Wits Prospectus 2015:

Global University Rankings and the Mediatization of Higher Education Michelle Stack, 2016-04-12 Higher Education Institutions simultaneously critique and participate in national and international rankings of universities However this creates a difficult situation since if universities do participate in rankings they acquiesce to a system based in media logics that has little to do with academic norms of research If they do not participate in the rankings they risk losing public funding students and donors in an increasingly competitive and globalized environment This book delves into the influence of journalists business tycoons and multinational corporations in defining what world class is and how it will be measured Rankings provide us with a rich study for understanding how universities define deploy and manage their assets and liabilities in a mediatized globalized economy Global Business Transformation Richa Goel, Chitra Krishnan, KDV Prasad, Payyazhi Jayashree, Grace McCarthy, 2025-09-08 Many contemporary business models are now completely based on the idea of a circular economy or sustainability where they extensively use technology to save resources become more efficient and leave a smaller carbon footprint on the planet Thus this book aims to bring the discussion of global business transformation which is a need of the hour to the forefront and highlight the use of modern technology in actively aiding businesses to become more sustainable Global Business Transformation Innovation Technology and Sustainability showcases the emerging economy context where innovation and technology are extensively used for business transformation to achieve the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs It serves as a comprehensive resource to study the different dimensions of technology such as AI data mining and machine learning from businesses that utilize disruptive technology to achieve sustainability The book addresses a variety of challenges in the pursuit of global business transformation which policymakers and experts at all levels of society need to understand well It also provides an outline of the most pertinent issues and effects that Industry 4.0 is expected to bring to global organizations in the near future and highlights the role of government in streamlining the alignment between SDGs and technology during strategic business transformations globally It further analyses the possible implications for international business practice and theory and examines the wider repercussions on employment development and ethics Apart from being a valuable resource for researchers students and professionals involved in the corporate business manufacturing and industrial engineering sectors this book will also be of interest to those in fields related to economics psychology management strategy political science government bodies sociology NGOs and other industrial organizations Artefacts of Writing Peter D. McDonald, 2017-10-11 Some forms of literature interfere with the workings of the literate brain posing a challenge to readers of all kinds including professional literary critics In Artefacts of Writing Peter D McDonald argues they pose as much of a challenge to the way states conceptualise language culture and community Drawing on a wealth of evidence from Victorian scholarly disputes over the identity of the English language to the constitutional debates about its future in Ireland India and South Africa and from the quarrels over the idea of culture within the League of Nations in the interwar years to UNESCO's ongoing struggle to articulate a viable concept of diversity McDonald brings together a large ensemble of legacy writers including T S Eliot James Joyce and Rabindranath Tagore putting them in dialogue with each other and with the policy makers who shaped the formation of modern states and the history of internationalist thought from the 1860s to the 1940s In the second part of the book he reflects on the continuing evolution of these dialogues showing how a varied array of more contemporary writers from Amit Chaudhuri J M Coetzee and Salman Rushdie to Antjie Krog Arvind Krishna Mehrotra and Es'kia Mphahlele cast new light on a range of questions concerning education literacy human rights translation indigenous knowledge and cultural diversity that have preoccupied UNESCO since 1945 At once a novel contribution to institutional and intellectual history and an innovative exercise in literary and philosophical analysis Artefacts of Writing affords a unique perspective on literature's place at the centre of some of the most fraught often lethal public controversies that defined the long twentieth century and that continue to haunt us today

The changing spaces of television acting Richard Hewett, 2017-08-17 This book provides a historical overview and then a comparison of performing for British television drama By examining changing acting styles from distinct eras of television production studio realism and location realism it makes a unique contribution to both television and performance studies unpacking the various determinants that have combined to influence how performers work in the medium The book compares the original versions of The Quatermass Experiment BBC 1953 Doctor Who BBC 1963-89 and Survivors BBC 1975-77 with their respective modern day re-makes unpacking the effects of the shift from multi-camera studio to single-camera location production Textual analysis is combined with extensive archival research into production process and reception alongside interviews with numerous actors and production personnel from more than sixty years of television production

Changing Our Worlds Michelle LeBaron, Janis Sarra, 2018-07-03 Changing Our Worlds draws on the wisdom of African artists theorists educators and leaders It profiles an array of transformative arts projects that among other things changed attitudes and behaviours toward HIV testing and prevention helped rural citizens to design and build a new community centre and supported those with HIV/AIDS to strengthen their resilience As a group of scholar-practitioners collaborating on the book reinforced our confidence in the potency of arts practices to unsettle unjust orders inspire new visions and embrace the human dignity that comes from acknowledging the interdependent world in which we live

Hans Christian Andersen in American Literary Criticism of the Nineteenth Century Herbert Rowland, 2020-11-03 In Hans Christian Andersen in American Literary Criticism of the Nineteenth Century Herbert Rowland argues that the literary criticism accompanying the publication of Hans Christian Andersen's works in the United States compares favorably in scope perceptiveness and chronological coverage with the few other national receptions of Andersen outside of Denmark Rowland contends that American commentators made it abundantly evident that in addition to his fairy tales Andersen wrote several novels travelogues and an autobiography which were all of more than common interest In the process Rowland shows that American commentators naturalized Andersen in the United States by confronting the sensationalism in the journalism and literature of the time with the perceived wholesomeness of Andersen's writing deploying his long fiction on both sides of the debate over the nature and relative value of the romance and the novel and drawing on three of his works to support their positions on slavery the Civil War and Reconstruction
