Transactions Society Literature Kingdom Classic:

The Classical Journal ,1827 Dictionary of Bibliographic Abbreviations Found in the Scholarship of Classical Studies and Related Disciplines Jean S. Wellington,2003-08-30 Trying to identify abbreviated titles of journals and standard bibliographic works is a major difficulty facing researchers and librarians in the field of Classical Studies This revised edition has been greatly expanded with nearly twice the abbreviations 17 000 and bibliographic entries 12 400 as the first edition Also the Greek and Cyrillic abbreviations have increased by seven and four fold respectively Abbreviations for internet sites are now included as are those for associations in the broad area of Classical Studies There are also more entries for Eastern European and regional archaeological publications This revised volume is divided into two parts Part One consists of an alphabetical listing of bibliographic abbreviations found in the scholarship of classical studies and related disciplines Meanwhile Part Two is an alphabetically arranged bibliographic descriptions for the works published in classical studies and related disciplines Special efforts were made to increase the coverage in peripheral areas making this new edition a useful reference tool for scholars in all subjects of study in the ancient and medieval world The Classical Journal

Abraham John Valpy,Edmund Henry Barker,2013-02-28 This forty volume collection comprises all the issues of an early and influential classical periodical first published between 1810 and 1829 Travel and Classical Antiquities in Nineteenth-Century Ottoman Greece Alexia Petsalis-Diomidis,2024-12-09 Western travel and collecting classical antiquities in the nineteenth century informed European understandings of Greece s past and present and enriched private collections and museums Travel and collecting have typically been studied separately by literary scholars historians of archaeology and historians of the Ottoman Empire and modern Greece Similarly publications have largely prioritised evidence from and about elite social groups This book breaks new ground through its interdisciplinary approach its insistence on the interweaving of the phenomena of travel and collecting and its emphasis on marginalised perspectives Contributors drawn from art history classics history of architecture Ottoman history and modern Greek history foreground diversity and small scale engagements with the landscape and material past of Ottoman Greece The book explores the perspectives of both foreign travellers and local inhabitants through case studies keeping a sharp focus on ethnicity and social status Diaries visual art and rich archival material are analysed often from a novel perspective to give voice to a range of people including English servants Albanian peasants an illiterate Greek fighter and the Ottoman Sultan The result is a micro cultural history of travel and classical collecting which expands existing narratives As such it changes the simplistic dichotomy between collecting as pillaging or saving and nuances the important current debate surrounding repatriation Travel and Classical Antiquities in Nineteenth Century Ottoman Greece addresses scholars in the areas of classical reception studies classical archaeology material culture studies nineteenth century studies Ottoman studies and modern Greek studies It will also appeal to a broader audience of people interested in travel writing the history of archaeology and the history of Greece Commemorating Classical Battles

Brandon Braun,2023-07-15 This is a study of the commemoration of Classical Greek battles approaching monuments and other mnemonic practices as vital elements in the creation and curation of memories It analyzes the diachronic development of battlefield sanctuary and city spaces as evidenced by archaeological remains and ancient literary sources In addition it explores the experience of the commemorative spaces through the application of theories of space phenomenology and social memory Following a biographical approach the commemoration of each battle is organized into stages of initial commemoration official monumentalization memory curation memory lapse and reception The research has led to several conclusions While the commemoration of each battle can be divided into stages these stages are not always discrete There is variation in the types of commemorations within the stages dependent on time surrounding space and the parties involved Single commemorations can resonate differently with multiple audiences The processes within the stage of memory curation lead to the subsequent lapse The final stage of commemoration for each battle begins with the rediscovery of ancient monuments and continues to this day The battles of Marathon Leuktra and Chaironeia are case studies for three reasons First they effectively span the period of Classical Greece Marathon in 490 BCE to Chaironeia in 338 BCE Secondly these battles had different participants thus allowing a variety of perspectives of both the victorious and the defeated Lastly these were battles that left lasting impacts in the material and literary record making their commemoration relevant not only in antiquity but also in the modern world The Classical Poetry of the Japanese Basil Hall Chamberlain,1880

CATALOGUE OF GREEK AND LATIN CLASSICS MODERN LATINISTS AND HELLENISTS MACARONI,1884

Classics in Extremis Edmund Richardson,2018-12-13 Classics in Extremis reimagines classical reception Its contributors explore some of the most remarkable hard fought and unsettling claims ever made on the ancient world from the coal mines of England to the paradoxes of Borges from Victorian sexuality to the trenches of the First World War from American public school classrooms to contemporary right wing politics How does the reception of the ancient world change under impossible strain Its protagonists are marginal figures who resisted that definition in the strongest terms Contributors argue for a decentered model of classical reception where the marginal shapes the central as much as vice versa and where the most unlikely appropriations of antiquity often have the greatest impact What kind of distortions does the model of centre and margins produce How can marginal receptions be recovered most effectively Bringing together some of the leading scholars in the field Classics in Extremis moves beyond individual case studies to develop fresh methodologies and perspectives on the study of classical reception The Right Method of Studying the Greek and Latin Classics Herbert William Horwill,1887 The National Union Catalog, Pre-1956 Imprints ,1968
