Wolf Fold Judith Clarke:

Wolf on the Fold Judith Clarke, 2002-01-01 Winner 2001 Children s Book Council of Australia Book of the Year Award for Older Readers Winner 2001 Arts Queensland Steele Rudd Australian Short Story Award Kenny is fourteen His dad has just died and to keep the family together Kenny must find work Be careful going through the flatlands his mother warns him Don t stop for anyone But Kenny does stop and what happens next will define the man he becomes a beautifully crafted thoughtful and rewarding book Viewpoint to be read and re read Australian Book Review This book bridges generations races and countries showing that emotions are universal and fear exists in many forms it all rings true Magpies Clarke reminds us that history is about people and that the consequences can ripple on for years Guardian Education The Winds of

Heaven Judith Clarke, 2012-05-01 When Fan was little she dreamed of magical countries in the far away blue hills As she grew up she dreamed of love and the boys came after her one by one Clementine thought her cousin Fan s house in the country had a special smell of sun and dust and kerosene and the wild honey they ate for breakfast on their toast But then there were the feelings the anger that smelled like iron and the disappointment that smelled like mud Still Fan was strong and beautiful and Clementine thought she d always be like that But Fan was seeking something and neither she nor Clementine knew exactly what With sharp poetic prose insight and compassion Judith Clarke tells a moving and beautiful story as she traces the lives of two young women separated by circumstance but linked forever by blood and friendship Brimming with tenderness and intrigue a moving story about how friendships can shape lives Sunday Age Judith Clarke s writing shines every page contains something worth savouring Australian Book Review Moving and beautifully written a haunting story Sydney Morning Herald Bush, City, Cyberspace John Foster, Ern Finniss, Maureen Nimmo, 2005-06-01 Aimed at academic professional and general readers Bush city cyberspace provides a snapshot of the state of Australian children s and adolescent literature in the early twenty first century and an insight into its history In doing so it promotes a sense of where Australian literature for young people may be going and captures a literary and critical mood with which readers in Australia and beyond will identify The title of the work is intended to capture the fact that the field has changed dramatically in the century and a half that Australian children s literature has existed from the bush myths and heroism that inform the past and the present through the recognition that the vast majority of authors and readers live in cities to the third wave of cyberliterature that incorporates multimedia hypertext weblinks and e books none of which lessens the enduring enthusiasm of practitioners and readers for books Bush city cyberspace is not meant to be an encyclopedic volume Rather well known recent and or award winning works have been emphasised with the addition of others where these help to illuminate particular points The book is similar in coverage and approach to Australian Children s Literature An Exploration of Genre and Theme written by the same three authors and published by the Centre for Information Studies in 1995 In the intervening period much has changed in the field notable examples including the blurring of the dividing line between quality and popular literature the blending of genres the rise of a truly indigenous literature the demise to a significant extent of Outbackery in fiction the acceptance of multiculturalism as the norm and the advent of the literature of cyberspace with new methods and the sheer speed of communication between writer and reader All these trends and others are reflected in this work
