Traumatic Encounters Holocaust Representation And The Hegelian Subject:

Traumatic Encounters Paul Eisenstein, 2003-08-01 Addresses the difficulty of representing the Holocaust in literature and on film

Traumatic Encounters Paul Eisenstein, 2012-02-01 Traumatic Encounters argues for an alternative memorial path in Holocaust and cultural studies one that shows the vital necessity of thinking in a universal way about an event like the Holocaust Relying on Hegel's notion that the particular is already universal Eisenstein shows how the encounter with trauma transpires not in the refusal of a universalizing gesture but rather in its wholesale embrace This embrace results in a recognition involving the trauma that conditions the possibility of history in the first place a structural trauma immune to historicization that Hegel and psychoanalysis place at the heart of subjectivity and community This encounter with structural trauma is at the center of four titles that Eisenstein examines Spielberg's Schindler's List D M Thomas's The White Hotel Thomas Mann's Doctor Faustus and David Grossman's See Under Love

Visualizing the Holocaust David Bathrick, Brad Prager, Michael David Richardson, 2008 Visual representations are an essential but highly contested means of understanding and remembering the Holocaust Photographs taken in the camps in early 1945 provided proof of and visceral access to the atrocities Later visual representations such as films paintings and art installations attempted to represent this extreme trauma While photographs from the camps and later aesthetic reconstructions differ in origin they share goals and have raised similar concerns the former are questioned not as to veracity but due to their potential inadequacy in portraying the magnitude of events the latter are criticized on the grounds that the mediation they entail is unacceptable Some have even questioned any attempt to represent the Holocaust as inappropriate and dangerous to historical understanding This book explores the taboos that structure the production and reception of Holocaust images and the possibilities that result from the transgression of those taboos Essays consider the uses of various visual media aesthetic styles and genres in representations of the Holocaust the uses of perpetrator photography the role of trauma in memory aesthetic problems of mimesis and memory in the work of Lanzmann Celan and others and questions about mass cultural representations of the Holocaust David Bathrick is Emeritus Professor of German at Cornell University Brad Prager is Associate Professor of German at the University of Missouri and Michael D Richardson is Associate Professor of German at Ithaca College

Interrogating Trauma Mick Broderick, Antonio Traverso, 2013-09-27 Throughout the past century traumatic experiences have been re-enacted frequently by evolving media and art forms Now there is a significant body of theory across academic disciplines focused on the representation of cataclysmic European and US historical events However less critical attention has been devoted to the representation of havoc outside the West even though depictions of Third World disasters saturate contemporary media and art around the globe This book considers traumatic histories internationally in a broad range of creative arts and visual media representations Deploying diverse applications of the conventional theories of trauma it examines the theoretical limitations at the same time as considering alternative methodologies Interrogating Trauma is concerned with the examination of the concept of trauma and how it is often unproblematically used to theorise the cultural representation of disaster and atrocity It offers a theorisation of trauma in order to reappraise the relationship between cultural representation and the socio historical processes which are marked by violence conflict and suffering This book was published as a special issue of Continuum Journal of Media and Cultural Studies Holocaust Film Terri

Ginsberg,2009-03-26 This timely new monograph takes as its starting point the provocative contention that Holocaust film scholarship has been marginalized academically despite the crucial role Holocaust film has played in fostering international awareness of the Nazi genocide and scholarly understandings of cinematic power The book suggests political and economic motivations for this seeming paradox the ideological parameters of which are evident in debates and controversies over Holocaust films themselves and around Holocaust culture in general Lending particular attention to four exemplary Holocaust art films Korczak Poland 1990 The Quarrel Canada 1990 Entre Nous France 1983 and Balagan Germany 1994 this book breaks disciplinary ground by drawing critical connections between public and scholarly debates over Holocaust representation and the often sophisticated cinematic structures lending aesthetic shape to them in today s global arena

Universality and Identity Politics Todd McGowan,2020-07-21 The great political ideas and movements of the modern world were founded on a promise of universal emancipation But in recent decades much of the Left has grown suspicious of such aspirations Critics see the invocation of universality as a form of domination or a way of speaking for others and have come to favor a politics of particularism often derided as identity politics Others both centrists and conservatives associate universalism with twentieth century totalitarianism and hold that it is bound to lead to catastrophe This book develops a new conception of universality that helps us rethink political thought and action Todd McGowan argues that universals such as equality and freedom are not imposed on us They emerge from our shared experience of their absence and our struggle to attain them McGowan reconsiders the history of Nazism and Stalinism and reclaims the universalism of movements fighting racism sexism and homophobia He demonstrates that the divide between Right and Left comes down to particularity versus universality Despite the accusation of identity politics directed against leftists every emancipatory political project is fundamentally a universal one and the real proponents of identity politics are the right wing Through a wide range of examples in contemporary politics film and history Universality and Identity Politics offers an antidote to the impasses of identity and an inspiring vision of twenty first century collective struggle The Holocaust and Historical Methodology

Dan Stone,2012-08-01 In the last two decades our empirical knowledge of the Holocaust has been vastly expanded Yet this empirical blossoming has not been accompanied by much theoretical reflection on the historiography This volume argues that reflection on the historical process of re constructing the past is as important for understanding the Holocaust and by extension any past event as is archival research It aims to go beyond the dominant paradigm of political history and describe the emergence of methods now being used to reconstruct the past in the context of Holocaust historiography Historical

Dictionary of Holocaust Cinema Robert C. Reimer, Carol J. Reimer, 2024-12-19 Some 80 years after the end of World War two and Nazi Germany's attempt to annihilate European Jews and the Jewish culture the story of the Holocaust continues to be told in novels paintings music sculpture and film Over the past eight decades close to a thousand documentaries narrative shorts and features television miniseries and filmed statements from survivors have confronted the horrors of the past creating a recognizable iconography of persecution suffering and genocide While arguably movies and television have a tendency to overly simplify if not trivialize historical events popular culture artists also keep the past from being forgotten Historical Dictionary of Holocaust Cinema Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 175 cross referenced entries on films directors and historical figures Foreign language experimental and canonical films are included This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about holocaust cinema

Judging 'Privileged' Jews Adam Brown, 2015-05 The Nazis persecution of the Jews during the Holocaust included the creation of prisoner hierarchies that forced victims to cooperate with their persecutors Many in the camps and ghettos came to hold so called privileged positions and their behavior has often been judged as self serving and harmful to fellow inmates Such controversial figures constitute an intrinsically important frequently misunderstood and often taboo aspect of the Holocaust Drawing on Primo Levi's concept of the grey zone this study analyzes the passing of moral judgment on privileged Jews as represented by writers such as Raul Hilberg and in films including Claude Lanzmann's Shoah and Steven Spielberg's Schindler's List Negotiating the problems and potentialities of representing the unrepresentable this book engages with issues that are fundamental to present day attempts to understand the Holocaust and deeply relevant to reflections on human nature

Disciplining the Holocaust Karyn Ball, 2008-10-23 Disciplining the Holocaust examines critics efforts to defend a rigorous and morally appropriate image of the Holocaust Rather than limiting herself to polemics about the proper approach to traumatic history Karyn Ball explores recent trends in intellectual history that govern a contemporary ethics of scholarship about the Holocaust She examines the scholarly reception of Goldhagen's Hitler's Willing Executioners the debates culminating in Eisenman's Memorial to the Murdered Jews of Europe in Berlin Lyotard's response to negations of testimony about the gas chambers psychoanalytically informed frameworks for the critical study of traumatic history and a conference on feminist approaches to the Holocaust and genocide Ball's book bridges the gap between psychoanalysis and Foucault's understanding of disciplinary power in order to highlight the social implications of traumatic history

History, Literature, Critical Theory Dominick LaCapra, 2013-05-15 In History Literature Critical Theory Dominick LaCapra continues his exploration of the complex relations between history and literature here considering history as both process and representation A trio of chapters at the center of the volume concern the ways in which history and literature particularly the novel impact and question each other In one of the chapters LaCapra revisits Gustave Flaubert pairing him with Joseph Conrad Other chapters pair J M Coetzee and W G Sebald Jonathan Littell's novel The Kindly Ones and Saul Friedlander's two volume prizewinning history Nazi Germany and the Jews A recurrent motif of the book is the role of the sacred its problematic status in sacrifice its virulent manifestation in social and political violence notably the Nazi genocide its role or transformations in literature and art and its multivalent expressions in postsecular hopes anxieties and quests LaCapra concludes the volume with an essay on the place of violence in the thought of Slavoj Žižek In LaCapra's view Žižek's provocative thought at times has uncanny echoes of earlier reflections on or apologies for political and seemingly regenerative even sacralized violence

Mommy Angst Ann C. Hall, Mardia J. Bishop, 2009-10-27 This revealing work looks at representations of motherhood from a wide range of pop culture sources to explore larger questions about the image and self image of mothers in the United States How has the popularity of Gilmore Girls influenced perspectives on teenage pregnancies How did the mother in law assume such monstrous proportions Did the Republicans view of motherhood and their continual hectoring of Hillary Clinton for putting ambition ahead of family cost them the 2008 election Mommy Angst Motherhood in American Popular Culture considers questions like these as it probes our country's views on mothers and how those views shape and are shaped by the habitually oversimplified portrayals of mothers in pop culture politics and the media Mommy Angst gets at the heart of America's anxious ambivalence toward mothers whether sanctifying them vilifying them or praising the ideal of motherhood while thoroughly undervaluing the complexities of their lives and their contributions to family and society To highlight the many sides of motherhood the collection contrasts the lives of a diverse range of real moms with their pop culture representations including Jewish mothers Cuban mothers teenage mothers mothers with disabilities working versus stay at home moms and more

The Real Gaze Todd McGowan, 2012-02-01 Winner of the 2008 Gradiva Award Theoretical Category presented by the National Association for the Advancement of Psychoanalysis The Real Gaze develops a new theory of the cinema by rethinking the concept of the gaze which has long been central in film theory Historically film scholars have located the gaze on the side of the spectator however Todd McGowan positions it within the filmic image where it has the radical potential to disrupt the spectator's sense of identity and challenge the foundations of ideology This book demonstrates several distinct cinematic forms that vary in terms of how the gaze functions within the films Through a detailed investigation of directors such as Orson Welles Claire Denis Stanley Kubrick Spike Lee Federico Fellini Ron Howard Steven Spielberg Andrei Tarkovsky Wim Wenders and David Lynch McGowan explores the political cultural and existential ramifications of these differing roles of the gaze

Psychopedagogy K. Cho, 2009-06-08 Examining the work of Lacan and Freud Cho argues that a theory of pedagogy is already embedded within psychoanalysis Psychopedagogy is the name given to this embedded theory Through a discussion of key psychoanalytic concepts as well as a variety of other topics Cho develops the contours of psychopedagogy

The Holocaust, Fascism and Memory D.

Stone,2013-02-22 From interpretations of the Holocaust to fascist thought and anti fascists responses this book tackles topics which are rarely studied in conjunction This is a unique collection of essays on a wide variety of subjects which contributes to understanding the roots and consequences of mid twentieth century Europe s great catastrophe Committing the Future to Memory Sarah Clift,2013-11-11 Whereas historical determinacy conceives the past as a complex and unstable network of causalities this book asks how history can be related to a more radical future To pose that question it does not reject determinacy outright but rather seeks to explore how it works In examining what it means to be determined by history it also asks what kind of openings there might be in our encounters with history for interruptions re readings and re writings Engaging texts spanning multiple genres and several centuries from John Locke to Maurice Blanchot from Hegel to Benjamin Clift looks at experiences of time that exceed the historical narration of experiences said to have occurred in time She focuses on the co existence of multiple temporalities and opens up the quintessentially modern notion of historical succession to other possibilities The alternatives she draws out include the mediations of language and narration temporal leaps oscillations and blockages and the role played by contingency in representation She argues that such alternatives compel us to reassess the ways we understand history and identity in a traumatic or indeed in a post traumatic age Manifestos for History Sue Morgan,Keith Jenkins,Alun Munslow,2007-09-12 Manifestos for History is a thought provoking and controversial text that through a star studded collection of essays presents a wide ranging discussion of the nature and future of history in the twenty first century Genius After Psychoanalysis K. Daniel Cho,2024-10-17 Develops a new psychoanalytic theory of genius a concept that is often invoked and pervasive in popular culture but which is rarely scrutinized in depth In the absence of this scrutiny genius has come to be understood as exceptional talent or intelligence an elitist notion Genius After Psychoanalysis intervenes in this debate by offering a new account of genius Drawing on the work of Sigmund Freud and Jacques Lacan K Daniel Cho argues that genius is not exceptional talent or intelligence but is related to and illuminated by the psychological concept of sublimation where the unpleasures that arise when our intellectual products fail become themselves pleasurable Beginning with a close examination of Freud s work on Leonardo da Vinci Cho analyzes film art our relationship to nature politics group psychology love and philosophy to demonstrate that genius far from an elitist notion is universally available through a different approach to ideas of imperfection disappointment and failure Genius After Psychoanalysis is a bold new intervention on a culturally central but understudied topic The Future of Memory Richard Crownshaw,Jane Kilby,Antony Rowland,2010-11-01 Memory studies has become a rapidly growing area of scholarly as well as public interest This volume brings together world experts to explore the current critical trends in this new academic field It embraces work on diverse but interconnected phenomena such as twenty first century museums shocking memorials in present day Rwanda and the firsthand testimony of the victims of genocidal conflicts The collection engages with pressing real world issues such as the furor around the recent 9 11 memorial and what we really mean when we talk about trauma
