Where Youth and Laughter Go Seth William Bell Folsom,2015-09-15 Where Youth and Laughter Go completes LtCol Seth Folsom s recounting of his personal experiences in command over a decade of war It is the culminating chapter of a trilogy that began with The Highway War A Marine Company Commander in Iraq in 2006 and continued with In the Gray Area A Marine Advisor Team at War in 2010 The chronicle of Folsom s command of 3rd Battalion 7th Marine Regiment The Cutting Edge and his harrowing deployment to Afghanistan s volatile Sangin District presents a deeper look into the complexities and perils of modern counterinsurgency operations in America s longest war Charged with the daunting task of pacifying a region with a long history of violence and instability Folsom and his Marines struggled daily to wage a dynamic campaign against the shadowy enemy force that held Sangin s population firmly in its grip With peace and stability always teetering on the brink of collapse the Marines of The Cutting Edge confronted their own mortality as they conducted endless patrols through Sangin s minefields while fighting to win the hearts and minds of the Afghan villagers No other books have been published from the perspective of a Marine infantry battalion commander in Afghanistan It was Folsom s job as the unit commander to lead his Marines under impossible circumstances LtCol Folsom made the unusual decision to patrol with his rifle squads every day through Sangin where his Marines dodged improvised explosive devices and sniper fire from an invisible enemy As his tour progressed and casualties mounted he found his objectivity evaporating and the love for his men growing Where Youth and Laughter Go is more than a blood and guts war story it is a jarring boots on the ground level examination of the myriad challenges and personal dilemmas that today s young service members face as the United States approaches its final endgame in Afghanistan U.S. Marines in Afghanistan, 2010-2014 ,2017 Excerpt from U S Marines in Afghanistan 2010 2014 Anthology and Annotated Bibliography This volume second part of a series focusing on Marine Corps Actions in Afghanistan presents a collection of 21 articles interviews and speeches describing many aspects of the U S Marine Corps participation in Operation Enduring Freedom from 2010 to 2014 This work is intended to serve as a general overview and provisional reference to inform both Marines and the general public until the U S Marine Corps History Division completes monographs covering major Marine Corps operations during the campaign The accompanying annotated bibliography provides a detailed look at selected sources that currently exist and should be sufficient until new scholarship and archival materials become available This anthology is organized into six parts one section for each year and a final section devoted to a broader overview of Marine participation in the Afghanistan conflict This work is not meant to be an authoritative history but rather a selected record of Marine contributions to the Afghan war effort as captured by the media and other sources Related items United States Marine Corps USMC History publications can be found here https bookstore gpo gov catalog united states marine corps usmc history Afghanistan War publications can be found here https bookstore gpo gov catalog afghanistan war Global War on Terror publications can be found here https bookstore gpo gov catalog global war terror

Nothing Here Worth Dying For Seth William Bell Folsom,2025-02-18 In this sharp challenging memoir Col Seth Folsom lays bare the complexities of modern military combat advisor missions at the twilight of America s longest war Nothing Here Worth Dying For tells the story of his command of Task Force Lion a purpose built combat advisor team and his frenetic 2017 deployment to Iraq s Al Anbar Province Charged with the daunting task of advising assisting and enabling the Iraqi Security Forces in their fight against the Islamic State of Iraq and Syria Folsom and his team of Marines and sailors struggled to support their Iraqi partners in the Jazeera Operations Command while simultaneously grappling with their own leadership for their relevance on the battlefield Nothing Here Worth Dying For is the jarring coda to Folsom s nearly thirty years in uniform the last twenty of which he spent deploying to the long war in Iraq and Afghanistan Far from a jingoistic tale that celebrates Corps and Country this work challenges many of the popular assumptions about military command leadership loyalty and teamwork As with the author s previous books Nothing Here Worth Dying For focuses on individual Marine actions at the tactical and operational levels while also addressing regional events that contributed to the overall narrative of the U S war in Iraq Folsom describes his unpopular decision to prioritize his team members and their mission to support the Iraqi army above the desires of his own military service branch As the final operation against ISIS in western Al Anbar gained steam he questioned the wisdom of the military leadership to which he had dedicated his entire adult life Despite his disillusionment he committed himself to the men and women under his command who fought against the odds to accomplish a crucial mission At its core this is a story about teamwork and the bonds that develop when men and women risk their lives and reputations together As the United States struggles once more to extricate itself from Iraq this book will be a timely addition to the existing body of work about the war Proud to Be a Marine C. Brian Kelly,2017-05-02 Celebrate the Legacy of the Marines Behind one of the most celebrated military branches in America are the often little known actions of its brave warriors Proud to be a Marine amplifies the human voices amidst the cannon blasts and gun fire from the American Revolution to modern day and provides fresh insight that will inspire and excite those interested in the proud legacy of the Marines This one of a kind collection includes Union Corporal John Mackie s historic rallying cry as he earned the first ever Medal of Honor for a Marine The daring actions of Captain Bill Hawkins the first Marine to step foot on Guadalcanal ROTC Cadet Vernice Armour s inspiring rise from police officer to first African American female combat pilot in the history of the United States Marines From the shores of Tripoli to the careful action against deadly IEDs in the Middle East the anecdotal back stories of these upstanding Marines are proof they have always been ready and always the First to Fight Naval History ,2019 Where Youth and Laughter Go Seth W.
