(Im)mobile Homes Earvin Charles B. Cabalquinto, 2022 The home has been on the forefront of rapid economic political social and technological transformations for many individuals and families across the world As a country reliant on the exportation of human labor to sustain its national economy the Philippines exemplifies a valuable case study of the impacts of a globalized and networked society on the everyday dynamics of a transnational family arrangement Despite ranking among the heaviest Internet users in the world Filipino citizens are often left with no choice but to navigate digital and transnational environments orchestrated by the uneven distribution of both national and international resources and opportunities Im mobile Homes investigates the role of smartphones social media channels and various mobile applications in forging and sustaining intimate ties among dispersed Filipino family members Examining the digital lifeworlds of transnational Filipino family in Australia this volume draws on rich ethnographic study to explore the benefits of digital communication as well as the tensions enabled by the influences of socio cultural structures socio economic conditions technological affordances and institutional policies and processes on mobile practices It portrays the physically distributed yet virtually connected nature of the transnational Filipino family through diverse contexts such as observing family rituals performing intimate care and managing crises and foregrounds their unique strategies in addressing the interruptions of connecting at a distance Ultimately this volume underscores how mobile practices of the transnational Filipino family negotiate the pre existing and broader structural systems that re produce marginalization in a digital and global era Enriched by moving stories of transnational families Im mobile Homes offers a critical lens towards interrogating the possibilities and politics of a home from afar in the digital era

Transnationalism and Genealogy Philip Q. Yang, 2020-05-29 Transnationalism and genealogy is an emerging subfield of genealogy which intersects with other fields The last two to three decades have witnessed a significant growth in this subfield especially in the areas of transnationalism and family arrangements transnational marriage transnational adoption transnational parenting and transnational care for elderly parents However large gaps remain especially with regard to the impact of transnationalism on lineage In filling some lacunas in the current literature Transnationalism and Genealogy represents an initial attempt to frame the relationship between transnationalism and genealogy The articles included in this book cover various aspects of transnationalism and genealogy from historical periods until the present with perspectives from anthropology sociology history and African studies The topics stretch from transnationalism and the emancipation of black kinship to the transformation of a Chinese immigrant family from traditional to transnational as well as the impact of this transformation on its family relations and lineage a family history of transnational migration across four nation city states in four generations the role of social media platforms Facebook in particular in facilitating transnational care chains in the Trinidadian diasporic community and a comparison between Chinese immigrants in the United States and Singapore in transnational parenting The introductory essay offers a laconic assessment of the subfield of transnationalism and genealogy to know what happened to Clara in America but Clara isn't talking. Instead she's focusing all her energy obsessing over a hot new actor starring in the TV adaptation of her twin Jemma's favourite book. Soon Clara is reading every interview, trawling his social media and following him to showbiz parties in the hopes he'll notice she's 'The One'. As the sisters fall hard for two men they've never met, it's time to ask the question: Can either relationship survive the real world?

Seven Innovative Ways to Learn English for Non-Native Speaker Hayyu Rafikha, Nahyatul Ula, Hidayati Rahmah, Nurul Khaira, Khaira Fitri, Putri Rumaiza Ulfa, Rijlun Syathi, Adi Darma, Cut Radha Farhani, Wafa Dhina Aliyah, Amalia Adiba, Akhlis Yaumul Akhir, Ghinan Nafsiha Basith, Putri Alifah Rasikhah, 2024-12-30 This book delves into the transformative impact of modern technologies on English language learning, highlighting the integration of various digital tools and methodologies that have reshaped traditional educational practices. The early chapters focus on the rise of language learning apps like Duolingo, Cake, and Memrise, which utilize gamification and personalized learning paths to make language acquisition more engaging and effective. These tools are presented as crucial in today's interconnected world where mastering English is essential for both personal and professional growth. As the book progresses, it explores more advanced technologies such as virtual reality (VR) and artificial intelligence (AI), revolutionizing how language is taught and learned. VR is shown to create immersive real-world environments that enhance language proficiency and cultural understanding, while AI offers personalized feedback and adaptive learning experiences tailored to individual needs. The chapters illustrate how these innovations make language education more dynamic and accessible, paving the way for more effective learning outcomes. The book concludes by looking ahead to future trends in language learning, predicting the increasing integration of augmented reality (AR), AI, and VR into educational settings. These technologies are expected to lead to more personalized, adaptive learning environments, further enhancing the effectiveness and reach of language education. By providing a comprehensive overview of current and emerging technologies, this book underscores their importance in shaping the future of English language learning, ensuring that it remains relevant and impactful in a rapidly evolving world.

Social Media in Southeast Turkey Elisabetta Costa, 2016-02-29 This book presents an ethnographic study of social media in Mardin, a medium-sized town located in the Kurdish region of Turkey. The town is inhabited mainly by Sunni Muslim Arabs and Kurds and has been transformed in recent years by urbanisation. Elisabetta Costa uses her 15 months of ethnographic research to explain why public-facing social media is more conservative than offline life. Yet at the same time, social media has opened up unprecedented possibilities for private communications between genders and in relationships among young people. Costa reveals new worlds of intimacy, love, and romance. She also discovers that when viewed from the perspective of people's everyday lives, political participation on social media looks very different to how it is portrayed in studies of political postings separated from their original complex and highly socialised context, neoliberalism, and political events.
