

"Sayrafiezadeh looks back with wonder, even humor, at the many difficulties he faced in his childhood. . . .

[He] maintains a generous spirit throughout this eloquent memoir."

The revolution is not only inevitable it is imminent It is not only imminent it is quite imminent And when the time comes my father will lead it Sa d Sayrafiezadeh s Iranian born father and American Jewish mother had one thing in common their unshakable conviction that the workers revolution was coming Separated since their son was nine months old they each pursued a dream of the perfect socialist society Bouncing with his mother between makeshift Pittsburgh apartments falling asleep at party meetings longing for the luxuries he's taught to despise Sa'd waits for the revolution that never ever arrives Soon his mother assures him while his long absent father quixotically runs as a socialist candidate for president in an Iran about to fall under the ayatollahs Then comes the Iranian hostage crisis of 1979 The uproar that follows is the first time Sa'd hears the word Iran in school and there he is suddenly forced to confront the combustible stew of his identity as an American an Iranian a Jew a socialist and a middle school kid who loves football and video games With a profound gift for capturing the absurd in life and a deadpan wisdom that comes from surviving a surreal childhood in the Socialist Workers Party Sa'd Sayrafiezadeh has crafted an unsentimental funny heartbreaking memoir Love Is a Four-Letter Word Michael Taeckens, 2009-07-28 From Junot Diaz Lynda Barry Gary Shteyngart and Kate Christensen to popular up and comers like Dan Kennedy Wendy McClure and Brock Clarke Love Is a Four Letter Word is a dead on contemporary collection of true stories of seduction heartbreak and regret Fearlessly revealing their shattered hearts and crushed egos their indiscretions and indignities their delusions desperation and disappointments these talented writers capture the dark side of love in prose ranging from comic to poetic poignant to cringe inducing Also featuring three cartoon graphic essays as a sixteen page color insert this anthology is perfect for anyone who's ever loved and lost The Best American Nonrequired Reading 2012 Dave Eggers, 2012 A selection of the best writing including fiction nonfiction poetry comics and blogs published during 2011 Edited by Dave Eggers The Literature of the Iranian Diaspora Sanaz Fotouhi, 2015-04-03 The 1979 Revolution in Iran caused the migration of millions of Iranians many of whom wrote and are still writing of their experiences Formed at the junctions of Iranian culture English language and Western cultures this body of work has not only formed a unique literary space offering an insightful reflection of Iranian diasporic experiences and its shifting nature but it has also been making a unique and understudied contribution to World Literatures in English as significant as Indian African and Asian writing in English Sanaz Fotouhi here traces the origins of the emerging body of diasporic Iranian literature in English and uses these origins to examine the socio political position and historical context from which they have emerged Fotouhi brings together introduces and analyses for the first time a significant range of diasporic Iranian writers alongside each other and alongside other diasporic literatures in English While situating this body of work through existing theories such as postcolonialism Fotouhi sheds new light on the role of Iranian literature and culture in Western literature by showing that these writings distinctively reflect experiences unique to the Iranian diaspora Analysing the relationship between Iranians and their new surroundings by drawing on theories of migration narration and identity Fotouhi examines how the literature borne out of the Iranian diaspora reconstructs maintains and negotiates their Individual and communal identities and reflects today's socio political realities This book will be vital for researchers of

Middle Eastern literature and its relationship with writings from the West as well as those interested in the cultural history of the Middle East

House of Sticks Ly Tran, 2022-05-10 An intimate beautifully written coming of age memoir a young girl's journey from war torn Vietnam to Ridgewood Queens and her struggle to find her voice amid clashing cultural expectations Ly Tran is just a toddler in 1993 when she and her family emigrate from a small town along the Mekong River in Vietnam to a two bedroom railroad apartment in Ridgewood Queens Ly's father a former lieutenant in the South Vietnamese army spent nearly a decade as a POW and their resettlement is made possible through a humanitarian program run by the US government Soon after they arrive Ly joins her parents and three older brothers in sewing ties and cummerbunds piecemeal on their living room floor to make ends meet As they navigate this new landscape Ly finds herself torn between two worlds She knows she must honor her parents Buddhist faith and contribute to the family livelihood working long hours at home and then later as a manicurist alongside her mother at a nail salon in Brownsville Brooklyn which her parents eventually take over But at school Ly feels the mounting pressure to blend in A growing inability to see the blackboard presents new challenges especially when her father forbids her from getting glasses calling her diagnosis of poor vision a government conspiracy His frightening temper and paranoia leave an indelible mark on Ly's sense of self Who is she outside of everything her family expects of her Told in a spare evocative voice that with flashes of humor weaves together her family's immigration experience with her own fraught and courageous coming of age House of Sticks is a timely and powerful portrait of one girl's struggle to reckon with her heritage and forge her own path

My Shadow Is My Skin Katherine Whitney, Leila Emery, 2020-03-16 The Iranian revolution of 1979 launched a vast global diaspora with many Iranians establishing new lives in the United States In the four decades since the diaspora has expanded to include not only those who emigrated immediately after the revolution but also their American born children more recent immigrants and people who married into Iranian families all of whom carry their own stories of trauma triumph adversity and belonging that reflect varied and nuanced perspectives on what it means to be Iranian or Iranian American The essays in My Shadow Is My Skin are these stories This collection brings together thirty two authors both established and emerging whose writing captures the diversity of diasporic experiences Reflecting on the Iranian American experience over the past forty years and shedding new light on themes of identity duality and alienation in twenty first century America the authors present personal narratives of immigration sexuality marginalization marriage and religion that offer an antidote to the news media's often superficial portrayals of Iran and the people who have a connection to it My Shadow Is My Skin pulls back the curtain on a community that rarely gets to tell its own story

The Books That Changed My Life Bethanne Patrick, 2016-03-29 One hundred of today's most prominent literary and cultural icons talk about the books that hold a special place in their hearts that made them who they are today Leading authors politicians CEOs actors and other notables share the books that changed their life why they love them and their passion with readers everywhere Regan Arts has teamed up with the literary charity

826National which will receive a portion of the book's proceeds to provide students ages 6-18 with opportunities to explore their creativity and improve their writing skills. Contributors include Al Roker, Carl Hiaasen, Dave Eggers, Emma Straub, Eric Idle, Fay Weldon, Fran Lebowitz, Gillian Flynn, Gregory Maguire, Jeff Kinney, Jim Shepard, Laura Lippmann, Lev Grossman, Liev Schreiber, Margaret Atwood, Mayim Bialik, Nelson DeMille, Rosanne Cash, Susan Orlean, Tim Gunn, and Tommy Hilfiger among others. PEN America 13: Lovers, Brief Encounters with the Enemy Saïd Sayrafiezadeh, 2013. An unnamed American city feeling the effects of a war waged far away and suffering from bad weather is the backdrop for this startling work of fiction. The protagonists are aimless young men going from one blue collar job to the next or in a few cases aspiring to middle management. Their everyday struggles with women, with the morning commute, with a series of cruel bosses are somehow transformed into storytelling that is both universally resonant and wonderfully uncanny. That is the unsettling, funny, and ultimately heartfelt originality of Saïd Sayrafiezadeh's short fiction to be at home in a world not quite our own but with many, many lessons to offer us. New American Stories Ben Marcus, 2015-07-21. In New American Stories the beautiful, the strange, the melancholy, and the sublime all come together to show the vast range of the American short story. In this remarkable anthology Ben Marcus has corralled a vital and artistically singular crowd of contemporary fiction writers. Collected here are practitioners of deep realism, mind-blowing experimentalism, and every hybrid in between. Luminaries and cult authors stand side-by-side with the most compelling new literary voices. Nothing less than the American short story renaissance distilled down to its most relevant, daring, and unforgettable works. New American Stories puts on wide display the true art of an American idiom. The Publishers Weekly, 2009. Best Copy Available Jay Baron Nicorvo, 2024-09-01. In the winter of 1984 Sharon Nicorvo was violently raped while delivering pizza to Fort Monmouth Army Base in New Jersey. At the same time her seven-year-old son Jay was being subjected to repeated and secret sexual abuse by his babysitter. Best Copy Available delves into these devastating events and their long aftermath. Thirty years later Nicorvo receives a photocopy of the criminal investigation report documenting that brutal night. This report offers a primer to better understand certain assumptions about class and race, sex and violence, crime and punishment, low and high culture, sanity, madness, and masculinity, and the facsimile nature of the truth. As various American men, some real, some imagined, all prone to violence, move in and then out of their hardscrabble lives, mother and son spend decades avoiding and ultimately confronting what happened to them in that formative year. From the Jersey Shore to the Gulf Coast of Florida to the Midwest, Best Copy Available tells a harrowing and sometimes hilarious American story: how the love of a single mother helped end an awful cycle of abuse and abandonment. Most ambitiously, Best Copy Available lends voice to an alternative version of American boyhood, manhood, and fatherhood. One where the sons of deadbeat dads can grow up to be stay-at-home dads, and where our boys and men may realize that the most courageous show of strength is not the determined use of force. It's knowing when and how to ask for help. To Show and to Tell Phillip Lopate, 2013-02-12. A long-awaited and illuminating book on personal writing from Phillip Lopate celebrated essayist professor of writing at Columbia University and editor of The Art of the Personal Essay Distinguished author Phillip Lopate editor of the celebrated anthology The Art of the Personal Essay is universally acclaimed as one of our best personal essayists Dallas Morning News Here combining more than forty years of lessons from his storied career as a writer and professor he brings us this highly anticipated nuts and bolts guide to writing literary nonfiction A phenomenal master class shaped by Lopate s informative accessible tone and immense gift for storytelling To Show and To Tell reads like a long walk with a favorite professor refreshing insightful and encouraging in often unexpected ways The Writers Directory ,2013 Book Review Digest ,2009 The Literary Review ,2009

Leaving the Witness Amber Scoriah,2020-06-02 A fascinating glimpse into the consciousness of being an outsider in every possible way and what it takes to find your path into the life you d like to lead Nylon A riveting memoir of losing faith and finding freedom while a covert missionary in one of the world s most restrictive countries A third generation Jehovah s Witness Amber Scoriah had devoted her life to sounding God s warning of impending Armageddon She volunteered to take the message to China where the preaching she did was illegal and could result in her expulsion or worse Here she had some distance from her community for the first time Immersion in a foreign language and culture and a whole new way of thinking turned her world upside down and eventually led her to lose all that she had been sure was true As a proselytizer in Shanghai using fake names and secret codes to evade the authorities notice Scoriah discreetly looked for targets in public parks and stores To support herself she found work at a Chinese language learning podcast hiding her real purpose from her coworkers Now with a creative outlet getting to know worldly people for the first time she began to understand that there were other ways of seeing the world and living a fulfilling life When one of these relationships became an escape hatch Scoriah s loss of faith culminated in her own personal apocalypse the only kind of ending possible for a Jehovah s Witness Shunned by family and friends as an apostate Scoriah was alone in Shanghai and thrown into a world she had only known from the periphery with no education or support system A coming of age story of a woman already in her thirties this unforgettable memoir examines what it s like to start one s life over again with an entirely new identity It follows Scoriah to New York City where a personal tragedy forces her to look for new ways to find meaning in the absence of religion With compelling spare prose Leaving the Witness traces the bittersweet process of starting over when everything one s life was built around is gone
