Before He Kills Again Tadhg Coakley,2023-03-31 This tense crime novel second in a series featuring former inter county hurler now turned detective Garda Tim Collins finds a Cork city woman raped and murdered in her own home Assigned to the case Collins and new partner Deirdre Donnelly soon find out that there is a misogynistic apparatus male dark forces at play with plans to attack and kill many more women In a race against time and utter unacceptance of female degradation violence Collins and Deirdre have to find the killer before he acts again But can they Donnelly and her competitive and previously famous sportsman partner hate to lose but when one of Ireland s most dangerous criminals turns up in Collins home turf West Cork old sparring partner Superintendent Buckley insists he move case The West Cork investigation imploding and climaxing into a brutal killing we quickly learn this utterly likeable detective cans sometimes be violent and ruthless A respected professional he is often perceived as a wild card amongst the Garda ranks The witness of this murder in West Cork spurs him into battle How far will he go to avenge that death Will Collins become a killer too We are shown the dark realism of crime and the battles of will and intelligence that go on in the world policing A strong sense of place combined with a shocking double climax makes this second installment of the Tim Collins series a thrilling read The Internet of Animals Deborah Lupton,2023-03-07 The internet is made of cats is a half jokingly made claim Today animals of all shapes and sizes inhabit our digital spaces including companion animals wildlife feral animals and livestock In this book

Deborah Lupton explores how digital technologies and datafication are changing our relationships with other animals. Playfully building on the concept of The Internet of Things she discusses the complex feelings that have developed between people and animals through the use of digital devices from social media to employing animal like robots as companions and carers. The book brings together a range of perspectives including those of sociology, cultural geography, environmental humanities, critical animal studies and internet studies to consider how these new digital technologies are contributing to major changes in human animal relationships at both the micropolitical and macropolitical levels. As Lupton shows while digital devices and media have strengthened people's relationships to other creatures, these technologies can also objectify animals as things for human entertainment, therapy or economic exploitation. This original and engaging book will be of interest to scholars and students across the social sciences and humanities.
