Crossover Picturebooks Sandra L. Beckett, 2013-06-17 This book situates the picturebook genre within the widespread international phenomenon of crossover literature examining an international corpus of picturebooks including artists books wordless picturebooks and celebrity picturebooks that appeal to readers of all ages Focusing on contemporary picturebooks Sandra Beckett shows that the picturebook has traditionally been seen as a children's genre but in the eyes of many authors illustrators and publishers it is a narrative form that can address any and all age groups Innovative graphics and formats as well as the creative often complex dialogue between text and image provide multiple levels of meaning and invite readers of all ages to consider texts that are primarily marketed as children's books The interplay of text and image that distinguishes the picturebook from other forms of fiction and makes it a unique art form also makes it the ultimate crossover genre

Crossover picturebooks are often very complex texts that are challenging for adults as well as children Many are characterized by difficult adult themes genre blending metafictional discourse intertextuality sophisticated graphics and complex text image interplay Exciting experiments with new formats and techniques as well as novel interactions with new media and technologies have made the picturebook one of the most vibrant and innovative contemporary literary genres one that seems to know no boundaries Crossover Picturebooks is a valuable addition to the study of a genre that is gaining increasing recognition and appreciation and contributes significantly to the field of children's literature as a whole

The 5th Season: New year ku (books 1 & 2 of 4) Robin D. Gill, 2007 In this book the first of a series Robin D Gill author of the highly acclaimed Rise Ye Sea Slugs and Cherry Blossom Epiphany the largest single theme anthologies of poetry ever published explores the traditional Japanese New Year through 2 000 translated haiku mostly 17 20c The New Year R H Blyth once wrote is a season by itself That was nowhere so plain as in the world of haiku where saijiki large collections called of ku illustrating hundreds if not thousands of briefly explained seasonal themes generally comprised five volumes one for each season Yet the great doyen of haiku gave this fifth season considered the first season when it came at the head of the Spring rather than in mid winter only a tenth of the pages he gave to each of the other four seasons 20 vs 200 Was Blyth Zen enthusiast not enamored with ritual Or was he loath to translate the New Year with its many cultural idiosyncrasies most common to the Sinosphere but not to the West because he did not want to have to explain the haiku It is hard to say but with these poems for the re creation of the world Robin D Gill aka keigu respect foolishness or respect fool rushes in where even Blyth feared to tread to give this supernatural or cosmological season one that combines aspects of the Solstice Christmas New Year s Easter July 4th and the Once Upon a Time of Fairy Tales the attention it deserves With G K Chesterton s words evoking the mind of the haiku poets of old the author publisher leaves further description of the content to his reader reviewers The man standing in his own kitchen garden with the fairyland opening at the gate is the man with large ideas His mind creates distance the motor car stupidly destroys it G K Chesterton Heretics 1905 Season It With Fun! Diane Hodges,2010-02-26 True to form Hodges once again provides administrators with superb ways to support and encourage a wonderful nurturing culture in our buildings The beginning of the year is the perfect time to have fun as you welcome staff back and greet new staff members Though these activities are enjoyable their underlying purpose is important one of collaboration respect trust and getting to know one another The author offers numerous opportunities for faculties of all sizes to interact with one another throughout the year For new and experienced administrators this book is a treasure chest of ideas just waiting to be opened Tess W Blumenthal Principal Valley Elementary School Jefferson MD Hodges shares very practical and innovative ideas for making fun of the hard work we do Her ideas will be used with our administrative council to motivate and reward them for what they do and to model how they can take these ideas back to their own staff I ll be buying this book for each of them as a back to school gift for their professional libraries Julie Germann Assistant Superintendent Monett R 1 School District MO Create a fun inspiring climate that motivates staff members the year round In this exciting new resource Diane Hodges best selling author of Looking Forward to Monday Morning and Looking Forward to MORE Monday Mornings offers a wealth of ideas strategies and tips for creating a positive rewarding and fun school climate Based on research findings that identify educator needs along with a collection of ideas from educators throughout the U S and Canada the book provides positive spirited approaches to help principals and school administrators create a nurturing culture where staff members are encouraged and appreciated for all that they do Organized around the seasons this reader friendly guide includes Preparation plans for the new school year Fun campus and community events that prompt everyone to get involved Seasonal activities songs and tips for celebrating special holidays and occasions End of the year reflections and rewards Unique original artwork by John Speeter that highlights important ideas and concepts Spark staff members enthusiasm and boost campus morale every day by incorporating proven techniques that will revitalize the spirit of your entire school community What in God's Name Are You Eating Andrew Francis,2015-02-26 How you eat affects the planet and everyone else on it What you eat might literally cost the earth It also has implications for your health for the grower or producer and for the way you think about the world What in God s Name Are You Eating faces what many of us choose to ignore in the Western world we as adults have allowed a childlike innocence to mask the real cost of the environment in which we are cocooned while thousands elsewhere find themselves drought stricken and starving What in God s name are they not eating Enough is the simple answer and we are part of the reason why The price of life as we know it is high To those of us who have life there is a moral imperative to enable others to share it rather than suppress them With its advocacy of a globally responsibly discipleship What in God s Name Are You Eating enables us to see how the world s peoples can have life and a long future While the reflection is rooted in radical Mennonite Christianity the challenge is to those of faith and those of none The Horn Book Guide to Children's and Young Adult Books ,2003 The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross,William Shawn,Tina Brown,David Remnick,Katharine Sergeant Angell White,Rea Irvin,Roger Angell,1929 Backpacker ,2000-10 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader s doorstep inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often The authority on active adventure Backpacker is the world s first GPS enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails camping gear and survival tips they publish Backpacker s Editors Choice Awards an industry honor recognizing design feature and product innovation has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured New York Magazine ,1985-01-14 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Everything Guide to Informational Texts, K-2 Kathy H. Barclay,Laura Stewart,Deborah M. Lee,2014-02-20 Do monarch butterflies have a nose a kindergartener inquires Does it rain on the moon a first grader wonders Does a white shark really produce 30 million teeth asks a second grader These incisive critical quests for additional knowledge about the world are precisely what children do when the Common Core State Standards for informational texts go right in K 2 And with The Everything Guide to Informational Texts the Common Core will go right in K 2 Authors Kathy Barclay and Laura Stewart have written the book that teachers like you have been pleading for a resource that delivers the what I need to know Monday through Friday to engage kids in a significant amount of informational text reading experiences No filler no lofty ideals about college and career readiness but instead the information on how to find lesson worthy texts and create developmentally appropriate instructional plans that truly help young readers comprehend grade level texts What you ll love most The how to s on selecting stellar informational texts High impact comprehension strategies for nonfiction Suggestions on providing sufficient challenge in guided reading read alouds and other practices Model text lessons and lesson plan templates across each grade An annotated list of 449 informational texts for read alouds guided reading and independent reading It s time to bring in to our classrooms all the high quality informational texts that are available It s time to demonstrate to students how to read them and to allow the authors of these children s texts to take readers into rich complex ideas they can handle with our support If ever there were a book to quell our concern about how Common Core expectations will play out in grades K 2 this is it Children's Literature Abstracts ,1999 Kinetic Atmospheres Johannes Birringer,2021-11-21 This book offers a sustained and deeply experiential pragmatic study of performance environments here defined at unstable emerging and multisensational atmospheres open to interactions and travels in augmented virtualities Birringer s writings challenge common assumptions about embodiment and the digital exploring and refining artistic research into physical movement behavior gesture sensing perception cognition and trans sensory hallucination If landscapes are autobiographical and atmospheres prompt us to enter blurred lines of a forest knowledge where light shade and darkness entangle us in foraging mediations of contaminated diversity then such sensitization to elemental environments requires a focus on processual interaction Provocative chapters probe various types of performance scenarios and immersive architectures of the real and the virtual They break new ground in analyzing an extended choreographic the building of hypersensorial scenographies that include a range of materialities as well as bodily and metabodily presences Foregrounding his notion of kinetic atmospheres the author intimates a technosomatic theory of dance performance and ritual processes while engaging in a vivid cross cultural dialogue with some of the leading digital and theatrical artists worldwide This poetic meditation will be of great interest to students and scholars in theatre performing arts as well as media arts practitioners composers programmers and designers
