Victors Discovers Treasure Sharon Deur, 2022-05-14 Where do people search for treasure Deep underwater in old dusty mines in the mountains even under an old tree on a deserted island Pirates bad guys and even fun loving little boys bury treasure To find it you need a special treasure map The Bible is God s treasure map Our reward our gold is living in heaven with Him someday But sometimes we need help reading the map and understanding its mystery language When adults say light as a feather or strong as an ox we know what they mean It is very clear that something doesn t weigh very much or that it is very strong When the Bible speaks in mystery language it may not be so obvious Why are we called a pot a sheep or a branch Why is Jesus called a Potter a Shepherd a Vine or even a Ladder These 45 daily digs into God s Word give kids some of the clues and discoveries they need to reach life s reward their treasure with God the Father someday Since a donkey is mentioned more than 100 times in the Bible it is part of the fun and adventure to have Victor help us out Discovery involves searching exploring digging and finding something good The Bible is full of word treasure clues words that put a picture in our minds to make our journey on this earth a discovery of truth Adults call Bible word treasures metaphors similes and imagery It s called freedom language in Romans 6 19 from the Message Paul says I m using this freedom language because it is easy to picture After each daily dig there is a list of the Bible verses where the clues can be found BUT you have to Dig Deeper in the back of the book to find out exactly what those verses say The versions chosen enable young children to understand There is also an interactive activity that parents and grandparents can help with This book will cause children to smile laugh think and ponder But most of all they will discover the pathway to gold freedom language for Heaven Treasure of Daily Devotions Mary's Call,Benjamin Monnig,2019-07-17 This book of devotionals is meant to provide an avenue of prayerful attitude to put a meditative pause into the day to be a kind of incentive to holy consecration It is a handy little thing as pleasant a companion for the leisure of travel and of walks as it is for the business of the home and office Please do not judge each separate word too critically or count the possible repetition of sentiment are not all prayers in one sense characterized by a single dominant tone And please do not try to discover some emphasis which might be made a subject for dispute Surely prayer need not always be formally uttered always prefaced by an exalted address always followed by a dignified Amen Not always need we close our eyes and fold our hands Hymns have been sung in silence have they not And thank God there is such a thing as a constant consecration a praying without ceasing A Spiritual Exposition of the Old Testament ...
