Transnational Activism And The Israeli Palestinian Conflict:

Transnational Activism and the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict M. Hallward, 2013-11-26 This book examines the polarization of positions surrounding the transnational boycott divestment and sanctions BDS movement aimed at ending the Israeli occupation The author compares four US based case studies in which activists for and against BDS struggle over issues of identity morality legitimacy and conceptions of peace

Conflict Transformation and the Palestinians Alpaslan Ozerdem, Chuck Thiessen, Mufid Qassoum, 2016-12-01 This book explores the challenges of transforming the violent conflict between the State of Israel and the Palestinians into just peace There are many challenges involved in the bottom up transformation of the violent structures that sustain the State of Israel's occupation of Palestinian territory This book examines these structures as it assesses the actors and strategies that are contributing to the termination of cycles of violence and oppression Consisting of contributions from both peace practitioners and academics who have conducted research within Israel and the occupied territory the volume utilises a multidisciplinary perspective to examine promising strategies for conflict transformation in Israel and the occupied Palestinian territory Moreover it spells out the types of nonviolent strategy that are being used to expose and undermine occupation structures and surveys the manner in which a variety of key actors are working towards the transformation of the ongoing conflict As a whole the volume presents a proposal for the transformation of the conflict between Palestinians and the State of Israel that embraces the constructive potential of conflict engages with power asymmetry and pushes for justice and accountability This book will be of much interest to students of conflict resolution peace studies Middle Eastern studies the Arab Israeli conflict and IR in general

Routledge Companion to the Israeli-Palestinian Conflict Asaf Siniver, 2022-10-27 This Companion explores the Israeli Palestinian conflict from its inception to the present day demonstrating the depth and breadth of the many facets of the conflict from the historical political and diplomatic to the social economic and pedagogical aspects The contributions also engage with notions of objectivity and bias and the difficulties this causes when studying the conflict in order to reflect the diversity of views and often contentious discussion surrounding this conflict The volume is organized around six parts reflecting the core aspects of the conflict historical and scholarly context of the competing narratives contemporary evolution of the conflict and its key diplomatic junctures key issues of the conflict its local dimensions international environment of the conflict the other images of the conflict as reflected in public opinion popular culture the boycott divestment and sanctions BDS movement and academia and pedagogy Providing a comprehensive approach to the Israeli Palestinian conflict this companion is designed for academics researchers and students interested in the key issues and contemporary themes of the conflict

Understanding Nonviolence Maia Carter Hallward, Julie M. Norman, 2015-09-15 The use of nonviolent action is on the rise From the Occupy Movement to the Arab Spring and mass protests on the streets of Brazil activists across the world are increasingly using unarmed tactics to challenge oppressive corrupt and unjust systems But what exactly do we mean by nonviolence How is it deployed and to what effect Do nonviolent campaigns with political motivations differ from those driven by primarily economic concerns What are the limits and opportunities for activists engaging in nonviolent action today Is the growing number of nonviolence protests indicative of a new type of twenty first century struggle or is it simply a passing trend Understanding Nonviolence Contours and Contexts is the first book to offer a comprehensive introduction to nonviolence in theory and practice Combining insightful analysis of key theoretical debates with fresh perspectives on contemporary and historical case studies it explores the varied approaches aims and trajectories of nonviolent campaigns from Gandhi to the present day With cutting edge contributions from leading scholars and practitioners in the field this accessible and lively book will be essential reading for activists students and teachers of contentious politics international security and peace and conflict studies Narratives of Identity in Social Movements, Conflicts and Change Landon E. Hancock, 2016-08-26 This volume focuses on analyses of identity and narratives of identity in conflict outbreaks dynamics resolution and or post conflict peacebuilding and transitional justice Palestine's Horizon Richard Falk, 2017-03-20 Richard Falk has dedicated much of his life to the study of the Israel Palestine conflict In Palestine s Horizon he brings his experiences to bear on one of the most controversial issues of our times After enduring years of violent occupation the Palestinian movement is exploring different avenues for peace These include the pursuit of rights under international law through the UN and International Criminal Court and the new emphasis on global solidarity and non violent militancy embodied by the Boycott Divestment and Sanctions Campaign BDS In focusing on these new tactics of resistance Falk refutes the notion that the Palestinian struggle is a lost cause He also reflects on the legacy of Edward Said and the importance of his humanist thought in order to present a vision of peace that is mindful of the formidable difficulties of achieving a just solution to the long conflict The Palgrave Encyclopedia of Interest Groups, Lobbying and Public Affairs Phil Harris, Alberto Bitonti, Craig S. Fleisher, Anne Skorkjær Binderkrantz, 2022-06-20 The growing need for a concise and comprehensive overview of the world of interest groups lobbying and public affairs called for a compendium of existing research key theories concepts and case studies This project is the first transnational encyclopedia to offer such an interdisciplinary and wide overview of these topics including perspectives on public relations crisis management communication studies as well as political science political marketing and policy studies It is an interdisciplinary work which involved an extraordinary pool of contributors made up of leading scholars and practitioners from all around the globe it is a live and evolving project focused on drawing together grounded international knowledge for our diverse and developing world The 200 entries of the Palgrave Encyclopedia of Interest Groups Lobbying and Public Affairs to be found as a live reference work online here and in two print volumes in 2022 address these research avenues tackling a growing demand for a comprehensive international reference work regarding key global sectors and policymaking structures looking beyond the traditional markets of Europe and North America to incorporate practice and research from Asia Africa Oceania and Latin America This encyclopedia acts as a synthesis of existing research and aims to aid academics students and practitioners navigate their relevant fields around the globe Boycotting Israel is Wrong Philip Mendes,Nick Dyrenfurth,2015-05-01 This is the first progressive book to argue that the BDS movement boycott divestment and sanctions against Israel is the wrong way to broker peace in the Israeli Palestinian conflict rather it argues that peace will come only when both Israelis and Palestinians legitimate claims to statehood are recognised by both sides The BDS movement boycott divestment sanctions against Israel has gained traction and publicity worldwide for a decade Yet here Philip Mendes and Nick Dyrenfurth two politically progressive commentators argue that BDS is far too blunt an instrument to use in such a complex political situation Instead they critically analyse the key arguments for and against BDS and propose a solution that supports Israel's existence and Palestinian rights to a homeland urging mutual compromise and concessions from both sides

Understanding International Conflict Management Charity Butcher, Maia Carter Hallward,2019-11-28 This new textbook introduces key mechanisms and issues in international conflict management and engages students with a comprehensive interdisciplinary approach to mitigating managing and transforming international conflicts The volume identifies key historical events and international agreements that have shaped and defined the field of international conflict management as well as key dilemmas facing the field at this juncture The first section provides an overview of key mechanisms for international conflict management such as negotiation mediation nonviolent resistance peacekeeping peacebuilding transitional justice and reconciliation The second section tackles important cross cutting themes such as technology religion the economy refugees and migration and the role of civil society examining how these issues contribute to international conflicts and how they can be leveraged to help address such conflicts Each chapter includes a brief historical overview of the evolution of the issue or mechanism identifies key theoretical and practical debates and includes case studies discussion questions website links and suggested further reading for further study and engagement By providing a mixture of theory and practical examples this textbook provides students with the necessary background to navigate this interdisciplinary field This volume will be of great interest to students of international conflict management conflict resolution peace studies and international relations in general Palestinian Women and Popular Resistance Liyana Kayali,2020-11-09 This book explores Palestinian women's views of popular resistance in the West Bank and examines factors shaping the nature and extent of their involvement Despite the signing of the Oslo peace accords in 1993 and 1995 the Occupied Palestinian Territories in the contemporary period have experienced tightened Israeli occupational control and worsening political humanitarian security and economic conditions Based on ethnographic fieldwork conducted with women in the West Bank this book looks at how Palestinian women in the post Oslo period perceive negotiate and enact resistance It demonstrates that far from being apathetic as some observers have charged Palestinian women remain deeply committed to the goals of national liberation and wish to contribute to an effective popular resistance movement Yet many Palestinian women feel alienated from prevailing forms of collective popular resistance in the OPT due to the low levels of legitimacy they accord them. This alienation has been made stark by the gendered and intersecting impacts of expanding settler colonialism, tightening spatial control, a professionalised and depoliticised civil society, reinforced patriarchal constraints, Israeli and Palestinian Authority (PA) repression and violence, and a deteriorating economy, all of which have raised the barriers Palestinian women face to active participation. Undertaking a gendered analysis of conflict and resistance, this volume highlights significant changes over the course of a long running resistance movement. Readers interested in gender and women's studies, the Arab-Israel conflict, and Middle East politics will find the study beneficial.
