Fit at 40 Rishma Dhillon Pai, 2013-12-27 Are you afraid of turning 40? 40 is an important milestone in our life. Yet this is often the time when the body's metabolism reduces progressively and a lot of health problems such as diabetes, obesity, hypertension, and muscle and joint pain enter our lives. In Fit at 40, renowned obstetrician and gynaecologist Dr. Rishma Dhillon Pai will give you a lowdown on major health issues that plague us in the 40s, the importance of a healthy diet, and offer advice, solutions, precautions, and tips to stay healthy, look younger, and keep midlife crisis at bay forever. The Me I Know Susan Krauss Whitbourne, 2012-12-06 For the last 5 years I have been living with 94 adults. These 94 adults made up the sample of people in a study on adult development that Dale Dannefer and I began in 1980. This book represents my efforts to condense the almost 200 hours of tape-recorded material from the 94 adults into a form that captures at least some of the diversity and also some of the commonalities in their answers to the question: Who am I? My version of their answers is based on their reflections about themselves as family members, workers, and people with a goal in life. In arriving at the conclusion that adults attempt to see themselves as loved, competent, and good human beings, I believe that I have done justice to these people and their answers to my interview questions. Arriving at the point of being able to write about these 94 people's identities has not been an easy process. Countless attempts at numerically based rating systems were tried and discarded progressively until finally I decided to read all the transcripts in sequence, person by person, rather than question by question. What I found when I approached them as total individuals was surprising to me. I found a vibrant theme of certainty and self-assuredness in their identities that flew in the face of my previous ideas about developmental change in adulthood.
