Journal of the United States Army, 2011 Shakespeare's Returning Warriors - and Ours Alan Warren

Friedman, 2021-11-28 Shakespeare's Returning Warriors and Ours takes its primary inspiration from the contemporary U S Post Traumatic Stress Disorder PTSD crisis in soldiers transitioning from battlefields back into society It begins by examining how ancient societies sought to ease the return of soldiers in order to minimize PTSD though the term did not become widely used until the early 1980s It then considers a dozen or so Shakespearean plays that depict such transitions at the start focusing on the tragic protagonists and antagonists in paradigmatic returning warrior plays including Titus Andronicus Julius Caesar Othello Macbeth Antony and Cleopatra and Coriolanus and exploring the psychological and emotional ill fits that prevent warriors from returning to the status quo ante after battlefield triumphs or even surviving the psychic demons and moral disequilibrium they unleash on their domestic settings and themselves It also analyzes the history plays several comedies and Hamlet as plays that partly conform to and also significantly deviate from the basic paradigm The final chapter discusses recent attempts to effect successful transitions often using Shakespeare's plays as therapy and depictions of attempts to wage warfare without inducing PTSD Through the investigation of the tragedies and model returning warrior experiences Shakespeare's Returning Warriors and Ours highlights a central and understudied feature of Shakespeare's plays and what they can teach us about PTSD today when it is a widespread phenomenon in American society The Few.

The Proud. Sara Sheldon, 2007-11-30 On a dark night in February 2005 Sara Sheldon arrived at Camp Fallujah outside the dangerous ancient city for which it was named Armed only with a camera a laptop and notepads she was a spectator to the war who secured permission to embed with the 1st MEF and observe and interview Marines who happened to be women then posted at Camp Fallujah In the time she spent there Sheldon interviewed women who held ranks from corporal to colonel to gain a broad and varied perspective of the experiences representative of female Marines throughout Iraq She reveals much about her subjects the preconceived notions they possessed when they enlisted in the Corps how the experience of serving in Iraq changed them and what they ultimately took home from the battlefield Americans are aware that women are actively serving in the armed forces but few understand what exactly is expected of women in the military the duties they perform and the limitations and restrictions placed on them especially in a combat zone Sheldon reveals much about her subjects In some ways they mirrored their male counterparts Some enlisted only for four years to receive educational benefits or for an opportunity to escape their home environment Others made the Corps their career serving as commissioned officers Still others were recalled to active duty to serve with their representative Guard units Sheldon uncovers their stories the preconceived notions they possessed when they enlisted in the Corps how the experience of serving in Iraq has changed them and what they ultimately took home from the battlefield She also sheds light on the day to day grind all American service personnel face in Iraq Yet she never loses her main focus Far removed from the Green Zone Sheldon and her subjects spent their days in harm s way but she avoids a running commentary on policy Instead she remains committed to examining how women tasked with field duties and various missions at the lower levels of command are impacted by their experiences

Raymond C. Christian, 2019-07-16 The hottest war zone this country has ever been in was being fought by eighteen and nineteen year boys you can call them men if you want Since I was once a soldier and later an officer I must point out the facts of being a teenager and being a man Most of them enlisted and many were drafted to go fight the war in Vietnam While the United States of America was being defended planes began to return to the states loaded down with the bodies of these young eighteen and nineteen year old soldiers in body bags If you are not knowledgeable about the Institute of Medicine IOM You would think it is the Veterans Administration VA fault why the Vietnam Veterans have not gotten their benefits I would advise you to continue reading Then I want you to ask the question why nongovernmental researchers are being hired to do the research on Agent Orange I also want you to know the Institute of Medicine IOM is no longer under the same name They have the same function but a new name called the Health Medicine Division which is also nongovernmental As concerned citizens we must ask the question of why nongovernmental agencies are being allowed to research Agent Orange I am certain the results will not shock you as to why the VA is not able to advance the Vietnam Veterans benefits because they are receiving their reports from the HMD stating there is no correlation with Agent Orange to the sickness the Vietnam Veterans have The VA gets these reports every two years Another well kept secret is the number of agents used in Vietnam While many of you think there was just Agent Orange My research shows it was a total of six different agents used Read On ...
