Urban Outcasts A Comparative Sociology Of Advanced Marginality:

Urban Outcasts Loïc Wacquant, 2008 This volume draws on a wealth of original fieldwork surveys and historical data to show that the state of America's urban core is due to the public policies of segregation and abandonment City of Extremes Martin J. Murray, 2011-06-20 A powerful critique of urban development in greater Johannesburg since the end of apartheid in 1994 Issues in Urban Policy and Planning: 2011 Edition, 2012-01-09 Issues in Urban Policy and Planning 2011 Edition is a ScholarlyEditions eBook that delivers timely authoritative and comprehensive information about Urban Policy and Planning The editors have built Issues in Urban Policy and Planning 2011 Edition on the vast information databases of ScholarlyNews You can expect the information about Urban Policy and Planning in this eBook to be deeper than what you can access anywhere else as well as consistently reliable authoritative informed and relevant The content of Issues in Urban Policy and Planning 2011 Edition has been produced by the world's leading scientists engineers analysts research institutions and companies All of the content is from peer reviewed sources and all of it is written assembled and edited by the editors at ScholarlyEditions and available exclusively from us You now have a source you can cite with authority confidence and credibility More information is available at <http://www.ScholarlyEditions.com> Urban Outcasts Loïc J. D. Wacquant, 2008 Critical Security Studies in the Digital Age Joseph Downing, 2023-01-23 This book demonstrates that the disciplinary boundaries present within international relations approaches to security studies are redundant when examining social media and inter and multi disciplinary analysis is key A key result of the analysis undertaken is that when examining the social media sphere security scholars need to expect the unexpected This is because social media enables users to subvert contest and create security narratives with symbols and idioms of their choice which can take into account traditional security themes but also unexpected and under explored themes such as narratives from the local context of the users towns and cities and the symbolism of football clubs The book also explores the complex topography of social media when considering constructions of security The highly dynamic topography of social media is neither elite dominated and hierarchical as the Copenhagen School conceptualises security speak However neither is it completely flat and egalitarian as suggested by the vernacular security studies non elite approach Rather social media's topography is shifting and dynamic with individuals gaining influence in security debates in unpredictable ways In examining social media this book engages with the emancipatory burden of critical security studies This book argues that it remains unfulfilled on social media and rather presents a thin notion of discursive emancipation where social media does provide the ability for previously excluded voices to participate in security debates even if this does not result in their direct emancipation from power hierarchies and structures offline French Muslims in Perspective Joseph Downing, 2019-05-24 With the largest Muslim population in Western Europe France has faced a number of critiques in its attempts to assimilate Muslims into an ostensibly secular but predominantly Catholic state and society This book challenges traditional analyses that emphasise the conflict between

Muslims and the French state and broader French society by exploring the intersection of Muslim faith with other identities as well as the central roles of Muslims in French civil society politics and the media The tensions created by attacks on French soil by Islamic State have contributed to growing acceptance of the Islamophobic discourse of Marine Le Pen and her far right Front National party and debates about issues such as headscarves and burkinis have garnered worldwide attention Downing addresses these issues from a new angle eschewing the traditional us and them narrative and offering a more nuanced account based on people s actual lived experiences French Muslims in Perspective will be of interest to students and scholars across sociology politics international relations cultural studies European Studies and French studies as well as policy makers and practitioners involved in immigration education and media

The Invention of the 'Underclass' Loïc Wacquant, 2022-01-28 At century's close American social scientists policy analysts philanthropists and politicians became obsessed with a fearsome and mysterious new group said to be ravaging the ghetto the urban underclass Soon the scarecrow category and its demonic imagery were exported to the United Kingdom and continental Europe and agitated the international study of exclusion in the postindustrial metropolis In this punchy book Loïc Wacquant retraces the invention and metamorphoses of this racialized folk devil from the structural conception of Swedish economist Gunnar Myrdal to the behavioral notion of Washington think tank experts to the neo ecological formulation of sociologist William Julius Wilson He uncovers the springs of the sudden irruption accelerated circulation and abrupt evaporation of the underclass from public debate and reflects on the implications for the social epistemology of urban marginality What accounts for the lemming effect that drew a generation of scholars of race and poverty over a scientific cliff What are the conditions for the formation and bursting of conceptual speculative bubbles What is the role of think tanks journalism and politics in imposing turnkey problematics upon social researchers What are the special quandaries posed by the naming of dispossessed and dishonored populations in scientific discourse and how can we reformulate the explosive question of race to avoid these troubles Answering these questions constitutes an exacting exercise in epistemic reflexivity in the tradition of Bachelard Canguilhem and Bourdieu and it issues in a clarion call for social scientists to defend their intellectual autonomy against the encroachments of outside powers be they state officials the media think tanks or philanthropic organizations Compact meticulous and forcefully argued this study in the politics of social science knowledge will be of great interest to students and scholars in sociology anthropology urban studies ethnic studies geography intellectual history the philosophy of science and public policy At the Forest Edges of the City Bettina Stoetzer, 2011

2030, War Zone Amsterdam, 2009 Amsterdam at war in 2030 This terrifying projection into the future serves to sharpen and expand our thinking about topics such as tolerance fear security and control censorship public space and urban politics Neither naming the enemy nor proffering any answers theorists and artists fire off questions and sketch experimental scenarios using Amsterdam as a concrete case as well as a strange attractor What are the implications of urban warfare in a Western city Is there a public domain under such circumstances and how does it function Will people still be producing art and how will artists reach their public 2030 War zone Amsterdam is being produced in association with curator Brigitte van der Sande and accompanies an international art manifestation that she is organizing under the same title presented in various phases from November 2009 onwards in Amsterdam Researching Race Hasmita Ramji, 2009 Social sciences
