Working the System Qiliang He, 2023-01-03 In Working the System Motion Picture Filmmakers and Subjectivities in Mao Era China 1949 1966 Qiliang He inquired into the making of the new citizenry in Mao era China 1949 1976 by studying five preeminent Shanghai based filmmakers These case studies shed light on how individuals subjectivities took shape in the cinematic arena under a new sociopolitical system after 1949 He suggests that a filmmaker's subjectivity was not fixed or stable but constantly in flux requiring a host of subjectivizing practices to re shape and consolidate it These filmmakers endeavored to reap maximal benefits from Mao's sociopolitical system and minimize the disadvantages that would make them victims under the system In short Qiliang He argues that the filmmakers not only worked under the socialist system imposed upon them but also worked the system in their best interests Through five chosen filmmakers creative control and their negotiation of their professional status within China's newly adopted socialist system the author presents a compelling case that illustrates how individual filmmakers constantly adjusted themselves professionally and ideologically to survive in a fast changing industry and a highly politicized society Lin Feng University of Leicester This book is a strong example of how much more we can learn about Mao era Chinese culture if we approach it less as alien due to Cold War prejudices and instead think of artists as creating under professional constraints in China just as they do everywhere Jason McGrath University of Minnesota Popular Mechanics Magazine, 1922
