Unwind Online:

Play and Health in Childhood Julia Whitaker, Alison Tonkin, 2023-09-08 Taking a rights based approach to the interdependence of play and health in childhood this text argues that the child's right to health and development cannot be satisfied without also the fulfillment of their right to play Underpinned by theory and real life case stories drawn from practice and family life Whitaker and Tonkin present what is known about the benefits of play and its potential to address the pressing health needs in the short and long terms of the youngest generation They define and discuss the concepts of childhood play health and human rights before exploring how play interacts with the four fundamental principles of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child non discrimination best interests life survival and development and inclusion and participation The book then investigates how practitioners can advocate for the child's right to play to meet all their health and development needs It presents numerous examples of best practice from a range of settings including hospitals schools community initiatives charities families and more and incorporates the voices of children as they imagine a future in which play is elevated to a central position in their lives allowing for the achievement of lifelong health and happiness Exploring children's rights from a practical perspective this accessible book is essential reading for students and practitioners in healthcare social work community work early years and education

Writers' Handbook 2014 J. Paul Dyson, 2013-08-16 This indispensable guide for writers provides details of hundreds of literary agents book publishers and magazines including contact details types of material accepted and how to approach them Subject indexes for each area provide easy access to the markets you need with specific lists for everything from romance publishers to poetry magazines to literary agents interested in thrillers It also provides unparalleled access to international markets The internet has made the publishing industry more global than ever with markets increasingly accepting submissions by email some no longer accept postal submissions at all Other directories have failed to respond to this continuing to focus on one single country but this directory provides you with that all important access to overseas opportunities that are now just an email away And by focusing exclusively on what's important to writers contact details for literary agents publishers and magazines this directory is able to provide more listings at a lower price There are no adverts no advertorials and no unnecessary articles or obscure listings padding out hundreds of pages Two established alternative directories both run to over 800 pages yet one has only 204 pages of publisher agent and magazine listings and the other has only 10 pages devoted to literary agent listings This book does better on both counts and yet remains substantially cheaper than either alternative The book also allows you to create a subscription to the firstwriter.com website for free until 2015 This means you can get free access to the firstwriter.com website where you can find even more listings and also benefit from other features such as advanced searches daily email updates feedback from users about the markets featured saved searches competitions listings searchable personal notes and more
