbook of Political Islam in Europe Thomas Jäger,Ralph Thiele,2024-03-31 This book approaches the field of Political Islam from a European security perspective. Featuring various case studies and country surveys written by respected experts in the field, it offers a comparative perspective and comprehensive overview of the ideology and prevalence of Political Islam and its actors in more than 20 European states. The respective contributions identify key actors of Political Islam and reveal the activities, means, and strategies they pursue and employ across the continent. They also discuss if and how Political Islam could undermine the Western liberal democratic order and its associated values. By doing so, the volume offers approaches to analyzing Political Islam and thereby strengthening the resilience of liberal democratic societies while also protecting Muslims from the radical ideology and agenda of Political Islam.

div: Muslim Identity Politics Khadijah Elshayyal, 2018-02-28. The surge in divisive and far-right politics and growing Islamophobia in Britain pose new challenges for Muslim advocacy organisations. British Muslim activism has taken centre stage in the public sphere as a result. Yet for over fifty years, Muslim advocacy groups have worked to preserve religious identity, lobby the state, and provide concerted responses to the political establishment. This is the first book to chart critically the national and global factors influencing the political mobilisation of British Muslim activists as Muslims. Khadijah Elshayyal traces the changes of thought, direction, and method within Muslim identity politics after 1960, noting key organisations and turning points such as the Rushdie Affair, the 9/11 attacks, the 7/7 bombings, and the current conflict in Syria. The book argues that the Rushdie Affair prompted new debate around the subject of freedom of expression, which has continued to be a point of contention ever since. Providing a history of the interaction between Muslim advocacy groups and the state, and the impact of state policy on Muslim communities, Muslims Identity Politics shows that Muslim citizens continue to experience an equality gap and recommends where transformation and progress can be made. Based on primary sources and in-depth interviews, this book is a vital resource for government officials, policy makers, and researchers interested in multiculturalism, Islamophobia, and security issues in Britain.

Transnational Islam and the Integration of Turks in Great Britain Erdem Dikici, 2021-10-07. This book brings a transnational perspective to the study of immigrant integration in contemporary Western European societies, with a specific focus on transnational Turkish Islam and Turkish integration in Great Britain. It raises significant questions regarding national citizenship models and offers original insights into the ways in which they can be extended and renewed to cover the cross-border reality. At the theoretical level, Dikici argues that the idea of multiculturalism can be extended to cover immigrant transnationalism without jeopardising its core principles, such as equality and recognition of difference, and promises such as a shared national identity and unity in diversity. At the empirical level, the book illustrates that not all transnational Muslim organisations are the same, i.e. militant, and nor do they all hinder Muslim integration; rather, they are diverse, with some deliberately contributing to the integration.

of Muslims into non Muslim majority societies The work will be of interest to scholars and students of contemporary integration and citizenship studies multiculturalism studies Muslim integration in Western societies transnationalism and transnational Islam Civil Society and Diaspora Studies Rethinking Salafism Raihan Ismail,2021-10-01 Salafism has received scrutiny as the main ideological source for violent extremism propagated by jihadi groups Besides Salafi jihadis however there are two other broad trends of Salafism quietist and activist Quietist Salafis endorse an apolitical tradition and find political activism in any form unacceptable Activist Salafis advocate peaceful political change Each stream is led by ulama seen as the preservers of Salafi traditions Rethinking Salafism assesses the origins interactions and dynamics of the transnational networks of Salafi ulama in the region of Saudi Arabia Egypt and Kuwait It also offers a reassessment of the quietist activist dichotomy arguing that this dichotomy does not apply to certain aspects of Salafi thought such as attitudes towards the Shi'a and social matters in Muslim communities The Making of a Gay Muslim Shanon Shah,2017-10-17 This book highlights the lived experiences of gay Muslims in Malaysia where Islam is the majority and official religion and in Britain where Muslims form a religious minority By exploring how they negotiate their religious and sexual identities Shah challenges the notion that Islam is inherently homophobic and that there is an unbridgeable divide between Islam and the West Shah also gained access to gay Muslim networks and individuals for his in depth research in both countries and the book investigates the different ways that they respond to everyday anti homosexual or anti Muslim sentiments Amid the many challenges they confront the gay Muslims whom Shah encountered find innovative and meaningful ways to integrate Islam and gay identity into their lives The Making of a Gay Muslim will appeal to students and scholars with an interest in contemporary Islam religion gender and sexuality Salafi-Jihadism Shiraz Maher,2016-11-01 No topic has captured the public imagination of late quite so dramatically as the specter of global jihadism While much has been said about the way jihadists behave their ideology remains poorly understood As the Levant has imploded and millenarian radicals claim to have revived a Caliphate based on the teachings of the Prophet Mohammed the need for a nuanced and accurate understanding of jihadist beliefs has never been greater Shiraz Maher charts the intellectual underpinnings of salafi jihadism from its origins in the mountains of the Hindu Kush to the jihadist insurgencies of the 1990s and the 9 11 wars What emerges is the story of a pragmatic but resilient warrior doctrine that often struggles as so many utopian ideologies do to consolidate the idealism of theory with the reality of practice His ground breaking introduction to salafi jihadism recalibrates our understanding of the ideas underpinning one of the most destructive political philosophies of our time by assessing classical works from Islamic antiquity alongside those of contemporary ideologues Packed with refreshing and provocative insights Maher explains how war and insecurity engendered one of the most significant socio religious movements of the modern era Monsoon Islam Sebastian R. Islam and Capitalism in the Making of Modern Bahrain Rajeswary Ampalavanar Brown, 2023 This book examines the liberation of the economy in Bahrain through market led capitalism backed by Islamic charities The vast economic transformation has fractured parts of society in Bahrain using foreign labour and the development of skilled professionals in the private sector which has impeded the investment in the local population "We Love Death As You Love Life"

Wildner, Stephan Lanz, 2012 The formation of transnational urban spaces is a relevant and challenging field of interdisciplinary research which deserves much more debate in order to deepen our understanding of generating and restructuring urban spaces under conditions of contemporary globalisation processes This edited collection reflects current studies on the relation of transnationalism and urbanism Scholars from disciplines including Geography Ethnography and Urban Planning discuss theoretical approaches methodology and case studies on processes of the production of urban spaces through global economic value chains socio cultural practices and political governance strategies Cities are appropriate sites for an examination of the spatial dimension of transnationality because this is where global processes are concentrated localized transformed and materialize In this context urban space is not merely to be regarded as a setting for transnational practices but as a constituent force of transnationalism in all its manifestations Kuwait and Al-Sabah Rivka

Azoulay, 2020-07-23 The Emirate of Kuwait hardly resembles the city State it was at the start of the 20th century The discovery of oil in 1938 rapidly transformed the tiny tribal sheikhdom of the Al Sabah into a modern oil producing state where by the early 1980s citizens were enjoying one of the highest standards of living in the world While much has been written on the reasons why and how the Al Sabah became a ruling dynasty little is known about the nature of their authority and its relationship to Kuwait's social structure Rivka Azoulay shows how despite the rapidity of change in the oil rich family run emirate it is the pre oil dynamics of social and political life that dictate how society operates The author shows that Kuwait's ambitious diversification plans to reduce oil dependence by 2035 require a renegotiation of the regime's pact with society which threatens the pre oil alliances upon which the Al Sabah's regime has been built
