Disappearing women as a persistent trope from nineteenth century magic through contemporary theory film and psychoanalysis. Whatever Happened to Baby Jane? Henry Farrell, 1960. The Women of Warner Brothers Daniel Bubbeo, 2010-06-21. The lives and careers of Warner Brothers screen legends Joan Blondell Nancy Coleman Bette Davis Olivia de Havilland Glenda Farrell Kay Francis Ruby Keeler Andrea King Priscilla Lane Joan Leslie Ida Lupino Eleanor Parker Ann Sheridan Alexis Smith and Jane Wyman are the topic of this book. Some achieved great success in film and other areas of show business but others failed to get the breaks or became victims of the studio system's sometimes unpleasant brand of politics. The personal and professional obstacles that each actress encountered are here set out in detail often with comments from the actresses who granted interviews with the author and from those people who knew them best on and off the movie set. A filmography is included for each of the fifteen. The Silvering Screen Sally Chivers, 2011-01-01. Popular films have always included elderly characters but until recently old age only played a supporting role onscreen. Now as the Baby Boomer population hits retirement there has been an explosion of films including Away From Her The Straight Story The Barbarian Invasions and About Schmidt where aging is a central theme. The first ever sustained discussion of old age in cinema. The Silvering Screen brings together theories from disability studies critical gerontology and cultural studies to examine how the film industry has linked old age with physical and mental disability. Sally Chivers further examines Hollywood's mixed messages the applauding of actors who portray the debilitating side of aging while promoting a culture of youth as well as the gendering of old age on film. The Silvering Screen makes a timely attempt to counter the fear of aging implicit in these readings by proposing alternate ways to value getting older. Cold War Femme Robert J. Corber, 2011-01-27. Interpretations of Hollywood films of the 1950s and 1960s demonstrate how Cold War homophobia focused on the femme as the lesbian who posed the greatest threat to the nation. No Respect Andrew Ross, 2016-09-16. The intellectual and the popular Irving Howe and John Waters Susan Sontag and Ethel Rosenberg Dwight MacDonald and Bill Cosby Amiri Baraka and Mick Jagger Andrea Dworkin and Grace Jones Andy Warhol and Lenny Bruce All feature in Andrew Ross's lively history and critique of modern American culture. Andrew Ross examines how and why the cultural authority of modern intellectuals is bound up with the changing face of popular taste in America. He argues that the making of taste is hardly an aesthetic activity but rather an exercise in cultural power policing and carefully redefining social relations between classes. Movie Lists Paul Simpson, 2011-05-26. Action African greats alcohol Robert Aldrich aliens Woody Allen Pedro Almodovar Robert Altman animated anime apocalypses Argentina art Asia minor avant garde And that's just A for you. A taste of this fabulously quirky and enjoyable book which is both a celebration of movies and movie trivia and a handy entertaining guide to films that we know you will enjoy. It is fantastically functional. The lists are well conceived and easy to understand mostly assembled by genre actor director theme or country of origin and the reviews are witty and informative Oddly enough most movie guides are not full of recommendations But Movie Lists is in spades leaving readers in no doubt that the films reviewed are the business Oh and you don't have to watch them all before you die There is no premise of death in this book You just need to get down to the local Blockbusters or flick your remote to Movies on Demand Only the popcorn is not supplied
