Travelling Communiqué Collectif:

Struggling for a Social Europe Andy Mathers, 2016-04-01 Protests at summit meetings have inspired intense debate over the nature and significance of the anti globalization or anti capitalist movement However the European dimension of this movement is still largely unknown In this insightful book Andy Mathers addresses this deficit by focusing on events that have marked the birth of a European social movement He relates the development of the movement to key matters such as economic employment and welfare state restructuring along neoliberal lines He also challenges ideas about the nature of contemporary collective action and the character of present day social movements Mathers discusses the significance of the movement and its future development through a critical engagement with the work of major writers in European sociology and of academics influential in the wider global movement such as Pierre Bourdieu A postscript brings readers fully up to date with developments in the type of social Europe propagated by the institutions of the EU as well as in the maturation of a social movement to oppose it Catalogue collectif des périodiques des bibliothèques gouvernementales du Québec Québec (Province). Evading International Norms Zoltán Búzás, 2021-01-01 How do states violate human rights norms after legalization Why are these violations so persistent What are the limits of legalization for protecting human rights norms Conventional wisdom offers a variety of answers to these questions but most often they conflate laws and norms and focus only on state actions that violate both While this focus is undoubtedly valuable it does not capture cases in which states violate human rights norms without technically violating the law Norm breakers are not necessarily lawbreakers Focusing exclusively on norm violations that are illegal obscures the possibility that agents could violate norms in a legal manner engaging in actions that are awful but lawful Presenting rich case studies of the French expulsion of Roma immigrants from 2007 to 2017 and the Czech segregation of Roma children in schools for those with mild mental disabilities between 1993 and 2017 Evading International Norms argues that the violation of human rights norms often continues after legalization under the cover of technical legality While laws and norms overlap interact and shape each other in many ways they tend to reflect each other only selectively which leads to the existence of norm law gaps Taking advantage of such gaps states resist unwanted human rights obligations by transgressing international human rights norms without violating the laws designed to protect them a process Zoltán Búzás names norm evasion Based on a wealth of evidence including more than 160 interviews the book shows that the treatment of the Roma by France and the Czech Republic violated the norm of racial equality in a technically legal fashion Búzás cautions that the good news about law compliance is not necessarily good news about norm compliance and draws attention to racial discrimination against the Roma one of the largest and most marginalized European minorities Travelling Communiqué Armin Linke, Project Group Travelling Communiqué, Vanessa Vasic-Janekovic, Sarah Poppel, 2016 The archive of the Photo Service of the President of the Socialist Federal Republic of Yugoslavia contains nearly 300 000 photographs documenting Josip Broz Tito's public and private activities from 1948 until his death in 1980 It is housed today in the Museum of Yugoslav History MYH in Belgrade In 2012 the MYH curatorial staff initiated Travelling Communiqué a title taken from the first conference of the Non Aligned Movement in Belgrade in September 1961 It represents an ongoing collective project that opened this summer to the public with an exhibition a summer school and a film programme The working journal is dedicated to the pioneering spirit of the Non Aligned Movement and to Tito's photo archive francophonie canadienne qu'aux artistes professionnels et aux diffuseurs qui y participent. Comme au sein du Centre national des Arts sous la direction artistique de Ren Cormier, cette biennale a donné lieu à un feu roulant d'activités inscrites dans un imaginaire collectif. Pour ouvrir le dialogue, un ensemble d'auteurs passionnés de théâtre ont accepté de se mettre à l'écoute de ce qui s'y passe, d'assister aux spectacles, de rencontrer des artistes et de creuser sur ses multiples dimensions. Ce dialogue qui entoure la création devient au fil des chapitres source motrice car il incite la réflexion et permet de mettre en évidence la manière dont une recherche qualitative interprétative peut être réalisée dans un contexte d'événement artistique.
