When Mystical Creatures Attack:

When Mystical Creatures Attack! Kathleen Founds, 2014-10-01 In When Mystical Creatures Attack Ms Freedman's high school English class writes essays in which mystical creatures resolve the greatest sociopolitical problems of our time. Students include Janice Gibbs a feral child with excessive eyeliner and an anti-authoritarian complex that would be interesting were it not so ill-informed and Cody Splunk an aspiring writer working on a time machine. Following a nervous breakdown Ms Freedman corresponds with Janice and Cody from an insane asylum run on the capitalist model of cognitive behavioral therapy where inmates practice water aerobics to rebuild their Psychiatric Credit Scores. The lives of Janice, Cody, and Ms Freedman are revealed through in-class essays, letters, therapeutic journal exercises, an advice column, a reality show, television transcript, a diary, and a Methodist women's fundraising cookbook. Recipes include Dark Night of the Soul Food, Render Unto Caesar Salad, and Valley of the Shadow of Death by Chocolate Cake. In Virtue of the Month the ghost of Ms Freedman's mother argues that suicide is not a choice. In The Un Game Janice's chain-smoking nursing home charge composes a dirty limerick. In The Hall of Old Testament Miracles wax figures of Bible characters come to life hungry for Cody's flesh. Set against a South Texas landscape where cicadas hum and the air smells of taco stands and jasmine flowers, these stories range from laugh-out-loud funny to achingly poignant. This surreal, exuberant collection mines the dark recesses of the soul while illuminating the human heart. Bipolar Bear and the Terrible, Horrible, No Good, Very Bad Health Insurance

Kathleen Founds, 2022-11-01 Theodore is a bear with wild mood swings. When he is up he carves epic poetry into tree trunks. When he is down he paints sad faces on rocks and turtle shells. In search of prescription medications that will bring stability to his life, Theodore finds a job with health insurance benefits. He gets the meds but when he can't pay the psychiatrist's bill, he becomes lost in the Labyrinth of Health Insurance Claims. This witty and colorful tale follows the comical exploits of Theodore, a loveable and relatable bear, as he copes with bipolar disorder, navigates the inequities of capitalist society, founds a commune, and becomes an activist, all the while accompanied by a memorable cast of characters: fat cat insurance CEOs, a wrongfully convicted snake, raccoons with Tommy guns, and an unemployed old dog who cannot learn new tricks. Entertaining, whimsical, and biting satirical, Bipolar Bear is a fable for grownups that manages the delicate balance of addressing society's ills while simultaneously presenting a hopeful vision for the world. Love, Dirt Bruce Johnson, 2025-11-12 From the intimate confines of a Nebraska farmhouse to the bustling streets of South America, the characters of Love, Dirt traverse uneasy spaces in search of human connection. A closeted teen on a trip to Chile hides in his parents' bedroom to avoid being caught fooling around with a local boy. An elderly couple attempts to scale a volcano, wrestling with their own physical limitations and an unbearable loss in their past. A father becomes convinced that a daycare has swapped his toddler with a near-identical imposter. The public relations industry of Las Vegas is at first amused and then scandalized by a businesswoman's ability to divine people's birthplaces and childhood experiences just by listening to them speak. And a son's long deceased parents return to life as fumbling inept zombies who are more nuisance than threat In these and other stories Bruce Johnson's bold thought provoking debut explores how we are shaped by the narratives that we craft for ourselves and others

What Counts as Love Marian Crotty, 2017-10-15 In these nine stories Marian Crotty inhabits the lives of people searching for human connection Her characters most often young women are honest troubled and filled with longing In the title story a young woman begins a job on a construction site after leaving an abusive marriage In Crazy for You two girls spy on a neighbor's sex life while their own sexuality hovers in the distance In A Real Marriage a college student marries a boyfriend to help him stay in the United States In The Fourth Fattest Girl at Cutting Horse Ranch the daily life of a residential treatment center for eating disorders is disrupted by the arrival of a celebrity The stories are set in Arizona North Carolina Pennsylvania Maryland and the Persian Gulf and often touch on themes of addiction class sexuality and gender

What Counts as Love is a poignant often funny collection that asks us to take it and its characters seriously

The Boundaries of Their Dwelling Blake Sanz, 2021-10-15 Moving between the American South and Mexico these stories explore how immigrant and native characters are shaped by absent family and geography A Chilanga teen wins a trip to Miami to film a reality show about family while pining for the American brother she's never met A Louisiana carpenter tends to his drug addicted son while rebuilding his house after a slew of hurricanes A New Orleans ne'er do well opens a Catholic themed bar in the wake of his devout mother's death A village girl from Chiapas baptizes her infant on a trek toward the U.S. border In the collection's second half we follow a Veracruz-born drifter Manuel and his estranged American son Tommy Over decades they negotiate separate nations and personal tragicomedies on their journeys from innocence to experience As Manuel participates in student protests in Mexico City in 1968 he drops out to pursue his art In the 1970s he immigrates to Louisiana but soon leaves his wife and infant son behind after his art shop fails Meanwhile Tommy grows up in 1980s Louisiana sometimes escaping his mother's watchful eye to play basketball at a park filled with the threat of violence In college he seeks acceptance from teammates by writing their term papers Years later as Manuel nears death and Tommy reaches middle age they reconnect embarking on a mission to jointly interview a former riot policeman about his military days in the process father and son discover what it has meant to carry each other's stories and memories from afar

The Woods Janice Obuchowski, 2022-11-10 The Woods explores the lives of people in a small Vermont college town and its surrounding areas a place at the edge of the bucolic where the land begins to shift into something untamed In the tradition of Elizabeth Strout's Olive Kitteridge and Sherwood Anderson's Winesburg, Ohio these stories follow people who carry private griefs but search for contentment As they try to make sense of their worlds grappling with problems worried about their careers their marriages their children their ambitions they also sift through the happiness they have and often find deep solace in the landscape What do we find in the woods An uplifting of spirit or a quieting of sorrow A sense of being haunted by the past Sometimes rougher more violent things abandoned quarries and feral cats black bears brothers caught up in an escalating war a ghost who wishes to pass on her despair monsters who boom with hollow ecstatic laughter But also songbirds the hermit thrush and the winter wren Rushing rivers glossy with froth A nineteenth century inn that s somehow gotten by all these years And far within a vegetal twilight and constant dusk that feels outside of time This remarkable debut illuminates the ways we all carry within ourselves aspects stark beautiful wild and unknowable Deer Michigan Jack C. Buck,2016-09-07 Something quite wonderful happens when you allow yourself to drift through life without a plan of direction writes Jack Buck in his poignant debut story collection The writing in Deer Michigan takes this philosophy to heart embracing the flux of fate in over fifty ethereal narratives In one story we meet an exiled Mao on a hiking trail in another the narrator mourns the graceful disappearance of birds Buck s stories ripple with nostalgia a reverence for the natural world and an America with room in which to wander Though the stories in Deer Michigan are short in one case spun out in a single sentence they bottle up an expanse of human experience offering us a stunning universe of feeling Allegra Hyde author of Of This New World The Man in the Banana Trees Marguerite Sheffer,2024-11-05 The stories in The Man in the Banana Trees take place in the past present and future from the American Gulf South to the orbit around Jupiter We meet teachers and students ghosts and aliens An ice cream consultant in the year 2036 predicts a devastating flavor trend and a disgruntled New England waiter investigates a mysterious tanker crash Although wildly varied in setting length and genre a thread of the fantastic unites these stories as characters struggle to understand that thing lurking at the edge of their perception something sinister or maybe miraculous What Mennonite Girls Are Good For Jennifer Sears,2025 Description In these eleven stories Ruthie a Mennonite minister s daughter moves from a youthful exuberant understanding of her family s faith toward religious doubt and questioning In Blessed are the Children Who Know Not to Tell set in a missionary school in Asuncion Paraguay Ruthie senses the disparity between the world that is and the world she s been promised and learns how power and abuse can be confused for duty and love The section Sins and Symbols opens when Ruthie poses for a photographer in former chapel in southern California where her father pursues a theology degree Transformed by the sight of an emaciated Christ on a forgotten crucifix Ruthie s desire to rid herself of all flesh leads her to a self destructive belief system of her own at the age when many join the church The stories in Faith is Just Another Sorrow show Ruthie stumbling comically at times as she navigates life with and without the rules and values in which she s been raised to live In the title story Ruthie confronts the privileges stereotypes and expectations embedded in her Mennonite experience and in a pivotal moment finds unexpected resonance with her father s deep commitment to social justice through his work with Central American asylum seekers with the Sanctuary Movement Ruthie s search for personal truth always physical often sexual leads her from missionary outposts in Paraguay and Brazil midwestern Mennonite towns in northern Indiana and central Kansas into airports truck stops and motels vandalized Native American ruins women s healthcare clinics pacifist prairie towns disrupted by trains transporting weapons and vehicles from arms manufacturers and lingerie shops on the secular melancholy east coast Together these stories consider how faith and identity intertwine the cost of leaving one's community and cultural heritage and how choices made complicate the longing for return Provided by publisher Father Guards the Sheep Sari Rosenblatt, 2020-10-02 In Sari Rosenblatt's collection by turns tender and hilarious we see fathers who are bullies and nervous watchdogs haunted by their own pasts and fear of the future they may never see And who do their daughters become A substitute teacher who encounters mouthy students who believe she's not real Another lands a job on her city's arson squad researching derelict properties their owners might want to burn A beleaguered mother humiliated by the PTA's queen bee finds solace in an ancient piece of caramel candy I keep sucking she says until some flavor no longer caramel comes out In the end this is what all these finely wrought characters want to wring sweetness from what's been passed down to them Rosenblatt's comic sensibility so present in these stories entertains and consoles while seeming to say to her readers you might as well laugh Happy Like This Ashley Wurzbacher, 2019-10-15 The characters in Happy Like This are smart girls and professional women social scientists linguists speech therapists plant physiologists dancers who search for happiness in roles and relationships that are often unscripted or unconventional In the midst of their ambivalence about marriage monogamy and motherhood and their struggles to accept and love their bodies they look to other women for solidarity stability and validation Sometimes they find it sometimes they don't Spanning a wide range of distinct perspectives voices styles and settings the ten shimmering stories in Happy Like This offer deeply felt often humorous meditations on the complexity of choice and the ambiguity of happiness The Water Diviner and Other Stories Ruvanee Pieterz Vilhauer, 2018-10-15 In this thought provoking collection Sri Lankan immigrants grapple with events that challenge perspectives and alter lives A volunteer faces memories of wartime violence when she meets a cantankerous old lady on a Meals on Wheels route A lonely widow obsessed with an impending apocalypse meets an oddly inspiring man A maidservant challenges class divisions when she becomes an American professor's wife An angry tenant fights suspicion when her landlord is burgled Hardened inmates challenge a young jail psychiatrist's competence A father wonders whether to expose his young son's bully at a basketball game A student facing poverty courts a benefactor And in the depths of an isolated Wyoming winter a woman tries to resist a con artist These and other tales explore the immigrant experience with a piercing authenticity Night in Erg Chebbi and Other Stories Edward Hamlin, 2015-10-01 Night in Erg Chebbi and Other Stories spans the globe taking us from Belfast to Brazil Morocco to Manhattan The teenaged daughter of an IRA assassin flees Northern Ireland only to end up in Baby Doc's terrifying Haiti An American woman who's betrayed her brother only to lose him to a Taliban bullet comes face to face with her demons during a vacation in Morocco A famed photojournalist must find a way to bring her life's work to closure before she goes blind a quest that changes her understanding of the very physics of light By turns innocent and canny the characters of Night in Erg Chebbi and Other Stories must learn to improvise quickly when confronted with stark choices they never dreamed they'd have to make Lyrical immaculately constructed and deeply felt these nine stories take us far beyond our comfort zones and deep into the wilds of the human heart You Never Get It Back Cara Blue Adams, 2021-12-15 The linked stories in Cara Blue Adams's precise and observant collection offer elegantly constructed glimpses of the life of Kate a young woman from rural New England moving between her childhood in the countryside of Vermont and her twenties and thirties in the northeast southwest and South in pursuit of a vocation first as a research scientist and later as a writer Place is a palpable presence Boston in winter Maine in summer Virginia's lush hillsides the open New Mexico sky Along the way we meet Kate's difficult bohemian mother and younger sister her privileged college roommate and the various men Kate dates as she struggles to define what she wants from the world on her own terms Wryly funny and shot through with surprising flashes of anger these smart dreamy searching stories show us a young woman grappling with social class gender ambition violence and the distance between longing and having Stories No One Hopes Are about Them A. J. Bermudez, 2022-11-14 2023 Lammy Award for Bisexual Fiction shortlist At once playfully dark and slyly hopeful Stories No One Hopes Are about Them explores convergences of power privilege and place Characters who are ni de aquí ni de allá neither from here nor there straddle competing worlds disrupt paradigms and transition from objects of other people's stories to active subjects and protagonists of their own Narratives of humanity and environment entwine with nuanced themes of colonization queerness and evolution at the forefront Big things happen in this collection But it's also a collection of small intimacies misremembered names chipped teeth and private rituals unexpected alliances and barely touched knees beneath uniform skirts minutiae of the natural world incidents that quietly aching and delightfully transgress the familiar Every Mother Has a Story: Volume Two Frances Lefkowitz, 2014-09-14 Every mother and every daughter has a story and four of the best appear in the second volume of this Shebooks Good Housekeeping collaboration Heartwrenching and heartwarming these top picks trace the twisting contradictions in the relationships between four very different sets of mothers and daughters In Yo yo Mama Laura Hurwitz describes the summer her mom introduced her to dieting and the unintended consequences her new body sparked In Happy Mommy Pills Kathleen Founds tells what happens when the worst doesn't happen to her young pregnant self Deborah Batterman's Diamonds and Manicures considers the crossroads between femininity and feminism and realizes that pampering herself does not mean giving up her principles And in The 25 000 Pyramid Mashaw McGuinnis takes us on a rollicking ride in her almost unbelievable tale of sneaking out of the house to audition for a TV game show and transforming bitterness into a date with Betty White True lives deep emotions compelling stories we all can relate to The Lovers Set Down Their Spoons Heather A. Slomski, 2014-10-01 Winner of the 2014 Iowa Short Fiction Award Heather A. Slomski's debut story collection takes loss as its primary subject and holds it up to the light In prose spare and daring poised yet startling these stories take shape in reality but reality they sometimes show us is not a separate realm from the fantastic or the surreal Two couples meet for dinner to acknowledge an affair A mannequin recalls a lover and the life she mysteriously lost Two girls observe a young widow's grief through a café window A man's hat is as discerning as Cinderella's shoe In the fifteen stories that comprise this collection some short as breaths two of them novelettes Slomski writes with a keen eye about relationships About the desires that pull us together and the betrayals that push us apart About jealousy obsession loneliness and regret the byproducts of loving someone that keep us awake at night The characters in these stories share meals drink wine buy furniture and art They live domestic lives so often wanting to love someone yet ending up alone In one story a woman's fiancé leaves her when she goes to post some mail In another story a man can't move past an affair his wife almost had Another story describes a series of drawings to detail a couple's end But while loss and heartache pervade these stories there is also occasional hope For as the title story shows us sometimes a breakup isn't an end at all but the beginning of your life

Everything Flirts Sharon Wahl, 2024 At the heart of the stories in Everything Flirts are some of life's trickiest questions Why is it so hard to make the first move on a date How do we find the person we will love If you finally find a person to love how do you convince them to love you back With a mixture of humor and reverence Sharon Wahl hijacks classic works of philosophy and turns their focus to love The sublime and the ridiculous come together to playfully examine why love just might be a topic too hard for philosophers to explain Not a Thing to Comfort You Emily Wortman-Wunder, 2019-10-15 From a lightning death on an isolated peak to the intrigues of a small town orchestra the glimmering stories in this debut collection explore how nature damaged fierce and unpredictable worms its way into our lives Here moths steal babies a creek seduces a lonely suburban mother and the priorities of a passionate conservationist are thrown into confusion after the death of her son Over and over the natural world reveals itself to be unknowable especially to the people who study it most These tales of scientists nurses and firefighters catalog the loneliness within families betrayals between friends and the recurring song of regret and grief November Storm Robert Oldshue, 2016-10-01 In each of the stories in Robert Oldshue's debut collection the characters want to be decent but find that hard to define In the first story an elderly couple is told that delivery of their Thanksgiving dinner has been canceled due to an impending blizzard Unwilling to have guests but nothing to serve them they make a run to the grocery hoping to get there and back before the snow but crash their car into the last of their neighbors In The Receiving Line a male prostitute tricks a closeted suburban schoolteacher only to learn that the trick is on him In The Woman On The Road a twelve year old girl negotiates the competing demands of her faith and her family as she is bat mitzvahed in the feminist ferment of the 1980s The lessons she learns are the lessons learned by a ten year old boy in Fergus B Fergus after which in Summer Friend two women and one man renegotiate their sixty year intimacy when sadly but inevitably one of them gets ill The Home Of The Holy Assumption offers a benediction A quadriplegic goes missing at a nursing home Was she assumed In the process of finding out all are reminded that caring for others however imperfectly even laughably is the only shot at assumption we have In upstate New York a November storm is one that comes early in the season If it catches people off guard it can change them in the ways Oldshue's characters are changed by different but equally surprising storms
