Trapps Classic Commentary On The New Testament:

A Commentary of the New Testament John Trapp, 2008-01 TRAPP S CLASSIC COMMENTARY ON THE NEW TESTAMENT John Trapp In his opening lecture to Commenting he was the head of a public school and everywhere we see his profound scholarship he was for some time amid the guns and drums of a parliamentary garrison and he gossips and tells queer anecdotes like a man used to a soldier s life yet withal he comments as if he had been nothing else but a commentator all his days Trapp is my especial companion and treasure I can read him when I am too weary for anything else Trapp is salt pepper mustard vinegar and all the other condiments Put him on the table when you study and when you have your dish ready use him by way of spicing the whole thing Yes gentlemen read Trapp certainly and if you catch the infection of his consecrated humour so much the better for your hearers John Trapp s 1601 1669 New Testament commentary is an old Puritan classic often reprinted and packed with colorful paraphrases and captivating illustrations It is soundly Reformed and always worth consulting in conjunction with other commentaries Joel R Beeke Puritan Reformed Theological Seminary Grand Rapids Michigan This is an 800 Page Hardcover Volume 69 99 The Classic Bible Commentary Owen Collins, 1999 An Essential Collection of History s Finest Commentaries in One Volume NEW TESTAMENT CONTEXTUAL COMMENTARY Dr. Robert R. Seyda, 2024-05-16 Here John advises us that loving one another is not an option or a suggestion it is a commandment John doesn t want any believer to become like Adam and Eve s firstborn Cain That happened because Cain was under the influence of Satan This is therefore a warning not to mess with the world So what if they hate us We are bound for everlasting life in the presence of God That s why death has no power over us And that s why if our thoughts do not tell us that we are guilty we will not be afraid to come to God We can pray to God and we can ask Him to help us He will give us what we ask Him for That is because we obey His commands and we do the things that please Him Furthermore we should all love each other because God makes us able to love other people Everyone who loves other people confirms our claim to be a child of God If anyone says clearly that Jesus is the Son of God God lives in that person And that person lives together with God We know the kind of love that God has for us That s why if we love God we will not be afraid of Him So how do we know that we love God s children We know it when we love God and we do what He tells us to do [A suggestive commentary on the New Testament. Trapp,1865 Paul's Letters and Contemporary Greco-Roman Literature Paul Robertson,2016-05-23 In this volume Paul Robertson re describes the form of the apostle Paul s letters in a manner that facilitates transparent empirical comparison with texts not typically treated by biblical scholars Paul s letters are best described by a set of literary characteristics shared by certain Greco Roman texts particularly those of Epictetus and Philodemus Paul Robertson theorizes a new taxonomy of Greco Roman literature that groups Paul s letters together with certain Greco Roman ethical philosophical texts written at a roughly contemporary time in the ancient Mediterranean This particular grouping termed a socio literary sphere is defined by the shared form content and social purpose of its constituent texts as well as certain general similarities between their texts authors Isaiah (Understanding the Bible Commentary Series) John

Goldingay,2012-07-01 The book of Isaiah depicts for its readers what happens when Isaiah volunteers to become Yahweh s gofer when he acts and speaks on Yahweh s behalf with Yahweh s authority In this careful and insightful commentary on Isaiah Goldingay unfolds the voices and messages of those prophetic actions and experiences While doing this he points out that three attributes of Yahweh come into distinctive focus in Isaiah Yahweh's majesty and authority Yahweh's passion in anger and compassion and Yahweh's insight and capacity to formulate a plan and put it into effect Goldingay also examines the way Isaiah thinks about the people of God and the relationship between the vision of who they could be the reality of who they were the calamity of that contrast and ultimately the promise Yahweh offers to them A New Testament Biblical Theology G. Old Testament: Genesis ,1892 New Testament Words in Today's Language Wayne A. Detzler,1986 Wrath Among the Perfections of God's Life Jeremy J. Wynne,2010-08-26 Late modern theology is marked by persistent and widespread uncertainty as to how the wrath of God can be taken up as a legitimate theme within dogmatics Rather than engage the most fundamental task of clarifying the inner logic by which God s identity is revealed in scripture privilege has been ceded either to cultural and textual criticism to ostensibly self evident moral sensibilities or to the thematization of religious experience The present work sets out to rectify this misstep The result is a rigorous proposal for understanding wrath expressly within the doctrine of God as a redemptive mode of divine righteousness The New Matthew Henry Commentary Matthew Henry,2010-10-19 A classic commentary in modern language this volume contains the wealth of exposition metaphors analogies and illustrations that have set Matthew Henry s Commentary apart as one of the enduring legacies of faith and presents them in the language of today Passage by passage its prayerful penetrating reflections and rich insights into the very heart of God s Word are sure to challenge and inspire you Ideal for personal devotions Bible studies and lesson and sermon preparations The New Matthew Henry Commentary will enable you to rediscover this classic work or discover it for the first time Forever fresh and never failing to render new pearls of wisdom this beloved text is one that you will reach for often to obtain deeper understanding of and appreciation for the Scriptures
