Democracy Moving Ariel Nereson, 2022-01-20 On the 200th anniversary of Abraham Lincoln's birth renowned choreographer and director Bill T Jones developed three tributes Serenade The Proposition 100 Migrations and Fondly Do We Hope Fervently Do We Pray These widely acclaimed dance works incorporated video and audio text from Lincoln's writings as they examined key moments in his life and his enduring legacy Democracy Moving explores how these works provided both an occasion and a method by which democracy and history might be reconceived through movement positioning dance as a form of both history and historiography The project addresses how different communities choose to commemorate historical figures events and places through art whether performance oratory song statuary or portraiture and in particular Black US American counter memorial practices that address histories of slavery Advancing the theory of oscillation as Black aesthetic praxis author Ariel Nereson celebrates Bill T Jones as a public intellectual whose practice has contributed to the project of understanding America s relationship to its troubled past The book features materials from Bill T Jones Arnie Zane Company s largely unexplored archive interviews with artists and photos that document this critical stage of Jones s career as it explores how aesthetics as ideas in action can imagine more just and equitable social formations
