What Kind of Day Mina V. Esguerra, It's a bad day for Ben. After years of earnest work he's been fired from his job as a speechwriter for a Philippine senator. Name tarnished and bridges burned he steps into what he thinks is a shuttle ride home and accidentally joins a tour of his own city. It was supposed to be a good day for Naya. Her passion is traveling her hobby is discovering cool things to see and do and taking people on tours of Metro Manila is her only job right now. An extra person at the last minute isn't ideal especially if the person is a former colleague and the subject of the day's hottest political trash fire. But work is work and she decides to let him stay in the tour. She's hoping she won't regret it. He's hoping his day turns around. What kind of day could it be? Maybe the best kind.

Scorched Earth Bianca Mori, Peyton Riley is running for her life. She's always been a survivor but she's never been in a pickle like this. Her boss the man she had come to fear and respect and the only constant in her peripatetic and dangerous life is after her and it doesn't seem like he intends a harmless catch up. But he's not the only one looking for Peyton. There's her sometime partner in crime and occasional hook up it's complicated. Carson Varis Law enforcement is also interested in her boss's shadowy business dealings thinking she's the key to unraveling them. And then there are those dealings themselves. What's her boss up to? Somehow Peyton doesn't think getting back at a former employee is the worst thing on his agenda.
