Beastly Natures Dorothee Brantz, 2010-08-03 Although the animal may be as Nietzsche argued ahistorical living completely in the present it nonetheless plays a crucial role in human history The fascination with animals that leads not only to a desire to observe and even live alongside them but to capture or kill them is found in all civilizations The essays collected in Beastly Natures show how animals have been brought into human culture literally helping to build our societies as domesticated animals have done or contributing often in problematic ways to our concept of the wild The book begins with a group of essays that approach the historical relevance of human animal relations seen from the perspectives of various disciplines and suggest ways in which animals might be brought into formal studies of history Differences in species and location can greatly affect the shape of human animal interaction and so the essays that follow address a wide spectrum of topics including the demanding fate of the working horse the complex image of the American alligator at turns a dangerous predator and a tourist attraction the zoo gardens of Victorian England the iconography of the rhinoceros and the preference it reveals in society for myth over science relations between humans and wolves in Europe and what we can learn from society s enthusiasm for political animals such as the pets of the American presidents and the Soviet Union s space dogs Taken together these essays suggest new ways of looking not only at animals but at human history Contributors Mark V Barrow Jr Virginia Tech Peter Edwards Roehampton University Kelly Enright Rutgers University Oliver Hochadel Universitat Aut noma de Barcelona Uwe L bken Rachel Carson Center Munich Garry Marvin Roehampton University Clay McShane Northeastern University Amy Nelson Virginia Tech Susan Pearson Northwestern University Helena Pycior University of Wisconsin Milwaukee Harriet Ritvo Massachusetts Institute of Technology Nigel Rothfels University of Wisconsin Milwaukee Joel A Tarr Carnegie Mellon University Mary Weismantel Northwestern University

The Stage Lives of Animals Una Chaudhuri, 2016-10-04 The Stage Lives of Animals examines what it might mean to make theatre beyond the human In this stunning collection of essays Una Chaudhuri engages with the alternative modes of thinking feeling and making art offered by animals and animality bringing insights from theatre practice and theory to animal studies as well as exploring what animal studies can bring to the study of theatre and performance As our planet lives through what scientists call the sixth extinction and we become ever more aware of our relationships to other species Chaudhuri takes a highly original look at the animal imagination of well known plays performances and creative projects including works by Caryl Churchill Rachel Rosenthal Marina Zurkow Edward Albee Tennessee Williams Eugene

Ionesco Covering over a decade of explorations a wide range of writers and many urgent topics this volume demonstrates that an interspecies imagination deeply structures modern western drama Our Debt to the Dog Bryan D.

Cummins,2013-11-07 When Homo sapiens sapiens met Canis lupus lupus millennia ago the result was Canis lupus familiaris the domestic dog Since that fateful encounter the dog has become arguably humankind s greatest creation The domestic dog is the most widely distributed species other than ourselves in the world being found virtually wherever people live and is also the most diversified of species with literally hundreds of recognized breeds While we have shaped the dog it too has helped shape human history in innumerable ways Our Debt to the Dog is a critical historical and cross cultural examination through the use of case studies of this most improbable 15 000 year relationship and an exploration of how this relationship shaped the history of the world It is also very much an apology to the dog because over the course of the partnership horrific acts were perpetrated against it intentionally and otherwise Our Debt to the Dog enriches our understanding of the dog and extends our appreciation for the profound complexity of past and present human canine relationships and the dog s contributions to our lives and our world When Animals Dream David M. Peña-Guzmán,2023-09-26 A spellbinding look at the philosophical and moral implications of animal dreaming Are humans the only dreamers on Earth What goes on in the minds of animals when they sleep When Animals Dream brings together behavioral and neuroscientific research on animal sleep with philosophical theories of dreaming It shows that dreams provide an invaluable window into the cognitive and emotional lives of nonhuman animals giving us access to a seemingly inaccessible realm of animal experience David Peña Guzmán uncovers evidence of animal dreaming throughout the scientific literature suggesting that many animals run reality simulations while asleep with a dream ego moving through a dynamic and coherent dreamscape He builds a convincing case for animals as conscious beings and examines the thorny scientific philosophical and ethical questions it raises Once we accept that animals dream we incur a host of moral obligations and have no choice but to rethink our views about who animals are and the interior lives they lead A mesmerizing journey into the otherworldly domain of nonhuman consciousness When Animals Dream carries profound implications for contemporary debates about animal cognition animal ethics and animal rights challenging us to regard animals as beings who matter and for whom things matter Affect Theory and

Early Modern Texts Amanda Bailey,Mario DiGangi,2017-03-22 The first book to put contemporary affect theory into conversation with early modern studies this volume demonstrates how questions of affect illuminate issues of cognition political agency historiography and scientific thought in early modern literature and culture Engaging various historical and theoretical perspectives the essays in this volume bring affect to bear on early modern representations of bodies passions and social relations by exploring the role of embodiment in political subjectivity and action the interactions of human and non human bodies within ecological systems and the social and physiological dynamics of theatrical experience Examining the complexly embodied experiences of leisure sympathy staged violence courtiership envy suicide and many other topics the contributors open up new ways of understanding how Renaissance writers thought about the capacities pleasures and vulnerabilities of the human body

Animal Theologians Andrew Linzey, Clair Linzey, 2023 Many people who have thought about God have not thought about animals or about the relationship between the two But among those who have are some of the most celebrated religious thinkers including Michel de Montaigne Thomas Tryon John Wesley John Ruskin Leo Tolstoy Mohandas K Gandhi Albert Schweitzer and Paul Tillich This volume comprises 24 scholarly studies that detail challenges to the dominant anthropocentrism of most religious traditions The editors have brought together Jewish Unitarian Christian transcendentalist Muslim Hindu Dissenting deist and Quaker voices each offering a unique theological perspective that counters the neglect of the nonhuman Animal Theologians is divided into three parts starting with the pioneers who first saw a relationship between animals and divinity those who contributed to the expansion of social sensibility to animals and ending with the work of contemporary theologians The essays in this volume use contextual and historical background to describe what led animal theologians to their beliefs and then pave way for further developments in this expanding field This volume is an act of reclaiming different religious traditions for animals by recovering lost voices
