The Great Round World and what is Going on in it ,1896      Sappi What's in a Name Hugh F. Glen,2004 Latin is not as widely spoken as it once was even among well educated people Therefore names that were once self explanatory have for most of us lost their simplicity and become obscure      Exploring the World on the Net Cynthia G. Adams,1999 Educational resource for teachers parents and kids      Activities of Nondiplomatic Representatives of Foreign Principals in the United States United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Foreign Relations,1963      South African National Cinema Jacqueline Maingard,2013-05-13 South African National Cinema examines how cinema in South Africa represents national identities particularly with regard to race This significant and unique contribution establishes interrelationships between South African cinema and key points in South Africa s history showing how cinema figures in the making entrenching and undoing of apartheid This study spans the twentieth century and beyond through detailed analyses of selected films beginning with De Voortrekkers 1916 through to Mapantsula 1988 and films produced post apartheid including Drum 2004 Tsotsi 2005 and Zulu Love Letter 2004 Jacqueline Maingard discusses how cinema reproduced and constructed a white national identity taking readers through cinema s role in building white Afrikaner nationalism in the 1930s and 1940s She then moves to examine film culture and modernity in the development of black audiences from the 1920s to the 1950s especially in a group of films that includes Jim Comes to Joburg 1949 and Come Back Africa 1959 Jacqueline Maingard also considers the effects of the apartheid state s film subsidy system in the 1960s and 1970s and focuses on cinema against apartheid in the 1980s She reflects upon shifting national cinema policies following the first democratic election in 1994 and how it became possible for the first time to imagine an inclusive national film culture Illustrated throughout with excellent visual examples this cinema history will be of value to film scholars and historians as well as to practitioners in South Africa today      Activities of Nondiplomatic Representatives of Foreign Principals in the United States, Hearings ... 88-1 ... 1963 United States. Congress. Senate. Foreign Relations,1963      Appleton's Annual Cyclopædia and Register of Important Events of the Year ... ,1899      Appleton's Annual Cyclopaedia and Register of Important Events of the Years ,1900      Appletons' Annual Cyclopædia and Register of Important Events ... ,1900      We Want What's Ours Bernadette Atuahene,2014-06-26 Millions of people all over the world have been displaced from their homes and property Dispossessed individuals and communities often lose more than the physical structures they live in and their material belongings they are also denied their dignity These are dignity takings and land dispossessions occurring in South Africa during colonialism and apartheid are quintessential examples There have been numerous examples of dignity takings throughout the world but South Africa stands apart because of its unique remedial efforts The nation has attempted to move beyond the more common step of providing reparations compensation for physical losses to instead facilitating dignity restoration which is a comprehensive remedy that seeks to restore property while also confronting the underlying dehumanization infantilization and political exclusion that enabled the injustice Dignity restoration is the fusion of reparations with restorative justice In We Want What's Ours Bernadette Atuahene's detailed research and interviews with over one hundred and fifty South Africans who participated in the nation's land restitution program provide a snapshot of South Africa's successes and failures in achieving dignity restoration We Want What's Ours is globally relevant because dignity takings have happened all around the world and throughout history the Nazi confiscation of property from Jews during World War II the Hutu taking of property from Tutsis during the Rwandan genocide the widespread commandeering of native peoples' property across the globe and Saddam Hussein's seizing of property from the Kurds and others in Iraq are but a few examples When people are deprived of their property and dignity in years to come the lessons learned in South Africa can help governments policy makers scholars and international institutions make the transition from reparations to the more robust project of dignity restoration The Library of Historic Characters and Famous Events of All Nations and All Ages Ainsworth Rand Spofford, 1900

Christologies Victor I. Ezigbo, 2010-02-08 Who do you say that I am Mark 8:29 is the question of Christology. By asking this question, Jesus invites his followers to interpret him from within their own contexts: history, experience, and social location. Therefore, all responses to Jesus's invitation are contextual. But for too long, many theologians, particularly in the West, have continued to see Christology as a universal endeavor that is devoid of any contextual influences. This understanding of Christology undermines Jesus's expectations from us to imagine and appropriate him from within our own contexts. In Reimagining African Christologies, Victor I. Ezigbo presents a constructive exposition of the unique ways that many African theologians and lay Christians from various church denominations have interpreted and appropriated Jesus Christ in their own contexts. He also articulates the constructive contributions that these African Christologies can make to the development of Christological discourse in non-African Christian communities.
