Schwabe,1979 Includes recipes for cooking horse meat goats dogs cats rats rabbits hares squirrels turtles snakes eels sharks frogs and insects among other unusual food sources Eat Not this Flesh Frederick J. Simoons,1994 Examines the use and avoidance of flesh foods including beef pork chicken and eggs camel dog horse and fish from antiquity to the present day Simoons finds that the recurrent theme of maintaining ritual purity good health and well being underlies diet habits He emphasizes that only a full range of factors can explain eating patterns and stresses the interplay of religious moral hygienic ecological and economic factors in the context of human culture From publisher description Looking Back Ocampo Ambeth,2012-10-18 Hindsight is the lowest form of intelligence except for historians In this handy collection of Ambeth Ocampo s Looking Back column pieces the popular historian digs deep and looks back carefully at events places and important people who make up the country s history Rabbit Production for Food & Fur, 1979 - March 1987 Jerry Rafats,1987 Cookery Donovan Conley,Justin Eckstein,2020-04-21 The rhetoric of contemporary food production and consumption with a focus on social boundaries The rhetoric of food is more than just words about food and food is more than just edible matter Cookery Food Rhetorics and Social Production explores how food mediates both rhetorical influence and material life through the overlapping concepts of invention and production The classical canon of rhetorical invention entails the process of discovering one s persuasive appeals whereas the contemporary landscape of agricultural production touches virtually everyone on the planet Together rhetoric and food shape the boundaries of shared living The essays in this volume probe the many ways that food informs contemporary social life through its mediation of bodies human and extra human alike in the forms of intoxication addiction estrangement identification repulsion and eroticism Our bodies in turn shape the boundaries of food through research technology cultural trends and of course by talking about it Each chapter explores food s persuasive nature through a unique prism that includes intoxication dirt food porn strange foods and political invisibility Each case offers new insights about the relations between rhetorical influence and embodied practice through food As a whole Cookery articulates new ways of viewing food s powers of persuasion as well as the inherent role of persuasion in agricultural production The purpose of Cookery then is to demonstrate the deep rhetoricity of our modern industrial food system through critical examinations of concepts practices and tendencies endemic to this system Food has become an essential topic for discussions concerned with the larger social dynamics of production distribution access reception consumption influence and the fraught question of choice These questions about food and rhetoric are equally questions about the assumptions values and practices of contemporary public life Emerging Infectious Diseases ,1995 The Best American Food Writing 2020 J.
