Up from Slavery Booker T. Washington, 1925 REAL. Vol. 1 Herbert Grabes, H. J. Diller, Hans Bungert, 2020-05-18 No detailed description available for GRABES REAL VOL 1 REAL E BOOK From Behind the Veil Robert B. Stepto, 1991 This pioneering study of Afro American narrative is far more critical historical and textual than biographical chronological and atextual Robert Stepto asserts that Afro American culture has its store of canonical stories or pregeneric myths the primary one being the quest for freedom and literacy This second edition includes a new preface and an afterward entitled Distrust of the Reader in Afro American Narratives The American Friend ,1901 African American History Day by Day Karen Juanita Carrillo, 2012-08-22 The proof of any group s importance to history is in the detail a fact made plain by this informative book s day by day documentation of the impact of African Americans on life in the United States One of the easiest ways to grasp any aspect of history is to look at it as a continuum African American History Day by Day A Reference Guide to Events provides just such an opportunity Organized in the form of a calendar this book allows readers to see the dates of famous births deaths and events that have affected the lives of African Americans and by extension of America as a whole Each day features an entry with information about an important event that occurred on that date Background on the highlighted event is provided along with a link to at least one primary source document and references to books and websites that can provide more information While there are other calendars of African American history this one is set apart by its level of academic detail It is not only a calendar but also an easy to use reference and learning tool Index to the Periodicals of 1890-1902 The Review of reviews, 1902 Up from Slavery (EasyRead Super Large 18pt Edition) Booker T. Washington, 1945 Up From Slavery Booker T. Washington, 2022-07-19 For those interested in the history of slavery and the American Civil War Up from Slavery is the autobiography from American educator Booker T Washington in which he describes his experiences of living as an enslaved child during the Civil War Washington overcame many obstacles to get an education and throughout his autobiography he gratefully reflects on the help of his teachers and philanthropists who helped educate Black and Native Americans The autobiography was a best seller much to do with its honest and historically significant depiction of the struggles that Washington faced If you are eager to know more about the history of slavery Sojourner Truth s Narrative of Sojourner Truth will provide great insight into being a slave in the North Booker T Washington was born into slavery in Virginia in 1856 He is regarded as one of the foremost African American leaders of the late 19th century and founded the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute in 1881 He became a teacher after the Civil War and was also a political adviser and writer Washington s mother Jane worked as a cook for a plantation owner and his father was an unknown white man most likely from a nearby plantation From a young age Washington worked carrying sacks of grain to the plantations mill Despite the sacks weighing around 100 pounds and being too heavy for a young boy he was often beaten for not working to a high enough standard After the Civil War Washington and his mother moved to West Virginia where she married a freedman The family was very poor and nine year old Washington went to work in the nearby salt furnaces instead of going to school He then worked as a houseboy for the wife of a local coal mine owner She recognised his desire for education and allowed him to go to school for an hour a day during the winter months He died in November 1915 at the age of 59 of congestive heart failure Index to the Periodicals of ..., 1902 The Riverside Dictionary of Biography American Heritage Dictionary, 2005 Publisher Description The Home Voices Speak Louder Than the Drums Wanda Easter Burch, 2017-05-15 Soldier mortals would not survive if they were not blessed with the gift of imagination and the pictures of hope wrote Confederate Private Henry Graves in the trenches outside Petersburg Virginia The second angel of mercy is the night dream Providing fresh perspective on the human side of the Civil War this book explores the dreams and imaginings of those who fought it as recorded in their letters journals and memoirs Sometimes published as poems or songs or printed in newspapers these rarely acknowledged writings reflect the personalities and experiences of their authors Some expressions of fear pain loss homesickness and disappointment are related with grim fatalism some with glimpses of humor

Narratives of Dislocation in the Arab World Nadeen Dakkak, 2023-03-08 This monograph explores and investigates narratives of physical psychological and emotional dislocation that take place within the Arab world approaching them as manifestations of the Arabic word ghurba or estrangement as a feeling and state of being Distancing itself from the centrality of the West in postcolonial and Arabic literary studies the book explores experiences of migration displacement and cosmopolitanism that do not directly ensue from the encounter with Europe or the European other Covering texts from the Levant Egypt the Arabian Peninsula and beyond from the 19th 20th and 21st centuries the book grounds narratives of dislocation in the political social and cultural structures that affect the everyday lived experiences of individuals and communities An analysis of Arabic Turkish and English texts encompassing fiction memoirs and translations highlights less visible narratives of ghurba specifically amongst ethnic minorities and religious communities Ultimately the chapters contribute to a picture of the Arab world as a place of ghurba where mobile and immobile subjects foreigners and local inhabitants alike encounter alienation Bringing together a diverse range of academic perspectives the book will be of interest to students and scholars in postcolonial and comparative literary studies history and Arabic and Middle East studies
