 Mayette, 2011-10-26 Culturally we lack the training of an early age to be free thinkers We have become instead repeaters cookie cutter persons Thinking out of the box is so needed This is what prompted me to write this book Ive been there done that so know it well Children today say they are free thinkers yet there they stand before us all wanting and dressing alike It may help the economy but it certainly is not free thinking It likely is different than what Mom and Dad ascribe but its still about others thinking How did we get to where we are We are all responsible for it So lets together not recreate the past and go forward with creativity and process out of the box ideas and thinking Develop questioning what was and liberate ourselves

What People Believe When They Say That People Believe Todd Jones, 2010-10-26 In modern life we often hear people say things like Catholics don't believe in using birth control There are many reasons that we want to know what groups of people such as Catholics are thinking and doing But it's hard to understand which social situations are being described by such statements It's also difficult to understand what speakers believe when they make such statements even when the speakers are social scientists In this work cognitive scientist and philosopher Todd Jones looks at the different things that social scientists and ordinary speakers mean when they make statements ascribing beliefs or actions to groups rather than individuals Such statements are often denigrated as mere stereotypes or generalizations Yet they are also used by people to strategize about what actions to take and even for social scientific explanations In this work Jones takes a detailed look at the different things these kinds of statements about groups can mean and the various social structures they correspond to He also looks at how such statements can and can't be used to successfully explain the behavior of individuals or groups While many people broadly dismiss such statements about groups Jones gives a careful discussion of the problems and possibilities such statements have

Why Believe Bruce Tong, 2017-02-13 In a glorifying moment with God this book was born As author Bruce Tong wrestled with a deep question about how many Christians live life with a huge wall of frustration and unwanted failure in front of them that leads to the wave of complacency that infects the Church God showed him that it comes down to the difference between believing and believing in Jesus There is a simple little verse in John's Gospel The work of God is this to believe in the one he has sent John 6:29 NIV As if it were dancing on the paper this thought came to Bruce many Christians say that they believe in Jesus but live a life that would suggest that nothing has changed It's as if the shroud of Christianity is only reserved for Sundays and the rest of the week is about living for the world They say I believe in Jesus but I will carry on living my life the way I want Then there are the people who believe Jesus In other words their lives have been immersed in Jesus He is their everything and you can see it by the way they live what they say and how they act Bruce sat there stunned for a while Could it be that simple Is belief simply faith in action He needed to find out so he began to turn the pages of John's Gospel and it was as if a large hand jumped out of every page slapped him on the face and pulled his head to the word believe saying Look at this Read that The journey began and ideas began to flow He began to view this wonderful Gospel with different eyes and through a revitalised open heart Each word that was written on paper not only transformed his understanding but also began to transform him He hopes that this journey will be as encouraging for you as it was for him
