Urban Ministry In A New Millenium:

Urban Ministry in a New Millennium David Claerbaut, 2005 Urban Ministry in a New Millennium is both a practical and academic book dealing with Christian ministry in an urban context It provides an intelligible analysis of the city in all its complexity and then moves in the direction of showing realistic ministry models for the city The important historical perspective is provided in order to better examine the current context of globalization and regentrification on the city the church and urban ministry This contemporary socially and spiritually sensitive book is applicable to seminarians parachurch workers and first entry people as well as those more deeply rooted academically and personally in the urban milieu

Missions in a New Millennium W. Edward Glenny, William H. Smallman, What does the changing face of missions look like What challenges will appear in the years to come A number of key missionaries mission agency leaders seminary professors and pastors present insightful presentations of missions past and present seeking to revitalize the future of world evangelism Urban Ministry Ronald E. Peters, 2011-07-01 A comprehensive introduction to the particular challenges and opportunities of congregational ministry in urban settings Urban ministry has long been a part of seminary curricula but a basic and definitive understanding of what students should know as they prepare for congregational ministry in the city has remained elusive Too often it is assumed that the theological resources developed for ministry in other settings are adequate for urban ministry but these resources fail to account for the unique challenges and opportunities of the urban setting Ronald Peters clarifies the nature of urban ministry as a theological discipline by showing how its core values of love justice community and reconciliation among others engage the issues of economics education family life public health ethnic relations and religious life in the urban environment Arguing that the city has always served as an arena of God s activity Peters articulates a theological rationale for urban ministry that is both hopeful and yet realistic affirming that God loves the city and its people and encouraging practitioners to do the same

Priesthood in a New Millennium R. David Cox, 2004 This important book examines priestly identity as it has evolved within Anglicanism over the last 15 years including the ways in which the once nearly synonymous terms English and Anglican diverged over the years In the process the author delineates an intellectual and social history of modern Anglicanism Urban Impact John L. Thompson, 2010-10-26 Half of the population of the world lives in cities of one million or more If we don t reach and disciple from these masses our future missionary and pastoral force will be diminished The book Urban Impact is a trumpet call to muster our forces but also deals with the philosophy and practical principles that make any ministry in the city successful Brandishing a practical writing style coupled with real life experiences John Thompson helps the reader understand the problems burdens joys and powerful impact cities have on the rest of society Helping the city pastor or missionary develop an effective ministry Thompson elaborates on seven critical principles necessary for an effective urban ministry Following this discussion the book turns to two of the leading challenges of great cities The first being how to reach the disenfranchised those from minority groups people who have substance abuse problems and the homeless to name but a few The second challenge deals with one of the greatest foundational problems in our cities and in all of society the plight of the Absent Father Other chapters address urban discipleship as the most effective approach to promote life transformation planting churches in the difficult urban environment and a topic rarely discussed in urban books raising a family in the city

Hopeful Realism in Urban Ministry Barry K. Morris, 2016-05-20 What pray tell does a faithful urban ministry require if not a triadic relationship of prayer justice and hope Could such a theologically conjunctive relationship of prayer justice and hope fortify urban ministry and challenge students and practitioners to ponder and practice beyond the box Frequently justice is collapsed to charity hope into wishful thinking or temporarily arrested despair and prayer a grasp at quick fix interventions An urban ministry's steadfast public and prophetic witness longs for the depth and width of this triad Via three countries decades of endeavors one chapter brainstorms urban ministry practices while another's literature survey signals crucial convictions Amid many seminal theologians are summoned to ground urban ministry intimations and implications Niebuhr on justice Moltmann on hope and Merton on contemplative prayer Evident is passion that fuels compassion in the service of justice hope that engages despair and prayer that draws from the contemplative center of it all thankful resources for long haul ministry The triad presses to illumine a concrete ministry's engagement of relentless forced option issues yet with significant networks resourcing Contrast awareness animates endurance The summary exegetes the original grace based serenity prayer Hence hope vitally balances realism's temptation to cynicism Realism saves hope from irrelevancy

Building a People of Power Robert C. Linthicum, 2015-09-15 Jesus never intended the church to become an institution he intended it to be a people of power transforming the world Power is the capacity ability and the willingness to act Most people and systems use power to dominate and control but others have used it relationally to liberate transform and even save Built around a biblical exploration of shalom Building a People of Power explains how local churches can use power to transform their communities and their cities Detailed power strategies are presented enabling churches to build productive relationships to address the primary issues of people they serve and to develop strong leaders faithful organizations and redeemed neighborhoods that live out shalom

Greenlee,2007-01-03 A look at the reality of conversion in our present political and cultural world The Mirage Shall Become a Pool Ondrej Hron,2012-11-01 Few things are as important as our notions of justice and mercy Yet how are we to make sense of our moral treatment of the poor given all the political philosophical and theological voices While Christian Scripture is not silent on the matters of social justice and charity even here our variously conditioned presuppositions cause us significant interference Only a careful hermeneutical reset can move us beyond our personal and cultural situatedness This requires a thorough exploration of both interpretative strategies and pertinent scriptural witnesses So how would the New Testament witness have us treat the materially needy How do we act justly and love mercy in walking humbly with our God Reaching the City Gary Fujino,Timothy R. Street Signs David P. Leong, 2012-07-01 This research explores the cultural and theological complexities within the urban context as some of the most prominent societal realities shaping our cities today Cities represent the convergence of identities industries and ideologies in a dynamic urban ecosystem of pluralism and globalization Far more than just the incidental built environment that houses such phenomena the city is a living breathing organism with vital systems and infrastructure that function as a means of sustenance for its inhabitants Ultimately cities are a cultural reflection of our common humanity in all of its beauty and depravity More specifically this work critically examines the cultural and theological significance of the urban context as an exercise in missiological contextualization Through a dialectical exploration of the locality of Seattle's Rainier Valley and the universality of the street corner three different lenses are used to examine the intersection of faith and culture in the city First through developing a missional theology of cultural engagement the themes of incarnation confrontation and imagination inform a theological posture that is conversant with urbanism Second an interdisciplinary method of urban exegesis that synthesizes the symbolic systems of urban semiotics and the missional theology of cultural exegesis is applied to particular settings in Seattle's Rainier Valley as a form of observing and interpreting urban communities Third an urban contextual theology that is situated in an environment of physical density social diversity and economic disparity emphasizes the necessity of engaging the city with theologies of place neighbor and community In an effort to equip and empower the church and others to engage the city as thoughtful missional people this research seeks to cultivate a combination of critical observational skills in the urban context and a constructive understanding of the holistic Christian mission among the poor and disenfranchised in our urban communities From the street corner in the ghetto to newly gentrified enclaves of hipsters street signs are all around us they point us in the right direction toward deeper understanding alert us to the presence of injustice on the horizon and draw our attention to the redemptive beauty of the city that is revealed in the light of the gospel
